Synopsis:

Narrative:

On 7/2/19 I was working uniformed patrol for the Tacoma Police Department as a fully marked 2 officer unit (H349) alongside my partner PPO Guiardinu. While actively patrolling SS911 advised all units and cleared the air for a priority call in regards to a weapon intimidation located at 3840 Pacific Avenue (Dominoe's Pizza) at approximately 2102 hours. SS911 advised all units that there was a woman in front of the business armed with a knife waving it at customers.

While en-route to the location assisting units had already arrived and attempted contact with the armed subject. Prior to arriving on scene PPO Komarovsky (U241) advised over the radio that there were shots fired. Moments after PPO Komarovsky's radio transmission we arrived on scene on the north side of the building. I observed PPO Hayward rendering medical aid to the subject on the east side of the building. I assisted the PPO Hayward with rendering medical aid to the subject until Tacoma Fire had arrived.

Once the subject was transported to the hospital PPO Guiardinu and myself assisted in crime scene security placing caution tape around the exterior perimeter of the scene. The scene was then held for forensic processing. While PPO Guiardinu was holding the scene I contacted an employee at 3837 Pacific Avenue that had a surveillance camera pointed towards the location. The employee stated she did not know how to access the footage.

I did not examine or process any of the evidence within the crime scene nor did I speak with any witnesses that had seen the incident from the beginning to the end.

I was released from the scene at approximately 0108 by Sgt Graham.

Nothing further.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 7/2/19, I responded to the listed location upon hearing shots fired over the radio. Upon arrival, I used my patrol vehicle to block S 40th and Pacific and then proceeded to tape off the outer crime scene perimeter. I then spoke with several individuals in the parking lot of the Natures Recreational Center at 3833 Pacific Ave. None were witnesses to the incident, stating that they only heard shots fired. I then spoke with employees of the Natures Recreational Center to determine if their cameras covered any area across the street toward the Domino's. Their cameras covered only their parking lot. I then held perimeter security until tasked with transporting a Domino's employee to his residence. I was then released from the scene by Sgt. Jagodinski.

Narrative:	On 07-02-2019 I (PPO-MAAHS) was assigned as a Police Training Officer with PPO-A CORREA. At approximately 2107 hours we responded to 3840 Pacific Avenue to assist officers in regards to this incident. Upon arrival we assisted with blocking northbound traffic on Pacific avenue at S 40th Street. PPO-A CORREA then began a crime scene log and provided scene security on the south end of the scene. We remained at that position until relieved by PPO-GILBERT. During the incident I did not contact any witnesses or locate any evidence. SGT-GRAHAM was at the scene and advised of my involvement.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 07-02-2019 at approximately 2106 hours PPS C. BURBANK and I were conducting a traffic stop in the 1000 block of S 38th St when officers on scene of a weapons intimidation call reported shots fired. We then responded to their location at 3840 Pacific Ave where I assisted with securing the scene and placing crime scene tape around the perimeter. PPS BURBANK and I then responded to Tacoma General Medical Center with the in-custody female with myself riding in the transport with her. Upon arrival she was identified as A/THAO T. PHAM 06-27-1963 with the assistance of a finger print scanner issued to Fife PD. PPS BURBANK and I remained with A/PHAM until she was interviewed by CID Detectives and then left in the custody of PPO J. DIAZ. The clothes removed from A/PHAM were secured and left in the custody of Forensic Services at Tacoma General Hospital. I did not attempt to question or interview A/PHAM at anytime while in my custody.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 07/02/2019, I was working as a one officer patrol unit (U-259), for the City of Tacoma. At approximately 2104 hours, I responded with other TPD officers to Dominos, located at 3840 Pacific Ave, for a disturbance involving a knife. Dispatch advised a female was waving a knife at customers. While en route to the location, officers already on scene advised over the radio, that there were shots fired. Upon arrival, I parked my vehicle in southbound lanes of Pacific Ave in front of the location to block traffic. I observed multiple officers already on scene. I observed officers rendering medical aid to a female. I assisted other officers in securing the area around the scene. I contacted no witness and collected no evidence. At approximately 2132 hours, I cleared the scene as directed by SGT GRAHAM (S-065). At approximately 0054 hours, I was directed by SGT LIM (S-092) to returned to Tacoma PD headquarters in order to transport a witness home. I transported W/ASHLEY YOUNG to her residence. This concludes my involvement see other officers supplemental report and the general report for further details.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 07-02-2019 I was operating as a two-officer unit with PPO M. COLLINS and we were operating a marked Tacoma Police vehicle. I was wearing my issued Tacoma Police jumpsuit uniform that has Tacoma Police departmental patches affixed to both sleeves. I was also wearing my issued exterior body armor and duty belt with department issued equipment attached. The exterior vest has a cloth Tacoma Police badge attached to the upper left chest and the back is marked in large reflective block letters with the word POLICE. I was clearly identifiable as a Police Officer. At approximately 2106 hours we conducting a traffic stop in the 1000 block of S 38th St when officers on scene of a weapons intimidation call reported shots fired. We then responded to their location at 3840 Pacific Ave where I found PPO'S R. KOMAROVSKY, P. HAYWARD, and S. HENDERSHOT rendering aid to a female lying on the sidewalk next to Domino's Pizza. I observed several different knives to include a large kitchen style knife and folding pocket knife lying on the sidewalk where they were rendering aid. After determining that PPO KOMAROVSKY was involved in the shooting, I instructed him to wait in his vehicle until a supervisor arrived on scene. I assisted PPO'S HAYWARD and HENDERSHOT with applying a tourniquet to the females lower right leg for an apparent gunshot injury and we then located an additional gunshot injury to the left shoulder that was tended to until TFD arrived on scene. PPO COLLINS and I then responded to Tacoma General Medical Center with the in-custody female with PPO COLLINS riding in the transport with her. Upon arrival she was identified as A/THAO T. PHAM 06-27-1963 with the assistance of a finger print scanner issued to Fife PD. PPO COLLINS and I remained with A/PHAM until she was interviewed by CID Detectives and then left in the custody of PPO J. DIAZ. The clothes removed from A/PHAM were secured and left in the custody of Forensic Services at Tacoma General Hospital. I did not attempt to question or interview A/PHAM at anytime while in my custody.

Investigative Information

Synopsis:

Narrative: On 07/02/19 At approximately 2106 hours I (PPO SPANGLER) responded to 3840 Pacific Ave (Domino's Pizza) reference an officer involved shooting incident.

I responded from Tacoma Police Headquarters. While enroute I read the call for further information. The RP advised there was a female in front of the business armed with a knife, waving it in the air at a customer. The female with the knife was described as a being in her 50's, 4 feet tall, thin, wearing a grey puffy jacket, a leopard print skirt over blue jeans. The knife was described as a kitchen knife with a 5 to 6-inch blade. The RP advised she had locked the door to the business.

Upon arrival at the scene, I observed other officers providing aid to the female while other officers contained the scene. I made contact with the employees of the Dominos. I contacted four employees:

W/ Juvenile said she was near the front of the business behind the front counter when a female entered thru the front doors. The female said there was another female outside chasing her with a knife. W/ Juvenile said she has high anxiety so she avoided getting involved and did not see anything else that happened. W/ Juvenile hand were noticeably shaking while I spoke with her.

W/YOUNG was the manager of the business and the RP. W/YOUNG said she was called from the back of the business to the front by another employee, W/ Juvenile When W/YOUNG got to the front of the store she observed a female had just come in thru the front doors. W/YOUNG said the female was hard to understand but W/ Juvenile was able to make out "she has a knife" as the female pointed to another female standing outside in front of the doors. W/YOUNG locked the doors as the female began pacing back and forth outside in front of the doors. The female then began screaming something unintelligible. W/YOUNG could see a knife in the female's hand; W/YOUNG described the knife as a kitchen knife, approximately 6 inches long. W/YOUNG called 911 as she watched the female pace. W/YOUNG said she saw police arriving an observed an officer with his gun out telling multiple times to "drop the knife and get on the ground."

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

W/YOUNG said "she wasn't dropping the knife." W/YOUNG said she heard several pops which she assumed were gunfire but she had looked away.

W/Juvenile said he was at the front of the business behind the counter making a pizza when a female came through the front doors. The female asked if she could come in because there was someone chasing her with a knife. W/Juvenile called W/YOUNG to the front and he observed W/YOUNG contact the female and then lock the doors. The female who had come in pointed to another female outside in front of the doors and said "she's got a knife" W/Juvenile observed the female holding something "shiny with a point" at her side. W/Juvenile observed officers arriving and heard them say multiple times "put the knife down." W/Juvenile said he heard a few pops which he thought was gunfire but could not say he actually saw any shots being fired.

W/GREEN said he had been sitting in his vehicle (WA BOY8789) on his break; his vehicle was parked across the parking lot drive way to the north of the front doors to the business. When W/GREEN exited his vehicle an officer was arriving. W/GREEN said the officer asked "where is she?" W/GREEN pointed the officer to the business as he had seen a female enter and assumed the officer was there for the female inside. W/GREEN said he then walked into the business. W/GREEN was making his way to the back when he heard someone yelling "put the knife down" 3 to 4 times. As W/GREEN entered the back he heard several loud pops. W/GREEN peered around a corner and observed an officer with his "nightstick" out chasing female towards Pacific on the sidewalk in front of the business. The female fell down on the sidewalk to the east of the front doors and W/GREEN went to the back.

I then remained on scene, providing scene security, until I was advised by SGT GRAHAM (S065) that I could clear.

Narrative:	On 7/2/19 at approximately 2100 hours I was working a two officer car with PPO Farinas when SS911 Dispatch advised all units to clear the air for a priority call in regards to a weapon intimidation located at 3840 Pacific Avenue (Dominoe's Pizza.) The comments on the call stated a female was waving a knife around at customers. While en-route officers arrived on scene, moments later an officer on scene advised over the air that shots were fired. We approached the building from the north placing my car as a barricade to prevent surveillance from going into the scene. Upon approaching the scene, I observed an officer rendering aid on the subject. I assisted with crime scene security and I placed caution tape around the exterior and interior perimeter of the scene. I was also tasked with preserving all the evidence, which were all located in front of the building (four casings and two knives.) I performed my tasks until I was released from the scene by Sgt Graham. Nothing further.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 7/2/19 I (PPO S. Hendershot 355) was conducting routine patrol in the City of Tacoma. I was driving a marked patrol vehicle, equipped with lights and audible sirens. I was wearing a department issued jumpsuit, with a fabric police patch on the left chest, and "POLICE" in large letters on the back of the jumpsuit.
------------	--

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

At approximately 2102 Dispatch aired a call about a possible intimidation with a weapon that was occurring at 3840 Pacific Avenue, Dominos Pizza. A woman was reported to be waving a knife around at the store. I responded from the area of S. 47th and Tacoma Mall Boulevard.

As I was arriving, I heard a unit on scene air out "shots fired." Shortly after I arrived on scene. Upon arriving I observed PPO P. Hayward (299) and PPO R. Komarovsky (241) rendering first aid to a woman (S/UNKNOWN) on the east side of the Dominos building. She was already in handcuffs. I observed that the woman's left leg appeared to be bleeding in the lower leg. Per PPO Hayward's instruction, I applied a tourniquet on the woman's left leg.

I then observed the following of the overall crime scene. On the east side of the business I saw a pocket knife on the ground with the blade out. There was also a fully extended police baton in planting strip on the east side of the building. On the northeast corner of the building I saw another knife on the ground. On the north side of the building I saw a third knife by a brick pillar. I also observed multiple shell casings on the north side, by the main entrance of the store.

I then began interviewing witnesses inside the store. The first person I spoke with was W/Rochelle HAWLEY. She was sitting inside the store at a table right next to the front entrance. W/HAWLEY appeared very animated when speaking with me. She advised me that she had seen S/UNKNOWN earlier in the morning in the area of 38th and Pacific. At the time of the incident, W/HAWLEY was standing by the main entrance of Dominos. She then observed S/UNKNOWN pull a knife out of a brown bag she had. W/HAWLEY stated that S/UNKNOWN "might have been drunk" or "on something." S/UNKNOWN then began walking towards W/HAWLEY with the knife in her hand. At this time the Dominos staff locked the front entrance with W/HAWLEY inside and S/UNKNOWN outside. I then asked W/HAWLEY what had occurred when police showed up. W/HAWLEY advised that she saw officers backing up after contacting S/UNKNOWN. She also saw a baton "go up" and then heard gunshots.

This concluded the information I was able to gather from W/HAWLEY. I provided her with a handwritten statement form, which she filled out. It should be noted that she is a transient in the area and does not have a permanent address, but did provide me with the phone number 206-841-0662. The handwritten statement was later given to one of the detectives working the case.

I then contacted Dominos Employee, W/Taylor DAVIS. I gathered his information and he advised me that he was a delivery driver. W/DAVIS then gave me his statement as to what happened. He advised that he had been by the back computer when W/HAWLEY entered the store and said a lady had a knife. W/DAVIS said his manager called 911 and police officers soon arrived. He saw then walking up from the parking lot. W/DAVIS then said he heard shouting and saw one officer with a baton and attempted to hit whatever S/UNKNOWN was holding "a couple of times." Shortly after W/DAVIS then heard multiple gunshots. He advised that he did not see the actual shooting.

I was then advised by an on scene supervisor to transport W/HAWLEY to TPD HQ for interviews. I gathered all her personal items (she had several bags) as well as a cat in a pet carrier. I stopped briefly at S. 48th and Pacific to give W/HAWLEY's items to a friend, and then transported her to TPD HQ. Upon arriving W/HAWLEY noted that her "heart is still shaky." At this time, I stood by with W/HAWLEY until she was interviewed by detectives. Upon the completion of her interviews I transported her back to the Wells Fargo at 5245 Pacific Ave per her request. I cleared scene at approximately 0030.

This concluded my involvement in this incident. I did not handle or gather any evidence. Nothing further.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:

On 7/2/19 I (SGT-GRAHAM/S065) was assigned as the four sector swing-shift patrol supervisor. I was operating a fully marked police patrol SUV and wearing an issued jumpsuit uniform. At approximately 2102 hrs officers were dispatched to 3840 Pacific Ave (Dominos) in regards to a woman with knife waving it in the air at a customer. The caller advised 911 that she had locked the front door and the female was outside screaming. Dominos is located in a business complex/strip mall spanning the distance of a block from S. 38th St along Pacific Ave.

At approximately 2106 hrs PPO-KOMAROVSKY (U241) advised "shots fired" over the radio. I had been at TPD HQ and responded to the scene with a priority response (lights/sirens).

Upon arrival numerous patrol units were already on scene. Medical aid had already been requested. I noted officers were attending to the female as she appeared to have two gunshot wounds; one to her shoulder area and one to her thigh area. A/LT SGT-LIM (S092) was already on scene. I made contact with him and he requested I remain on scene as the supervisor for the location. I coordinated with patrol units to secure the scene and set up crime scene tape. I had officers close down Pacific Ave at S. 38th St going southbound and at S. 40th St going northbound. I coordinated with an officer to close off the entrance to the business complex/strip mall accessed from S. 38th St; just west of Pacific Ave.

I the directed officers to canvas the business complex/strip mall to attempt to locate any witnesses to the event. PPO-HENDERSHOT (U355) and K9-SPANGLER (K92) were tasked with contacting the employees and female inside Dominos who witnessed the event. There were four shell casings near the front entrance door. PPO-GUIARDINU (H349) was tasked with watching/protecting the immediate area of the crime scene.

CID SGT-WHITE (S407) and his team arrived. I provided them with a brief. I coordinated with him in transporting the witnesses to TPD HQ for interviews. Forensics responded and processed the scene. I coordinated in having patrol vehicle #467 taken back to TPD HQ.

At approximately 0430 hrs SGT-WHITE advised Pacific Ave could be opened up. PPO-HABERZETTL then moved to the condensed crime scene at Dominos. I then cleared the scene.at Dominos. I then cleared the scene.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	Sgt Larkin contacted me via phone, requesting I assist an Officer-Involved shooting that occurred at 3840 Pacific Ave in Tacoma. She requested I respond to the crime scene to supervise the on-scene investigation. On arrival, Sgt Graham gave me and other responding detectives a briefing of the incident. Lt Karl and Sgt Roberts from Internal Affairs were also on-scene. After the briefing, the following detectives were assigned the following tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Detective Buchanan - Crime Scene Investigation</li><li>Detective Viehman - Respond to Tacoma General to contact the suspect</li><li>Detective Yglesias - Canvas the area for witnesses, then respond to TPD HQ to assist with interviews.</li><li>Detective Granlund - Canvas the area for witnesses, then respond to TPD HQ to assist with interviews.</li></ul> Forensics Technicians Rush-Jones and Doan arrived and began processing the scene. Forensics Technician Ramos arrived later and replaced F/T Doan. Patrol Sgt Jagodinski and Graham arranged transportation for witnesses to TPD HQ for interviews. Prior to leaving the scene, one of the witnesses provided instruction on how to secure the business when we were done. The suspect appeared to be transient. Several bags of personal property were left behind when she was transported to the hospital. I requested Sgt Larkin locate clean recycle bins in which the suspect's property could be stored. F/T Rush-Jones responded to TPD HQ to pick up two recycle bins for storage and brought them back to the scene. The suspects belongings were placed into the bins and transported back to TPD HQ. The bins were secured in a fenced area. Prior to placing the property into the bins, I noted the bins were clean, dry, and free of garbage. Homeless Outreach Team Sgt Otis was advised. He arranged for storage space for the bins. Once detectives cleared the scene, PPO Haberzettl secured the business as instructed.

Investigative Information

Synopsis:

Narrative: I am a Detective with the Tacoma Police Department currently assigned to the Special Assaults Unit. On 7/2/19 at 2130 hrs, Sgt. Larkin called and requested that I respond to 3840 Pacific Ave to assist with an officer involved shooting investigation. Upon arrival Sgt. White instructed Detective Granlund and myself to check the area for cameras and any other witnesses.

3837 Pacific Ave - House/Business, Herbal Envida. Has a camera outside the house. Patrol advised they spoke with the business owner who did not know how to operate the video system. This building was also checked for stray rounds and a possible was found in the upper portion of the detached garage located to the north of the house. Detective Buchanan was advised of the possible stray round.

3844 Pacific Ave - House/business, Eagle Party Rental (253-273-7897). No cameras visible. No one answered the door and it is unknown if anyone resides at the location, or if it is only staffed during business hours which were posted to the right of the front door.

3850 Pacific Ave - Business - La Perla de Mar Bar and Grille - No cameras visible. The business was closed at time of contact.

After conducting the search for cameras, Detective Granlund and I were sent to Tacoma Police Headquarters to assist with witness interviews. We interviewed two witnesses; Rochelle Hawley and Juvenile Juvenile

Rochelle L. Hawley

Hawley had been brought to the Police station by Patrol. Detective Granlund and I contacted Hawley and escorted her to a second floor interview room. The interview was video and audio recorded using the case cracker system. After obtaining Hawley's personal information I asked her to tell me about today. Hawley advised that she is homeless and stays primarily in the area of 38th and McKinley. Hawley stated that today she agreed to meet a friend at the Dominoes at 38th and Pacific Ave. Hawley stated that she arrived at the Dominoes early this morning, she estimated 7am and had seen the homeless woman sitting on the bench in front of the business. Hawley stated that she had never seen the woman before, but does not normally hang out in that area. Hawley stated that she left the location a short time later and returned later that evening. Hawley stated that when she returned, the homeless woman was near the front of the business, standing next to her "stuff". Hawley stated that as she approached the woman, she noticed that she was holding a knife. Hawley stated that the woman started to say things to her and shook the knife at her. Hawley stated that she did not understand what the woman was saying and thought she was "drunk or something". Hawley stated that she was frightened by the woman and opened the door to the Dominoes and asked if she could come inside. Hawley stated that at first they were not going to let her because she had her pet cat with her but when she told them she had been threatened with a knife, she was allowed inside. Hawley stated that a person she thought may have been the manager of the store, came to the front door and saw the homeless woman holding the knife and she let her in and locked the door. The manager then called 911. Hawley stated that she was seated at a table next to the front door. Hawley stated that when Officers arrived, she could only see their backs but she could hear them telling the woman to "get down" and then she heard shots fired. Hawley estimated she heard 4 shots in quick succession. Hawley stated that after the shots it looked like the Officers were wrestling with the woman. Hawley stated that more Officers came and she was eventually contacted and then brought to the station. Hawley was asked to describe the knife and she said it was a "butcher knife" or "kitchen knife" with a long blade and black handle. See DVD recording for details on Hawley's interview.

Juvenile Juvenile

Juvenile Juvenile had also been brought the Police Station by Patrol. Juvenile was escorted to a second floor interview room. The interview was video and audio recorded using the case cracker system. After getting some personal information from Juvenile she was asked to describe what happened today and what information did she have regarding the homeless woman who encountered Police. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she is an employee at Dominoes and has been working there for a little over a month. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the homeless woman is a regular customer at the store and comes in almost daily to order food. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the woman stays either on the bench outside the business or just outside the business under the cover. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the woman is always polite and does not cause problems. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the woman does not speak English and thought she was Spanish speaking. Juvenile Juvenile stated that tonight she was working and was behind the "make line" which is where they keep the ingredients to make the pizzas when the woman with the cat asked if she could come inside. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she was told she could not come in with the cat due to health department regulations and then heard her say something about a knife. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she looked outside and did not see the homeless woman holding a knife and thought it might be an umbrella or something. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the woman with the cat was allowed inside and the manager locked the door after one of the delivery drivers came in. Juvenile Juvenile stated that the manager called Police and they arrived in 2-3 minutes. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she saw 2-3 Officers arrive through the parking lot. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she saw one Officer with his gun out and the other Officer had a "baton or stick thing". Juvenile Juvenile stated that she did not hear the Officers say anything but admitted that she is deaf in one ear. Juvenile Juvenile stated that she did hear the shots fired and estimated 4 shots all together. Juvenile stated that after the shots were fired she saw one of the Officers strike the woman on the back of her knees with the baton one time. See DVD recording for details on Juvenile interview.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 4-3-19 at approximately 2105 hours R/Sgt along with numerous other units responded to Dominos Pizza located at 3840 Pacific Avenue. R/Sgt noted PPO Hayward with an individual who appeared to have been shot. PPO Hayward appeared to have provided emergency medical care to the person who had been shot and was talking with her. TFD personnel arrived on scene and took over medical care for the shot person. R/Sgt checked with scene commander, Sgt Lim and with Sgt Graham. R/Sgt briefly conferred with officers on scene and assisted in coordinating scene security with officers and supervisors on scene to include: setting up and securing the perimeter, ensuring scene security so that no one would disturb the scene, coordinating witness contact on scene and transporting witnesses to TPD HQ for interviews, and assisting detective sergeants and detectives with scene management. When directed by detectives, R/Sgt transported the Dominos manager to TPD HQ, Ashley Young, for interview. R/Sgt cleared the scene.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On the above listed date and time, while working uniformed patrol, I responded to 3840 Pacific Ave. for a report of shots fired. Upon arrival, I used my fully marked patrol vehicle with overhead lights and sirens to block southbound traffic at S 40th and Pacific Ave. I assisted with blocking off the east entrance to the parking lot at 3840 Pacific Ave with crime scene tape. I then made contact with several citizens to obtain any witness statements. Everyone I spoke to did not witness or hear anything from the incident. Following that, Sgt. Graham gave me permission to clear the scene and go back in-service for pending calls. Nothing further.

Synopsis:
-----------

Narrative:	I am a Tacoma Police detective assigned to the Homicide Unit. I was called at home on July 2nd 2019 at 2141HR by Sgt. P. Larkin. I was advised to respond to 3800 Pacific Avenue to investigate an officer-involved shooting. I arrived in the 3800 block of Pacific Avenue with Detectives Yglesias, Buchanan, Granlund and Sgt. G.J. Roberts, Sgt. White, Lt. Karl and later Captain Taylor. We received a briefing by Patrol Sgt. Graham. According to SGT. Graham, officers responded to a call from the Domino's Pizza store located at 3840 Pacific Avenue at 2102HR. The caller was identified as the store Manager Ashley Young. She was reporting that there was a female outside brandishing a knife. Officers arrived almost simultaneously and confronted the female who was brandishing the weapon. Shots were fired and the female had sustained extremity wounds and was now at Tacoma General Hospital receiving treatment. The female had not been identified, but appeared to be homeless. I was sent to Tacoma General Hospital. Upon arrival PPO M. Collins and PPS Burbank advised that police personnel from Fife had used a fingerprint scanner to assist in identifying the female suspect. A State Identification Number (SID) for the fingerprint was given as # FBIFBI which revealed a preliminary name and D.O.B. of Pham, Thao T. 6-27-1963. The suspect was in room #16 inside the E.R. She appeared sedated as she laid with her eyes closed. When I entered the room she stirred and looked at me. I identified myself as a Police detective and held up my badge for identification purposes. She was attempting to say something but was whispering. I got close and was unable to understand what she was attempting to communicate. When she realized that I could not understand her, she said what I perceived was the word "Vietnamese". The possible name provided through investigation seemed to match what I thought may be a Vietnamese name. When I said the name out loud, the suspect looked at me and nodded her head (Affirmative). I did not ask her any questions. I noted an injury to the suspect's left shoulder and was advised that a second injury was to her lower right leg. Dr. Patterson was treating Doctor. I was called to Police Headquarters by Sgt. Larkin to assist with interviews of the Domino's Pizza employees. Upon arrival I was met by Detectives Reopelle and Robillard and was asked to interview one of the female employees. I met W/Ashley Young in the public meeting room off the lobby. I identified myself and we went to a second floor interview room. I advised W/Young that the rooms are both audio and video recorded. The interview with W/Young was recorded on the Casecracker system. A summary of that interview follows: She is the acting Manager of the Domino's Pizza located at 3840 Pacific Avenue. She was at work with Three other employees when this event occurred. She identified the other employees as Juvenile/enile Juvenile (Unknown last name) and Taylor Davis. Shortly before 9PM she was in the back near the ovens working when he heard the door chime, which indicated that someone had entered the business. She overheard one of two employees at the front counter advise someone that bathrooms were for customers only. W/Young was called to the front for a problem of some kind. She was met by a female whom W/Young described as "Panicked" and talking in a way that her words seemed "Slurred". The panicked female was described as having red curly hair and had a cat. According to W/Young, the first words that the female said that she could understand were, "She's got a knife" and as she said this, the female pointed to the N.E. corner of the business where W/Young saw a female, standing outside holding a knife in her left hand. W/Young then realized that the female had come into the business seeking safety due to the female with the knife being outside. Young said that the suspect was holding a newer looking knife, described as a kitchen knife, in her left hand. The suspect, according to W/Young was swaying forward and backward and side to side and was not concealing the knife.

W/Young called 911 and locked the front doors to the business. When the suspect saw her locking the front doors, she began to scream unintelligibly at W/Young, but did not move from her location near the N.E. corner of the business.

W/Young saw the police arrive and noted lights and sirens. She observed two uniformed police walking towards the store from the west and clearly heard them yelling, "Drop the knife!" several times. W/Young said that the suspect was now facing the officers and Young observed that she was now brandishing a knife in her right hand. W/Young then heard gunshots and said that the female turned away from the officers and was taken into custody.

End.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 7/5/2019, Detective Malave and I responded to the Dominoes Pizza at 3840 Pacific Avenue in an attempt to recover surveillance video. Detective A Robillard requested that I contact this location and also Herbal Endivia at 3837 Pacific Avenue to recover any surveillance video at the locations. We arrived at the Dominoes and contacted the shift manager, Christian. He advised that he has no access to the video at the location and that I would need to contact the franchise office. He provided me with a phone number to call of 1-253-474-4831. I called the number and spoke with Tanisha Surls. Surls provided her email address of tanisha@fofipie.com and asked that I email her the request for video. I later emailed Surls a request for all video from the location on 7/2/2019 from 2030 hours to 2130 hours. I also emailed a link to Evidence.com for Surls to upload the video. At the time of this report the video has not been received. We then contacted Giang Phan at Herbal Endivia. Phan advised that the cameras at the location are not recorded and are just used to monitor who comes and goes from the location. I observed a camera on the exterior of an adjacent business, Natures Recreation Center. We contacted the owner, Catherine Blair, who allowed us to view the surveillance system. I observed that there were no camera angles that captured anything beyond the parking lot of the location. No video was collected from the location. Nothing further.

Synopsis:

Narrative: On Tuesday, 7/2/19 at approximately 2144 hours I received a phone call from Criminal Investigations Division (CID) Sergeant Larkin. She requested I respond to Tacoma Police Headquarters for an officer involved shooting that had occurred.

Upon arrival, I contacted Sergeant Larkin and Detective Reopelle. We were told that Tacoma Police Officer Komarovsky and Officer Hayward responded to a female waving a knife in the air at 3840 Pacific Ave (Domino's). Upon arrival, the female refused to drop the knife and Officer Komarovsky fired approximately 3 to 4 shots at her, striking her twice. The female (later identified as Thao Pham) was transported to Tacoma General Hospital and was expected to survive her wounds.

The Officer Involved Shooting protocol was initiated and Officer Komarovsky and Officer Hayward were transported back to Tacoma Police Headquarters. We were also advised that witnesses of the incident were brought to TPD HQ and were waiting in Room 1210 to be interviewed.

I was assigned as the lead detective. Detective Buchanan was assigned to the crime scene, and Detective Yglesias and Viehmann were assigned to canvass and interview witnesses. Detective Granlund was assigned to interview witnesses.

Detective Reopelle and I contacted Officer Komarovsky in the CID conference room and escorted him to the Forensic Photo Studio. Also present was Sgt. Larkin, Sgt. KP Smith, and Officer Rose (Peer Support). Crime Scene Technician (CST) Spencer Erickson took photographs of Officer Komarovsky, his uniform, and his duty belt. Officer Komarovsky stated he was not carrying a back-up gun.

After photographs were taken, per my request, Officer Komarovsky removed his handgun from its holster and handed it to me. Using a red clearing barrel, I removed Officer Komarovsky's magazine and set it on the forensics table. I pulled the slide back from the hand gun and a live round ejected. I picked that round up and set it on the forensic table. I cleared the gun, locked the slide back, and placed it on the table.

CST Erickson took overall photographs of the items. The hand gun was a Glock 17 (Serial #TNM883). The magazine that I had removed from the gun was labeled "241 2" (Which indicates the officer's bug number and the number of the magazine). CST Erickson removed the live rounds from the magazine, counting 11. (The magazine capacity showed 17 rounds).

The live round that I had ejected from the chamber was a single SPEER 9mm LUGER round, making 12 total live rounds remaining in Officer Komarovsky's duty weapon. Detective Reopelle asked Officer Komarovsky if he topped off his magazines, for the purposes of locating all the shell casings at the scene. Officer Komarovsky told us that he was instructed not to answer any questions without his lawyer.

Officer Komarovsky removed his other two magazines from his duty belt. CST Erickson photographed these magazines. One magazine was labeled "241-3" and had 17 live rounds in it. The other magazine was not labeled and had 18 live rounds in it.

Officer Komarovsky's gun, magazines, and rounds were retained by CST Erickson as evidence. Sgt. Larkin gave him a new duty gun, which he loaded and placed back into his holster. Officer Komarovsky was then escorted back to the conference room.

Officer Hayward was brought up to the Forensics Photo Studio. CST Erickson took photographs of Officer Hayward, his uniform, and his duty belt. Officer Hayward stated he did not fire his gun and he was not carrying a back-up gun.

Officer Hayward cleared his weapon and placed it on the forensics table along with his magazine and the live round he had ejected from the gun. CST Erickson photographed the gun, the magazine, and the live round.

Officer Hayward's gun was a Glock 22 .40cal (serial #TPM025). The magazine that was in the gun was labeled "299-3" and had 15 live rounds in it (its max capacity). The live round was a Speer 40 S&W.

Officer Hayward removed his other two magazines from his belt and placed them on the table. One magazine was labeled "299-2" and had 15 live rounds in it. The other magazine was labeled "299-1" and had 15 live rounds in it.

The gun, magazines, and rounds were released back to Officer Hayward and he was escorted to another conference room.

Detective Reopelle and I then made contact with 17-year-old witness Juvenile Juvenile enile an employee of Domino's, who was waiting in room 1210. He requested to use the restroom, which he did. I asked Juvenile Juvenile if his parents knew where he was, which he stated they did. We escorted him up to the second floor CID interview rooms and I advised him the room was being audio and visually recorded. We stepped out of the room and returned a few minutes later. The interview was recorded using Case Cracker. Refer to transcription for Juvenile Juvenile statements.

During the interview, Juvenile Juvenile drew a diagram of the scene, which I later placed in the Tacoma Police property room.

After the interview, I walked Juvenile Juvenile back to room 1210. He stated his car was parked in front of the Domino's. I spoke to Detective Buchanan, who confirmed that Juvenile Juvenile vehicle was in the crime scene and unable to be removed. I explained to Juvenile Juvenile that officers would give him a ride home and he would need to retrieve his car at a later time. He stated he understood. I gave him my business card to give to his parents if they had any questions.

Detectives Yglesias and Granlund interviewed witnesses Rochelle Hawley and Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile. Refer to their reports and the case cracker recordings for statements.

Detective Viehmann interviewed witness Ashley Young (the Domino's manager). Refer to his report and Case Cracker recording for statements.

At about 0056 hours on 7/3/19, Detective Reopelle and I responded to Tacoma General Hospital, room #16 where Thao PHAM was being treated and contacted TPD Officers Burbank and Collins. It was believed that the subject, THAO PHAM, spoke Vietnamese. CST Christine Doan responded to photograph PHAM'S injuries and was able to translate for PHAM, as she speaks Vietnamese, as well.

PHAM appeared to be asleep when we first got there, but woke quickly when Doan started speaking to her in Vietnamese. At Detective Reopelle's request, Doan asked PHAM how her shoulder was feeling. PHAM said it hurt and said she wanted to go home. Doan told us PHAM said she was worried about her belongings and stated she had money in her bag.

Officer Burbank provided us with a Vietnamese Rights Form. At about 0110 hours, Doan advised PHAM of her Miranda Rights in Vietnamese. PHAM told Doan she understood her rights but didn't want to sign the form. Doan asked PHAM if she wanted to talk to us and PHAM responded by telling Doan that it is hard being homeless and said she doesn't appreciate her clothes being cut off of her. She stated again she wanted to go home and began rambling about being homeless every other month.

Doan asked PHAM again if she wanted to tell us what happened. PHAM started to talk about 60 cars going by and people trying to take her beauty. She explained that a man and a woman were there, trying to steal her beauty. She said one of them smelled bad and that person called the cops on her. She said the man and woman harass her.

Doan asked again if PHAM wanted to talk about what happened with the police. PHAM said when they showed up, she (PHAM) was just standing there, not doing anything.

Doan asked (at our request) if she had a knife when the police got there. PHAM replied yes. She went on to explain that she had a knife because of the two people that were there. She said she told people if they did anything to her, she would defend herself. She said the people didn't do anything to her and she didn't do anything to them. She explained that she had two (2) knives and said she was holding them, not doing anything. The officer hit her with a stick, pushed her down, and tied her. PHAM then said that they shot at her, but missed. Doan stated PHAM was not clear on which incident occurred first. When asked if the officer said anything to her, at first she said they didn't tell her anything, but she later said they told her to put the knives down. She said when she put the knives down, they shot.

When asked if she had family in the area, she said she had three (3) children, but she's not allowed to live with them.

CST Doan took photographs of PHAM and her injuries. Officer Collins and Burbank released PHAM'S clothing to Doan.

Detective Reopelle and I later cleared the scene and returned to TPD Headquarters.

We then spoke to Officer Hayward. The interview was recorded on Case Cracker. Refer to the recording for exact statements.

It is summarized as follows:

He and Officer Komarovsky were on a traffic stop at 38th and Park when he heard dispatch state there was a lady waving a knife around and threatening people at 38th and Pacific. They cleared the traffic stop and went to the call. Officer Komarovsky parked in the parking lot and he parked in the curb lane of the two S/B lanes, just east of the location.

He saw a female matching the description (Hispanic female in "leopard skin skirt" over pants) standing near the "L" shape pillar at the corner of the business. As he approached, he could see she was holding a brown paper bag in her left hand with a black handled knife sticking out of the bag.

Officer Hayward stated he ordered the female to put the knife down repeatedly in both English and Spanish but she ignored his commands. He then used his expandable baton and attempted to strike the knife out of her hand two times, but she would not drop the knife.

After the second attempted baton strike, Officer Hayward said the female reached across her body with her right hand and removed the knife from the bag. Officer Hayward stated he retreated back to his original location (approximately 15 feet away).

Officer Hayward stated while he was retreating, the female threw the knife at him using a baseball pitching throwing motion. He said he wasn't sure if the knife hit him or not, but said he feared for his life when the knife was thrown at him and feared if it were to hit him, he would have died. Officer Hayward described that he and Officer Komarovsky were standing close to each other when she threw the knife at them.

Almost immediately after throwing the first knife, the female reached across to her brown bag again and retrieved a second knife. He stated she started to raise it and that is when Officer Komarovsky fired 3-4 shots at the female.

She was taken into custody without further incident. He saw that she was hit in the left shoulder and right calf. Officer Hendershot arrived and put a tourniquet on her leg and put a pressure dressing on her shoulder until Tacoma Fire Department arrived.

When asked what he thought when the female threw the knife at them, he said he hoped it didn't hit him in the neck or something and thought it would kill him. He said he felt like his life was in danger.

Officer Hayward drew a diagram of the scene, which I later placed in the Tacoma Police property room.

On Sunday, 7/7/19, I was advised that PHAM had been cleared from the hospital and was booked into the Pierce County Jail.

On Monday, 7/8/19, Detective Reopelle and I interviewed Officer Komarovsky in the Tacoma Police Headquarters CID conference room. Officer Komarovsky's attorney, Michael Staropoli, was also present. The interview was recorded, with everybody's permission, using my handheld recorder. Refer to the recording for additional information.

Komarovsky: Occasionally I would uh, get to ride along with the DOC Taskforce but nothing, nothing else.

Robillard: Okay.
Do you have any specialized training?

Komarovsky: I do not.

Robillard: Okay.
What was your assignment on the date of this incident?

Komarovsky: Patrol and the Four Sector on Graveyard.

Robillard: Okay.
And what, what time did you start that day?

Komarovsky: Approximately 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Robillard: Were you working a one or a two officer car?

Komarovsky: One officer car.

Robillard: Okay. And what was your call sign?

Komarovsky: Union 241.

Robillard: What, what vehicle were you in?

Komarovsky: It was number 467 Crown Victoria.

Robillard: Okay.

Komarovsky: Issued Department car.

Robillard: Okay. Was it marked?

Komarovsky: Yes, fully marked, lights and sirens and overhead lights.

Robillard: Okay.
What uniform were you wearing that day?

Komarovsky: Uh, Department issued uniform jumpsuit.
You want me to go into specifics?

Robillard: Sure.

Komarovsky: I had my cloth Tacoma PD badge on my front left chest, my name on the front right chest, two police patches on each shoulder and big letters police in the back. And I was wearing a police duty belt.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.
What, what weapon were you carrying that day?

Komarovsky: Department issued Glock 17, 9mm.

Robillard: Okay. And what is the capacity of that gun?

Komarovsky: Uh, it's a seventeen round magazine.

Robillard: Okay.
Was, was it fully loaded?

Komarovsky: To, to my recollection, yes.

Robillard: Okay.
How many extra magazines did you have?

Komarovsky: Just two.

Robillard: Okay. And the capacity of those?

Komarovsky: Same seventeen per magazine.

Robillard: Okay. Were those fully loaded?

Komarovsky: To my recollection, yes.

Robillard: Okay.
Do you carry a back-up weapon?

Komarovsky: I do not.

Robillard: Did you have any other weapons within your control?

Komarovsky: Uh, I have a small pocket knife and I carry a department issued asp, extendable baton.

Robillard: Okay. Did you use anything else that day?

Komarovsky: Nothing else but my firearm.

Robillard: Okay.

Komarovsky: And also a pepper spray. I'm sorry.

Robillard: Okay. Did you use that?

Komarovsky: No.

Robillard: Okay.

So you said as far as your, your knowledge your magazines were fully loaded that day?

Komarovsky: Yes.

Robillard: Okay.

Okay. So let's go into kinda from the, the beginning when you first heard this call come out to, to the end. Can you tell me about what happened, what you heard, what you saw?

Komarovsky: Yes.

So uh, approximately 2100 hours or 9:00 o'clock in the evening, I was assisting Officer Hayward on a traffic stop on 38th Street. It was the vicinity of Park Avenue. So I exited my vehicle and I'm on foot approaching Officer Hayward when I hear a tone or beep go on the air. Usually tones or beeps go off just prior to the broadcast of a serious call, usually life or death type stuff that requires emergency police response.

So this call came out as a intimidation with a weapon at 3840 Pacific Avenue with the Domino's Pizza. I'm sorry.

So uh, me and Officer Hayward kinda looked at each other and we're like okay, we gotta go. And so Officer Hayward discontinued his traffic stop. We both got back in our cars and start heading that way.

And so, while enroute, Dispatch did broadcast the description. They said it was a female possibly waving around a knife. I don't recall any other specifics. And due to the, well we were about five blocks away from that location and due to the emergency response, I was unable to view anymore CAD notes because I wanted to avoid getting into a collision and wanted to get there safely.

So, Domino's Pizza's located in the, in this like mini plaza. It's like a bunch of little shops, some restaurants just in the south western side of the intersection of Pacific and 38th. So I entered this plaza uh, through an entrance to the actual parking lot off 38th Street just west off Pacific. And Officer Hayward continued towards Pacific and also made a right turn southbound into Pacific. So we both kinda parallel each other. And so I parked my car directly uh, west of the entrance to Domino's Pizza. Officer Hayward parked his car directly east of the entrance on Pacific Avenue. We both left our lights on, police lights.

So I exit my vehicle and the first thing I see is a Domino's employee standing directly to my left or to the east of where my car was. It was clearly marked. It was a white male, kinda skinny, longer hair, was wearing a Domino's uniform, the blue shirts with the Domino's logo. So I look at him and say, where is she? Where is she? And he points towards the front door. Sorry.

So uh, I start walking towards the front door. And as I'm walking, I go on the radio and say something along the lines of hey Pete, she's inside. Pete is Officer Hayward's first name. So as I'm approaching the front door, he gets my attention. And I look to my left and I see this, the subject. And where she was standing was it was like an "L" shaped concrete or brick layered pillar. And essentially she was in a, I guess a dead space, a space where I couldn't even see when I first approached. And what I observed was a shorter, older, what appeared like a Hispanic female. She was wearing multiple layers of clothing. And upon closer look I saw that she was holding a, a black knife handle with her right hand. She was holding this knife handle directly near her upper left chest area.

The actual blade was covered in a brown paper food bag. And at that point, I had my firearm in my right hand. My firearm was pointed downwards. I had my uh, finger indexed along the slide and I begin to order her to get on the ground.

I believe I said that at least twice. And so, by that moment Officer Hayward ran up right next to me to my left and he started talking to her in Spanish. And I mean all this talking and us ordering her and all the verbal commands nothing was working out. There was no change in her demeanor. No change in what she was, she remained in the same position as I previously described.

And so again, Officer Hayward's trying to talk to her in Spanish. And at some point, he takes out his department issued asp, baton. And how those batons expand to a significant amount of inches, I don't have the specific measurements, I apologize, but we slowly start to walk towards her. And as we're walking towards her, I say hey Pete, his first name, I say something along the lines of "I have OC" but by that point I was a lethal officer and he was the cover, secondary, hands on, non-lethal officer.

And so we approach her. And again, throughout this entire time he's giving her some kind of commands in Spanish. And I'm sorry, again, I don't speak Spanish; so I don't know what he was saying. But very bravely of him he uses the baton and tries to essentially disarm her. He tried to kinda, I don't recall specifically what he was trying to do but he was kinda like get a hold of her wrist or something to make her drop those knives. And she wouldn't let it go.

And so after a few tries, what happened next is she pulled the knife out of that brown paper, food bag and I observed the knife to be approximately a five to eight-inch kitchen knife, the kind that you would use to cut meat with in the kitchen. And such knives are capable of great bodily injury and/or death. And so what she does next is, while still holding this knife in the right hand, she curls her arm up towards her shoulder and just, and we're, we're backing up at this point. And she just curls it up on a, towards her shoulder and she just violently throws the knife, I mean there was, there was no hesitation, nothing.

And so, she throws the knife at Officer Hayward as we're walk, as we were going backwards. And Officer Hayward kinda increased his pace to avoid being hit by this knife. And this knife lands directly next to my left foot. And I reasonably believe that had he stayed in the same position he would have been stabbed by this knife. And so, all I could see is while that knife was flying, is I could see the uh, the tip of the knife just going straight for him. And the knife lands directly next to my left foot. And as I look up, I see she has another knife in her right hand and she's again curling up her uh, her arm towards her shoulder. And at some point between there and when she threw it at me, that's when I discharged my firearm. I believed that she was actively trying to kill me and Officer Hayward. I believed that uh, our lives were really in imminent, immediate danger. I also believe that the only thing standing between her going after innocent people inside Domino's was me and Officer Hayward.

And so I believe that the immediate intervention by a police officer was absolutely crucial; and that there was no other alternative to this use of force.

And so, the knife that she threw at me uh, while I was discharging my firearm, I also recall walking backwards. And this knife landed directly in front of me. I also reasonably believe that had I not been moving fast enough backwards this knife would have stabbed me as well. Again, she just threw those knives in such a violent manner. There was just zero hesitation.

And so I estimate that I discharge approximately four rounds out of my firearm. I don't recall how specifically she went down, whether she went down by herself or Officer Hayward assisted her. But next thing I knew was uh, I was on her back and I called out shots fired. And the reason why I placed my weight on my back was to prevent her from further moving.

And then Officer Hayward began to handcuff her; so we can provide her first aid as soon as possible. And so I grabbed a hold of her left arm. I rolled up her sleeve. I placed it behind her back. Officer Hayward put the handcuffs on. And at that moment, Officer Hendershot showed up from my right. And they both began doing first aid, I mean this was seconds.

And so uh, at that same moment Officer Burbank came to my left and said hey man, you gotta go. And so I went and stood by a police car while other officers were administering first aid. Then my supervisor or the Acting Lieutenant that night, Sergeant Lim, showed up and he asked me hey, where's the crime scene? And I said it's, I pointed towards the front doors of Domino's. I was then transported back to the, the station by uh, uh, Sergeant Gary Lock and did the preliminary pictures and the round counts with you guys. And that's uh, that's really it.

Robillard: Okay.

Okay. So I just want to go back and kinda ask a couple more questions.

I, I think you said when you heard it on the radio do you remember hearing a description of the female?

Komarovsky: I don't specifically recall right now.

Robillard: Umm-hmm.

Komarovsky: I know there was a description. And the only thing I can recall right now is a female waving a knife.

Robillard: Okay. So the first, you, the first time you remember coming into contact with her was, was when you got there.

Komarovsky: Yes.

Robillard: And you saw her standing there.

How'd you know it was the, the woman you were looking for?

Komarovsky: Well, Officer Hayward, again, kinda got my attention and I looked to my left and I just saw this female and I saw the knife and, and I figured this, this was probably who I'm supposed to deal with.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

I think you said at one point that you responded to the call as an emergency response. Can you explain to me what an emergency response is?

Komarovsky: Yes. Emergency response includes uh, having your overhead lights and sirens on. It includes uh, obviously breaking normal traffic, driving going through red lights, stops signs, passing cars, going into wrong way traffic. Essentially, it is uh, it's done to get to an emergency as soon as, as and as safely as possible.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

So you're there talking to her. You notice the, you said the black knife, handle, in a, in a brown paper bag.

Komarovsky: Yes.

Robillard: And that you had ordered her at least two times to get to the ground, nothing was working. And along with Officer Hayward telling her in Spanish and, and she wasn't listening to your commands.

Komarovsky: Correct. And again, I don't know what he was saying in Spanish. I don't speak Spanish.

Robillard: Okay.

Did she make any moves to listen to you?

Komarovsky: Nothing. She remained in that same position, to my recollection, until uh, Officer Hayward attempted to disarm her. And that's when she just pulled the knife out of that brown paper bag and launched it at us.

Robillard: Okay.

You had said that she pulled the knife out. It was about a five to eight-inch kitchen knife.

Komarovsky: Correct.

Robillard: And, and that she pulled her arm up straight above her shoulder. Is that how you said it? I'm sorry.

Komarovsky: Essentially curled up her arm towards her shoulder.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Komarovsky: Uh, yeah.

Robillard: And then threw it at Officer Hayward.

Do you know if it hit Officer Hayward?

Komarovsky: I don't recall if it hit him.

Robillard: Okay. All right.

And then how long between when she threw that knife at Officer Hayward and the second knife being pulled out?

Komarovsky: I don't specifically recall a specific time frame but I would say, I mean this was a very fast dynamic situation. I mean this happened very, very quick.

Robillard: Okay.

Do you know where she got the second knife from?

Komarovsky: I did not specifically see.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

And then she immediately, you said pulled that knife back in the same motion and, and threw that one as well.

Komarovsky: Correct.

Robillard: Okay.

And that one landed by, where did that one land?

Komarovsky: To my recollection, directly in front of me.

Robillard: Okay. Did that one hit you at all?

Komarovsky: No.

Robillard: Or Officer Hayward?

Komarovsky: I don't think it hit Officer Hayward.

Robillard: Okay.

Komarovsky: But it did not hit me.

Robillard: Okay.

You explained that you felt your life was in danger.

Komarovsky: Correct.

Robillard: Okay.

And the reason behind that is?

Komarovsky: Uh, because she was, I believed that she was actively trying to kill me and Officer Hayward. Such knives, those big kitchen knives, as I previously described are just capable of great bodily injury and death. They're used to cut up meat in the kitchen. I, I believed that there was just no other alternative.

I also want to add that the fact that this female was wearing multiple layers of clothing and having not known where this second knife, knife really came from I reasonably believed that she may have been further armed with more knives and approaching her would cause great bodily injury and/or death both to myself and Officer Hayward or other officers.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

And then you said you believed you discharged around four rounds.

Komarovsky: Yes.

Robillard: About four rounds. Okay.

Would you mind drawing out like a diagram for me so I can get a better picture of the scene and, and what you saw and where everyone was standing?

Komarovsky: Okay.

Robillard: Oh, thank you.

Komarovsky: I hope that uh, ... I'm sorry, I'm not a very good at it.

Robillard: No, it's okay.

Okay. How far, how, how far do you think you were from her?

Komarovsky: So I don't have specific numbers but I would estimate uh, maybe ten to fifteen feet....

Robillard: Okay.

Komarovsky: ... away from her.

Robillard: Okay.

And you said when you guys were backing up from the knives being thrown how far do you think you went then?

Komarovsky: I think I, to my recollection, I think I was right around where the front entrance was.

Robillard: Okay.

Okay.

Reopelle: Yeah, just a few things Ron.

So, you described your uniform and everything. Was, were you wearing that same uniform that we photographed you in?

Komarovsky: Yes, I was; and the only difference is I did not have my ear pierce on while the pictures were taken.

Reopelle: Okay. Okay.

So when you were responding to the call, I know you, you said you remember a woman waving a knife. Do you remember who else was involved in that incident? Who was she waving the knife at? Did they put out any information like that that you recall?

Komarovsky: I don't recall. I'm sorry.

Reopelle: Okay.

So when you, when you park your car, and your car you said is over to the west side of the building, is that still in the parking lot?

Komarovsky: Yes.

Reopelle: Okay. Let me, let me draw this just in a little different way so we can.....

This is Pacific Avenue here. Okay.

That's north. And that's Domino's. Does that make sense to ya?

Komarovsky: Yes, sir.

Reopelle: Okay. Why don't you draw where you parked your car?

Okay. And indicate the front for me would ya, which way you were facing.

Great.

Now, you were, you were, when you exited your car did you leave the lights on?

Komarovsky: I did.

Reopelle: Okay. So you had your overhead emergency lights going.

Komarovsky: Yes, sir.

Reopelle: What about Officer Hayward? Where did he park at?

Okay. And do you remember if his emergency lights were on?

Komarovsky: Yes.

Reopelle: Okay. So, go ahead and, and draw again in there where you, where the subject was standing.

Okay. Could you see her standing there when you parked and approached the, the Domino's?

Komarovsky: No, I did not see her until Officer Hayward got my attention and I looked to my left. That's when I saw her. She was kinda standing in a dead space from my initial point of view.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: I did not see her by that pillar.

Reopelle: Okay. And so where was it that you met the Domino's employee that kinda helped?

Komarovsky: It was, it was about right here.

Reopelle: Oh, okay.

And so now when you approach how far are you away when you guys start to make your initial contact?

Komarovsky: With the female?

Reopelle: Yeah, with the female with the knife.

Komarovsky: Uh, I, to my recollection, I believe I was directly in front of the front doors.

Reopelle: Okay.

And, and correct me if I'm wrong here okay Ron. But that maybe because, if I understand your statement earlier, you saw somebody sitting inside the Domino's that you thought might have been the subject. Is that true?

Komarovsky: Uh, that, that may have happened but really I only recall the employee just pointing towards the uh, the front entrance and me going the air and saying hey Pete, she's inside.

Reopelle: Okay. And maybe that's why I thought she was inside cause you said earlier about going to....

Komarovsky: I was, I was going based on the Domino's employee's directions. He was just pointing towards the front door; so I initially assumed that she may have been inside.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: ...until Officer Hayward got my attention. I looked to my left.

Reopelle: Right.

Komarovsky: ....and saw the uh, the subject.

Reopelle: Okay. And do you remember what commands Officer Hayward gave her in English?

Komarovsky: I don't recall.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: I only recall hearing Spanish.

Reopelle: Okay. And did you give her any verbal commands?

Komarovsky: Initially yes. I said something along the lines of get down, get on the ground. And I said it approximately twice before Hayward came up right next to me.

Reopelle: Okay.

Now, go ahead and draw where you're standing in here and where Officer Hayward's standing.

Komarovsky: Again, this is not drawn to scale.

Reopelle: Understand.

Komarovsky: Uh-huh.

Reopelle: And so you're closest to the building. Right?

Komarovsky: Yes, I was.

Reopelle: And that, that's a fairly confined space in there.

Komarovsky: Yes.

Reopelle: Cause and you really only have one, maybe two ways to retreat. Is that, that correct?

Komarovsky: That is correct.

Reopelle: You'd come out into the parking lot here or you could go down this kinda hallway is really....

Komarovsky: Correct.

Reopelle: ...what it seems to be. Okay.

And you think, you think this is probably about ten feet or so?

Komarovsky: I, I don't have the exact measurements. I, I would, I would estimate something along those lines.

Reopelle: Right. Okay.

Now, did you have any question that she understood that you guys were the police?

Komarovsky: Uh, I don't specifically recall. All I recall is that she remained that exact same position, did not move, it was nothing out of the ordinary until she pulled out that knife after Officer Hayward tried to disarm her.

Reopelle: Okay.
Did she comply with any of your, your, I mean commands? Did she....

Komarovsky: Nothing.

Reopelle: Did she respond to 'em at all?

Komarovsky: I did not recall seeing any kind of response until she pulled the knife out of the brown paper bag and, and just violently launched it at us.

Reopelle: Okay.
Before Officer Hayward goes up and tries to, to strike her with the baton, did you guys consider any other options?

Komarovsky: I uh, since I was lethal cover my primary job was uh, to make sure Hayward's safe; and so I had my firearm in my hands.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: But I did advise him, I said hey Pete, I, I have OC.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: But that was, that was the only, that's the only thing I recall.

Reopelle: Okay. Do you carry a Taser?

Komarovsky: I do not.

Reopelle: Okay. Does, do you know if Officer Hayward does?

Komarovsky: I don't re, I don't specifically recall.

Reopelle: Okay.
If he did do you think a Taser would have worked in this situation?

Komarovsky: No, because of her just, she had so many layers of clothing on I don't think a Taser would have worked.

Reopelle: Right. Okay.
Now, you describe her throwing the knife. Would you say it was like she was throwing like a baseball or a football or something like that? That's kinda what I'm, what I'm seeing when you're describing it.

Komarovsky: Uh, ....

Reopelle: Kinda like an overhand throw from up here at shoulder, shoulder height.

Komarovsky: Uh, I would say that would be about a right estimate.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: It was, it was just a very violent and very deliberate without hesitation kind of throw.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: Is, is what I personally felt and observed at the time.

Reopelle: Okay. And, and I think you said earlier that you felt she was throwing that at Officer Hayward.

Komarovsky: Yes.

Reopelle: Okay.
How far away was he when she threw that knife at him?

Komarovsky: Uh, I don't specifically recall a distance but we were actively backing up when she uh, launched a knife at him. And he had to increase his pace of going backwards to avoid uh, being stabbed by this flying knife.

Reopelle: Okay. Now, what made him back up? What made him retreat from being up close to her?

Komarovsky: Uh, I don't know what made him do it; what made me do it was seeing that she was getting ready to throw the knife at us.

Reopelle: Okay. Okay.

Komarovsky: So that would be more of a question for him. I apologize.

Reopelle: No, understand completely.
I'm just trying to figure out, you know, what, what her actions were cause, cause something, right, forced you to, him to back up and you to back up, something that she did.

Komarovsky: Yes, it, it was the her pulling the knife out of the brown paper bag.

Reopelle: Okay. So she basically drew that knife. And did she bring it right up here? Did she ever say anything to you guys?

Komarovsky: I don't recall her saying anything. And yeah, she it's almost immediately brought the knife, curled it up towards her shoulder and, and just launched it at us.

Reopelle: Got ya. Okay.

Now, you said that that knife, did you say it hit you in the foot?

Komarovsky: It landed, the first knife, landed directly next to my left foot.....

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: ....where Officer Hayward would have been standing.

Reopelle: Okay. Do you know did that, did that hit the ground before it hit your foot or did it hit your foot on the fly?

Komarovsky: No, it never hit my foot. It landed....

Reopelle: Oh, excuse me, by your foot, yeah.

Komarovsky: It landed directly next to my foot is, is what I recall.

Reopelle: Okay. But you don't remember if it bounced prior to.....

Komarovsky: I don't believe it bounced.

Reopelle: Do you know did it go past you then once it hit?

Komarovsky: It just stopped. To my recollection it landed and stopped somewhere near my left foot, to my left.

Reopelle: Got ya. Okay.

And then when you make the decision to fire that's when she's, she gets a possession of a second knife. Right?

Komarovsky: So, I made....

Reopelle: And prepares to throw that knife?

Komarovsky: That's, that's somewhere between her preparing to throw the knife and her throwing at me that's when I uh, began to discharge my firearm.

Reopelle: Do you know if she released that knife?

Komarovsky: Yeah, she threw it at me.

Reopelle: Okay.

Komarovsky: She still managed to throw it at me in a same violent manner as she threw the first knife.

Reopelle: Okay.

And do you know how many rounds you fired?

Komarovsky: I estimate four rounds.

Reopelle: Okay.

What was your back stop at the time?

Komarovsky: Uh, it was this L-shaped, concrete or a brick pillar. It was metal railing behind her. And there was Officer Hayward's unoccupied patrol car. And I don't recall seeing any other vehicles or people in my back drop except for this subject.

Reopelle: Okay.

You fired four rounds. What made you stop firing?

Komarovsky: Uh, I, I don't specifically recall.

Reopelle: Okay.

Did, did the four rounds that you fired stop the threat?

Komarovsky: They did.

Reopelle: Okay.

And, and so then once the threat was gone you stopped firing your gun?

Komarovsky: Yes.

Reopelle: Okay.

I think that's all I have. Do you have anything else?

Robillard: No.

Is there, is there anything else you would like to add to this statement?

Komarovsky: Nothing else.

Robillard: Okay.

Anything?

Staropoli: I don't have anything at this time. Thank you.

Robillard: Okay.

Is everything you told us true and correct to the best of your knowledge?

Komarovsky: Yes.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	Reopelle: All right. Thanks for being patient. Hayward: No problem. Robillard: All right, Pete, so, those cameras are on. You're being audio and visually recorded. And just for the record your name is Peter Hayward? Hayward: Yes. Robillard: Okay. And you're an officer here with the Tacoma Police Department. Hayward: Yes. Robillard: How long have you been on the Department? Hayward: This is my tenth year. Robillard: Okay. Were you an Officer anywhere else before? Hayward: I was. I was a Border Patrol Agent. Prior to that and then prior to that I worked for the State Police in Oregon. Then I was a, a military policeman in the Army before that. Robillard: Okay. So, how many total years have you been? Hayward: Uh, twenty-something all together. Robillard: Okay. Hayward: Twenty-seven. Robillard: Okay. What shift are you working right now? Hayward: Working the graveyard shift, A Set. Robillard: Okay. What sector? Hayward: Four Sector. Robillard: All right. What time did you start working yesterday? Hayward: Eight o'clock. Robillard: 8:00 pm? Hayward: Yes. Robillard: Okay. Wearing the same thing you're wearing now? Hayward: Yes, ma'am. Robillard: Full uniform. Anything different? Hayward: No. Robillard: What about what were you driving? Hayward: Uh, driving my patrol vehicle, marked patrol vehicle is a 2018 SUV. Robillard: Okay. Okay. Tell us about the call? What did you hear on the radio? Hayward: The call I had just actually initiated a traffic stop at 38th and Park, not too far from this call. And the beeper went off on the radio saying there was a lady with a knife, basically at 38th and Pacific, threatening people and waving a knife around.
------------	--

And Officer Komarovsky had stopped to back me up on the traffic stop. He had seen me as I went by. And, and so I said hey, we're right around the corner. We can go to that. So we cleared the traffic stop.

And I think advised Dispatch over the radio that we're right around the corner. We'll take that.

Robillard: Okay.

How did you respond from your traffic stop to ...

Hayward: Uh, lights, emergency equipment on, lights and siren both activated until we got there.

Robillard: Okay. And where was the call at?

Hayward: The call was at 3840 South Pacific Avenue.

Robillard: Okay. Okay. A specific store anywhere?

Hayward: Domino's.

Robillard: Okay. All right.

So when you get there where, where did you park your car?

Hayward: So I get there. There's actually a parking lot entrance to that parking lot. It's a strip mall. And there's an entrance on the north side off of 38th Street. And Officer Komarovsky he went in that way. And so I went around the block turning south on Pacific Avenue. And then I had parked my car, still with the lights on I believe, in the curb lane of the two southbound lanes. Basically, just dead east of the business in question.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

What did you see?

Hayward: Oh, I saw the lady. I remembered what they had said. She was wearing a leopard skinned skirt over pants or something. And so I saw the lady with the skirt as soon as I stopped there.

Robillard: Okay. And, and let me back up a little bit.

When you were dispatched to the call, did they give you a description of, of the subject?

Hayward: They did. They said a Hispanic lady. And I just remember them saying Hispanic lady in the leopard skin skirt; so that's what I was looking for.

Robillard: Okay.

And where were you when you first saw her?

Hayward: Uh, pretty much right when I pulled up there. She's actually, there's a, a like an L-shaped pillar right there on the corner, the sidewalk part of that building or whatever. And so, not until I pulled all the way up could I see her cause she's kinda on the south side of that.

Robillard: Okay. What was she doing when you saw her?

Hayward: When I saw her she's standing there.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: I only could see her back from that angle; so she, but she wasn't, you know, jumping up and screaming or anything like that. I could just see she was standing there.

Robillard: Okay. Could you see anyone else?

Hayward: I could see people inside Domino's but no one else directly near her.

Robillard: Okay.

What'd you do next?

Hayward: Uh, so I got out of the car and I started walking up. And there's like a zig-zag handicap ramp. So I'm too old to jump over those rails, so I started walking up around kinda the drive, there's a driveway right there, and started walking up it. And as I did, I think Officer Komarovsky he was kinda parked in the parking lot there and he was coming up. And he said over the radio, I mean he's kind of at a, a little bit more north of that pillar that she's standing on the south side of. So he says on the radio like hey, I think she's inside there. And I said oh, just to him directly, like no, she's actually right here on the south side of this pillar. So I think his thought, I assume was, she's inside and he's going for this front door. This north facing door of the Domino's business.

And then I said now, she's actually, heads up, she's right on the other side of this pillar. And so then at that point we kinda met right there by the front door. Officer Komarovsky and I then turn and see her as I come around there and you could see her standing there, see the front of her.

Robillard: Okay. And just so I have a better idea of this.

You're parked on the street and you walked up the zig-zag.

Hayward: I skipped going up the zig-zag.

Robillard: (Unintelligible) Okay.

Hayward: I could see her. She is where I'm parked there's me. There's the zig-zag. And then there's her up by that pillar.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: That little L-shaped pillar on the corner. So I can see her directly but I can't just go climbing over that; so I go around it. I go around the north side of that pillar; so I lose sight of her when I ....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: ...finally come around that pillar.

Robillard: Okay.

So now you and, and the other officer are together?

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Robillard: Okay. Then what happened?

Hayward: Uh, so now I can see that she is um, holding a knife in her left hand. She's got a paper, brown paper bag and there's a black knife, looks like a kitchen butcher knife sort of. I don't know if you count a butcher knife but, you know, a longer kitchen knife looks like the handle's sticking out of the bag.

Robillard: Okay.

So, I'm sorry, and did you see two separate knives like (Unintelligible) one.

Hayward: I only saw one.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: I only saw, she's, it's like the knife is in a brown paper bag.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: I can only see the black handle sticking out of it. I was....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: ...a little surprised when she pulled another knife out of the bag.

Robillard: Okay.

So, you're standing there. You see the, the knife with the black handle in the bag. And then what happened?

Hayward: Yeah, and so we recognize her from uh, seeing her forever, you know, she's lived out there kinda slowly worked her way down 38th Street to Pacific and normally very, she's very quiet. In fact, I um, volunteer at the food bank and make food. And when I'm on patrol sometimes give homeless people food. And uh, I've given her food a bunch of times. I don't even know how many times, always been very quiet and, you know, smiles. And I say hey, do you want something to eat and she'd say yeah, and I'd give her a bag of food and....but that was it, like never saw, in all my contacts with her never anything more than that.

And so I see her there with the knives. You know, I say, started saying hey, you know, put the knife down and don't get a reaction from her when I say that. Um, like, you know, I say it I don't, more than once. And so I think well, you know, it says Hispanic lady. She kinda looks Hispanic like Michoacán, which is a State in Southern Mexico and they have Indians, Hispanic Indians and they don't. So, I thought well maybe she's Hispanic and I speak Spanish; so I told her in Spanish to drop it. And uh, still no response. And I think I said like put the knife down, like you know, (Spanish), which is Spanish. It means drop it. And uh, and no response. And so then I say that a couple times and we don't get any kind of response, kinda gesturing I think towards her like to put the knife down, you know, and hand gesture like drop the knife.

And so then Officer Komarovsky and I have a, it's like a quick conversation about like okay, you know, what are we gonna do in this situation. And uh, he offered off let's uh, I mean pepper spray her cause he, we couldn't, you know, we couldn't Tase her. And she's not doing anything other at that point than holding this knife, but she's refusing to let it go and she's not gonna let it go. And he says let's spray here. I said well, let me take my baton and I'll see if I can just knock it out of her hand, like we'll just try to give the knife a smack and maybe it'll fall and she'd.... maybe she's just disconnected. You know that, that she's not understanding me saying drop it in any language. So, you know, maybe if I just hit the knife it'll fall out of her hand, not try to strike her but, you know, just hit the knife. And so, and then I could see at that point that uh, Officer Komarovsky is, well my cover officer, he has his firearm out and kinda in a Sul position or low ready but the Sul position is how he had his, what we refer to it as, and....

Do you want me to just keep going?

Robillard: Sure.

Hayward: Yeah, so then, so that was ineffective, kinda whacking the knife and she kinda just pulled it back a little bit more. So then I, and then I struck it a second time a little bit harder like trying harder to kinda hit her around the hand and the knife at that point. And she still hadn't reached for it at that point but then she, she reaches for the knife. I remember she just made like a sound, a weird sound or something. I don't exactly remember but then she reaches for the knife with her right hand, kinda across her body reaches to grab it. And so as she's pulling it out at that point I'm retreating back like cause I'm, I'm closer to her than Officer Komarovskiy is. And, you know, not in arm's length but arm and a baton's length, no closer than that to her. And uh, so then I scoot back and then I can see her take the knife out and throws the knife at us.

Robillard: Did it hit either of you?

Hayward: Uh, you know, I, I think I was kinda still going backwards but I don't think so. If it did, it maybe bounced off my legs or something. I'm not sure.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: Cause I think I'm kind of looking but trying to move back....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: ....at the same time, so.

Robillard: So I want to back up just a little bit.

When the knife is in the bag in her left hand how was she holding it?

Hayward: She's holding it kinda down at her side so um, trying to....if this, if my baton is the bag, she's holding the bag like this and the knife handle's sticking out like this. So if you were gonna grab the knife out of your kitchen block at home, this is how the handle is. It's kinda sticking out with the grip down. So that's how'd you pull the knife out. So she's holding it like this.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: I can only see the one knife handle. I didn't realize she had three or four or how many knives she had in there but....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: So she's kinda holding it like that and she's like not letting it go. And she's pretty, I would say just, you know, muscle-wise she's pretty tensed up and she looks agitated clearly and um, but not responsive.

Robillard: Okay.

So when you struck the knife, how many times do you think you struck?

Hayward: Twice, I think.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: I think I, as I recall I strike it once, not very hard, just like trying to say hey, you've gotta put the knife down. You know, we can't talk to you when you're holding this knife and you're all amped up like put, it was kinda like put the knife down. And it's kinda like no, I'm not putting the knife down. And then it's like okay, she's not putting it down. Hit it harder and see if I can really knock it out of there, so. Um, and I was unsuccessful in doing that.

Robillard: Okay.

And then how long between when you struck the knife and her pulling it out? How long, how much time passed?

Hayward: The second time that I struck her um, probably just a few seconds.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: Not, not too long. And, and I don't even remember it was, goes so fast, you know, that it's like the first one and then maybe the second, as the second one she's already trying to get the knife out. I'm like okay, give her a better, little firmer strike to hopefully get her off of it but....

Robillard: Okay.

And then she uses her right hand to reach across her body and pull out the knife?

Hayward: Yes.

Robillard: What knife did she pull out with?

Hayward: It had a black handle.

Robillard: The black handle one, okay.

Hayward: Yeah.

Robillard: Um, and then she throws it at you.

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Robillard: And, and you, do you see her throw it at you?

Hayward: I see it coming. Yeah, I see her kinda pulling it out; so I'm kinda like I'm gonna zig-zag this out of here, you know, you know.

And so I'm just trying to kind of go out towards the parking lot a little bit as she throws it. And I don't know that it was a, you know, I wasn't stopped there looking to see. I kinda just moved back just enough.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: And then, and then she, you know, to my surprise she pulls the second knife out and starts pulling the second knife out of the bag.

Robillard: Okay. So let's talk about that. After she throws the first knife, it might have hit you. It might not have. You don't remember. But it drops to the ground?

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Robillard: Okay. Where in relationship (Unintelligible)

Hayward: I kinda just I think just by the front door somewhere right in there.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Hayward: Yeah. And that's why I'm not sure if it just was a funny throw and it kinda bounced down or if it maybe bounced off of my shoe and kinda bounced down or ...

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: ...how she, you know, I didn't see the exact motion of how she threw it. I saw she's getting it out and she's making a motion to throw it like oh, this isn't good and try to scoot back to where Komarovsky was.

Robillard: And then she reached over the same way with her right hand across her body and pulled out a second knife?

Hayward: Correct.

Robillard: Okay. Was that out, was that out of the brown bag too?

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Robillard: What did that knife look like?

Hayward: Uh, you know, that one I thought and I mean I'm not totally sure at that point but I thought it had maybe a wooden handle or like your steak knife kinda knife or something.

Robillard: And what'd she do with that one?

Hayward: And I think she was starting to throw that too; and then Officer Komarovsky fired.

Robillard: Okay.

Did you, did you any point have your gun out?

Hayward: No, I did not.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

So she takes the second knife out. It, it's in her right hand?

Hayward: Yes.

Robillard: Okay. And it looks as if she's about to throw that as well.

Hayward: Umm-hmm. Correct.

Robillard: And that's when he (Unintelligible)

Hayward: I think she did throw it. I think she did get the throw off at kinda at the same time that Officer Komarovsky fired his weapon I think she's throwing the knife.

Robillard: Okay.

Which direction was she throwing that one?

Hayward: To the west. She was in that same position, kinda by that corner. There's a little L-pillar, brick and she had all her stuff there, her cart of stuff and things. And she's standing just due south of her cart but by that pillar; so....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: .... you know, within a foot or something of that little spot. And uh, so she's, we were standing to her west on that....

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: ....there's a sidewalk, covered sidewalk there. We're standing to her west up there.

Robillard: Okay.

Do you remember about how many shots you heard?

Hayward: I'd say three or four.

Robillard: Okay.

Then what happened?

Hayward: And then she kinda just, she didn't really have any reaction. You know, she didn't just fall over or anything like that. She just kind of turned and um, I think she was still kinda throwing the bag or something. I don't know what she was doing at that, then she kinda turns like she's gonna walk off. And um, so as she does, I still have my baton in my left hand and I could then that her hands are empty. And uh, so as I, I approached her and I'm like oh, I need to let go of my baton. So I threw my baton down on the ground and then I pulled her down and grabbed her by the wrist and kinda grip, she's got a bunch of jackets and then pulled her straight to the ground and we handcuffed her.

Robillard: Okay. Is it still just the two of you there?

Hayward: Correct.

Robillard: All right.

While, while putting her in cuffs did she struggle with you? Did she....

Hayward: No, she didn't. She didn't say anything. She didn't make any sounds, no moaning, no groaning, just quiet and handcuffed her. I mean her body was tense but it wasn't like a fight or a struggle to get her in handcuffs.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: She's not a large lady; so pulled her to the ground with relative ease and, you know, once I did just came down on top of her in a way to have her, hold her down on the ground and just handcuffed her.

Robillard: All right.

Hayward: It was pretty simple.

Robillard: At what point did you realize that she had been hit or did you?

Hayward: Uh, once we were on the ground at that point I could see that she had some blood on her leg.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: So I was kinda like just scanning over her. Obviously, scanning that immediate area for weapons, making sure she still didn't have a knife in her hand that I didn't see. And then kinda looked down and see that she's got a pretty fair amount of blood on her calf.

Robillard: All right.

Were you able to administer any first aid or anything?

Hayward: Yeah, at that time, kinda that same time as we're handcuffing her Officer Hendershot arrived. And he whipped his tourniquet right out and said yeah, hey want me to and I said, you know, we communicated yeah, it looks like she at least has a gunshot wound here on her lower leg. So just like we train these guys at the range, let's get that on her upper leg and I teach that tourniquet application and he put it on there well; and to, and you could see the blood seemed to slow. So I didn't see that pooling anymore.

Robillard: Okay. Was she hit anywhere else?

Hayward: Yeah. So then I started just kind of um, frisking her pockets for any other weapons or, cause she in multiple layers of clothing. And checking her pockets and just kind of dumping some stuff out. And then it, I'm asking her, you know, are you okay? You know, anywhere else are you hurt? You know, you know where are you hurting and just there's no response. I'm even asking, still asking her stuff in Spanish. And it turns out I don't think she speaks Spanish, so. Um, but I'm asking her both in English and Spanish and she's not answering. And so then as I'm trying to peel through her coats I could see okay, there's a little bit of blood inside her, inside the shirt on her left shoulder. So then I really got it peeled back and one of the officers had a pair of scissors and we cut it off and got a pressure dressing on it. And I (Unintelligible) I could see she has like a through-and-through wound on her left shoulder. And uh, it's bleeding, you know, a solid stream of blood was coming out the front of it. So then I took a, one of the officers had a gauze dressing and I applied pressure until the medics came.

Robillard: Okay.

And you guys called for, for TFD?

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Robillard: And they responded?

Hayward: Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay.

At any time during any of this does she say anything to you guys?

Hayward: No, not that I recall.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Backing up just a little bit. When you, when you were telling her to um, to drop the knife and put the knife down were you hearing the other officer say anything?

Hayward: No, I don't recall him. I recall me talking. Yep, so I think I was the one giving her the commands.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

When all this was going on and she had the knife out and whether it was in the bag or whether it was after she pulled it out, what did you feel like, what did you think she was going to do with these knives?

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Hayward: Well, at first when she started taking the knife out I'm like okay, we need to create some distance, you know, if she's just gonna come at us with the knife. Obviously, if we can get some distance from her so but then she, it looks like she's cocking it back to throw at us. So then I'm like okay, well that's out of the question cause we're within range if she's gonna throw the knife. And yeah, I hope she doesn't hit me in the neck or something. So yeah, that's what I'm thinking like that's not gonna be good.

Robillard: Okay. What did you fear if it were to hit you in the neck?

Hayward: Yeah, that it'd kill ya and get stuck in the neck with a big ole kitchen knife that's probably, ..... you'll probably gonna die.

Robillard: Okay. Did you feel like your life was in danger?

Hayward: Yes.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Okay.

Reopelle: So, do you mind drawing this out for me a little bit.

Hayward: No, not at all.

Reopelle: Just so I'm clear.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: .... you know, exactly where you guys are.

Hayward: I don't know what that logo looks like. It's like a domino or something. I'll try to make it nice for you.

This is Domino's. This is the door. And there is a, a brick pillar here.

Reopelle: Okay. So this is Pacific Avenue right out here?

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Yep.

Hayward: So this is Pacific, so.

Reopelle: And that's north.

Hayward: North is that way.

Reopelle: Yep.

Hayward: And so she has all her stuff right here.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: And she is standing right here.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: So we come up and we're kinda back over here.

Reopelle: Now, you park, you parked down here.

Hayward: I park down on the street here. And this is the driveway goes right here. This is the sidewalk outside.

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: This is, this the actual Domino's business....

Reopelle: Yeah.

Hayward: ...and there's this covered sidewalk.

Reopelle: Yeah.

Hayward: And so I park out here on the street. And I think Komarovsky's at, I'm not sure exactly where he parked but he's in the parking lot somewhere over here.

Reopelle: Got ya.

Hayward: And that's why he didn't see her I think when he initially came up and he sees in here and says okay, I think she's inside; cause I didn't, I don't remember them saying that the employees were locked in the business, so. And then I said no, hey, well heads up. She's right behind that thing right there.

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay. And did Dispatch give you any more information than just a Hispanic female with a knife? Did they say, give any information about what she was doing or?

Hayward: Yeah, they said that she had been yelling or screaming. They didn't know like, inaudibly. I forget what they said but they, she'd been yelling or screaming and waving the knife at someone, threatening someone with the knife.

Reopelle: Okay.

So, so you guys both approach from the west.

Hayward: Yeah, I essentially approach from the east but I came around this. She didn't, I don't think she noticed me but I came around this way and then I kinda met Officer Komarovskyy kinda up here by the door saying hey, she's not inside. She right there.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: And you can see she's in that leopard skirt, pretty obvious outfit.

Reopelle: Right. So what else was she wearing?

Hayward: Uh, she had on leggings underneath of that cause they had said she's wearing a leopard skinned skirt over some kind of pants. I don't remember what they said exactly but....

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: And then she had on a few jackets. So right away when I see her, we come around the front of her and I see a knife. I'm thinking okay, what are our options here? You know, obviously, our number one option is to try to talk her down uh, but what are our less than lethal options here? I mean she's presenting a deadly weapon. She has deadly weapon. What are our options here?

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: Obviously, we don't want it to escalate to this but I can't, a Taser would be ineffective cause she's wearing a bunch of jackets. So you could see she's wearing just layers of stuff.

Reopelle: Right. Okay.

So, how far are you guys when you stop and start having conversation with her, giving her commands?

Hayward: Yeah, I'm thinking fifteen feet or something.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: And are both of you on this sidewalk, this covered sidewalk you're in?

Hayward: Yes, sir.

Reopelle: So,....

Hayward: This would be, this would be Officer Komarovskyy.... And this is me over here.

Reopelle: Okay. So you're closer to the parking lot.

Hayward: Umm-hmm.

Reopelle: And are you guys almost shoulder to shoulder?

Hayward: We're, we're pretty close. I would say we're within definitely a couple feet of each other at that point.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: Cause we had that brief conversation where he said hey, I'm gonna spray her.

Reopelle: Right.

Hayward: I can spray her. I said well, let me just see if we can just give it a tap and kinda be like she's not getting the message, cause, you know, I've, again, I've seen her, not talked to her but you know fed her and stuff. I mean it's clear there's some kind of disconnect or some kind of mental health issue going on with this lady being out there.

Reopelle: Okay.

At, at any time did she give you any indication that she understood English?

Hayward: Well, I thought she kinda at one point when but it could have been, I don't recall if it was when I said drop the knife and she was kinda like a little head shake no that gave me the impression that she was saying no, I'm not gonna do that or when I gave it a whack the first time just gave her that thump on the knife like you gotta put it down.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: And I think she was so, I, I don't remember which of it was whether it was me saying no. She didn't respond to the Spanish though. There was no, so that's when I was thinking well, make sure you go back to English, so.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: So something might have given you the indication and you (Unintelligible)

Hayward: I had the indication. I just don't remember if it was when I said hey, put the knife down. You gotta drop the knife. Put the knife down kinda thing or it was when I gave her the wa, I don't want to say whack is a bad word but I'm trying to just strike the knife handle with the baton.

Reopelle: Right.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay.

And so, while you're talking to her, do you have anything in your hands, I mean do you have a baton in your hands at that point or you said you earlier that you didn't have your gun out.

Hayward: Yeah, I didn't have my gun out. And I think at that point that I did take my baton out like I'd come around and then I could see okay, she's got that knife like that and she's pretty, I don't know what the word is, not agitated but her, she's postured up to where, you know, she's looks like she could be on the offensive kind of.

Reopelle: Okay. Explain that a little bit more?

Hayward: Like just her body tension is, looked really tense to where it's not like she's just, if you were in the kitchen having a barbeque and you're holding the knife and then someone talks to you, your body's relaxed and you're just kinda having a conversation. You're not a threat with that knife. You, you don't feel that threat.

Reopelle: Right.

Hayward: That's my perception. In this situation like she's really tense and she's kind of focused in and her body appears like she's tensed up and she's really hanging onto it sort of thing. And she was really hanging onto it, so.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: That kind of ....

Reopelle: Yeah.

Hayward: So then I think at that point is when I draw and expand my baton out.

Reopelle: Okay.

Did Officer Komarovsky, did he have his gun out while you were talking to her?

Hayward: Yes, I believe so. I'm not as sure at what point he took his weapon out of the holster but at some point during that he had taken his gun out and I looked. I could see outta kinda the corner of my eye that he had his gun in a Sul position.

Reopelle: Okay.

And so, when she's agitated like that the gun is still in that bag; so she's got the bag over here?

Hayward: The knife, yes.

Reopelle: Or the bag and the knife handle is sticking out of it.

Hayward: Yep.

Reopelle: Right?

Hayward: Correct.

Reopelle: And it's, it's there.

Did she ever wave it around?

Hayward: No.

Reopelle: Okay. Did she ever advance towards you guys?

Hayward: No.

Reopelle: Okay. So when you, when you go to try to disarm her, and how, you gotta get pretty close to her then.

Hayward: Right. So I'm with, you know, I'd, I mean it, it wasn't like the baton struck her body; so it's however long that stretches out to be, plus my arm, that's as close as I get to her.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: So, I'm still more than this distance that you and I are right now.

Reopelle: Right.

Hayward: Yep.

Reopelle: Okay. And do you, are you trying to strike her from still on this side?

Hayward: Right. I've moved up, up to here.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: We're telling her, you know, multiple times to drop it and, and then I move up and try to, to kinda get that.

Reopelle: Right.

And, and at any time when you were saying drop it did, did she act like she was gonna comply and drop it or disarm herself?

Hayward: No.

Reopelle: And did Komarovsky move up with you?

Hayward: Not that I recall. I think he stayed kinda where he was.

Reopelle: He stayed back a little bit.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay.

So as you approached her, as you got closer to her what was her reaction?

Hayward: Uh, really there wasn't much of a reaction. And I think when I, when I struck the knife handle, cause I did strike it with that first strike I struck the knife handle; and then it was kind of just a little pull it back and even more tensed up on it like she wasn't gonna let it go.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay.

And then, and then you, you struck it a second time?

Hayward: Yes, sir.

Reopelle: Okay.

And then, not getting any reaction or not having the affect that you wanted on that did you stay there or did you back up? How did you react to that?

Hayward: No, at, at that point, you know, the, that strike, you know, the first one I would say is, it's more like a tapping, like I reach out and I'm, you know, cause I'm trying to just communicate, just trying to communicate with her like hey, need you to drop the knife. So maybe she's not understanding English. Maybe's she not understanding Spanish. Let's try to like give her physical sign showing her like hey, we need you to drop the knife.

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: Um, but again, my previous dealings with her I thought she spoke English because I'd say hey, do you want something to eat; and she'd be like yeah. She wouldn't say anything but when I'd asked she'd be like okay, and I'd give her food, so.

Reopelle: Right.

Hayward: But um, yeah, no, no reaction. And then obviously at that point, after the second strike then she takes her other hand and grabs the knife handle.

Reopelle: And grabs on to it.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay. And is that, you back up...

Hayward: Yes.

Reopelle: ...out of the way?

Hayward: Yes, sir.

Reopelle: Okay.

And so, how long do you think it was from the, from the time that you guys arrived and made contact with her to the time you moved up and, and tried to strike her with the baton?

Hayward: It all happened pretty fast; so I would say within a minute. I don't think we were on that call for too long. I don't think it took us maybe a minute or two to get there at the most and then I think within a couple of minutes.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: Okay.

So then she grabs the knife and you back up. And then where, where are you when you back up at, in relation to Komarovsky?

Hayward: Uh, so I'm kinda going like, I come up this way to get closer to her and then the same thing; I'm just kind of retreating back this way. And as, remember I'm kinda moving but looking back a little bit and that's, I'm like oh, this is not good. She's actually gonna throw that knife.

Reopelle: Okay. And then....

Hayward: I can run faster I think than her but I can't run faster than her throwing a knife at me.

Reopelle: Right. So, so you back up. You're still on the sidewalk. Is Komarovsky next to you at this point?

Hayward: Pretty much I think.

Reopelle: Okay.

And, and so when she throws that knife, does she throw it directly at you?

Hayward: It appeared to me that she was throwing it at me. We were pretty close to each other, you know, Komarovsky and I at that point, I mean so she could have been trying to throw it at him. And we're just like you guys are sitting there now and it kinda goes this way a little bit or it goes down or I'm not sure, so.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Reopelle: Right.
Hayward: But it definitely appeared to me that she's throwing the knives at us.
Reopelle: Okay.

And so then how do you guys react to that or do you do anything when she, when she throws that knife?

Hayward: Yeah, I think there was, you know, obviously a flinch like trying to move; okay, if this thing's coming right at me. You know, hope you ducked the right way kind of get out of the way situation at that point because I don't have my firearm out.

Reopelle: Umm-hmm.

Hayward: And I'm kind of, I think, facing the other direction at least turned in some level. Um, and then it's at that point that's she's getting the second knife out that I see Officer Komarovskiy shoot.

Reopelle: Okay. Okay.

So as she was getting it out of the bag.

Hayward: Yeah, she reaches back in the bag. I see another knife coming out cause I'm thinking oh, I didn't think there's more than one knife in that bag cause it looked like she just had the one knife like wrapped in paper bag, you know. And then evidently she's got at least a couple more in there. So she starts pulling out a second knife. And I, and then it's kinda, you know, obviously it went really fast at that point but I thought she at least was throwing the knife as Officer Komarovskiy was firing. And then she, I think she even still had a third knife that she was getting out of the bag. But I don't remember her, I mean I remember seeing the bag on the ground after, you know, we handcuffed her and such but I don't remember her throwing the, a third knife in the bag or how that got to the ground.

Reopelle: Okay.

So you were saying that she was throwing the knife or in the process of throwing the knife when he, when he fired. Describe that a little bit more to me? I mean is she, is she like winding up like this? Is she....

Hayward: Yeah.

Reopelle: How does she (Unintelligible)

Hayward: (Unintelligible)

Reopelle: How does she throw the first knife? Tell me that? Did she reach....

Hayward: She, yeah.

Reopelle: Did she throw it up above her head like a baseball?

Hayward: Like a baseball, a baseball. I don't know that she got it all the way up to her head cause again, I'm kinda moving back but that kinda throw is she reaches across her body, grabs it. She's gonna bring it up and throw it forward like that.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: So kinda forward motion similar to a baseball pitch kinda throw. And then I think she goes right back to the bag, like oh, my gosh, no, you know, she's got another knife. And then, and then then he kinda starts shooting at that point and.....

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: And then fast forward to her moving over and I can see that her hands are empty and run and grab her and pull her.

Reopelle: Right. Okay.

How long do you think it was between the time she threw the first knife and then tried to throw the second knife, I mean was it like right after one another or was there a pause in there?

Hayward: I would say right after. There was no big delay pause. It's like she threw the first knife and then goes right back to the bag and pulls out another knife and starts to throw it. So within I would estimate it couldn't have been more than five seconds.

Reopelle: Okay.

Hayward: She's right back in the bag.

Reopelle: Okay.

Robillard: Did you say there was another pillar over here that you were standing near? Did I hear that?

Hayward: No.

Robillard: Okay.

Hayward: No.

Robillard: There was just the one pillar you were talking about.

Hayward: Yeah, and that's the one that she was at. And that's where her stuff was but I don't, I don't know what was over there. I know there's, I assume, based on working there for ten years in that neighborhood, that they keep going down but there wasn't another pillar in play.

Robillard: Okay.
Anything else?

Reopelle: I don't think I have anything else.

Robillard: Anything else we didn't ask you you want us to know?

Hayward: No, I think that's about it.

Robillard: Okay.
Okay. So we'll end the recording.
The time is 3:34 am on July 3rd.
Oh, would you mind just signing and dating that for me?

Hayward: I got it.

Robillard: Thank you, sir.

Reopelle: Okay. I think that's it.

Robillard: (Unintelligible)

Reopelle: We'll walk you out.

Hayward: Thank you, sir.
End of Recording.

Synopsis:

Narrative: Robillard: I'm gonna have you sit in that seat there in the back. And we'll be back in just a few. Okay. Juvenile Okay. Robillard: Hey there. Reopelle: Thanks for waiting Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: So like we were telling you downstairs, I'm Detective Robillard. This is Detective Reopelle. And this room is recording right now; so you're gonna be audio and visually recorded. Okay. Juvenile Juvenile you said, your first name Juvenile? Juvenile Yes, ma'am. Robillard: What's your middle name? Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Okay. And your last name is Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Okay. Juvenile Juvenile And your birthday? Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Okay. And your home address? Juvenile Uh, Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: South what street? Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Juvenile. Okay. Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Juvenile. And a phone number for you? Juvenile Juvenile Robillard: Okay. What school do you go to? Juvenile Oh, Lincoln High School. Robillard: Okay. What grade are you going into? Juvenile I'm going to be a senior. Robillard: Okay. And your parent's names? Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile and Charles Juvenile Robillard: Okay. What's mom phone number. Juvenile Juvenile Christina, 253-314-1423. Robillard: Okay. And your dad's phone number Juvenile Uh, same, just the last number is a 4 instead of a 3. Robillard: Okay. And I think we were talking on our way up here that they know you're here. They're... Juvenile Yes, ma'am. Robillard: ....okay with that. Juvenile They're fully aware, yeah.

Robillard: Okay.

And you said your car was, was there at work.

Juvenile Yes.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile It's the Ford Ranger parked right out front.

Robillard: Okay. Where do you work at?

Juvenile Domino's on 38th and Pacific.

Robillard: Okay. How long have you worked there?

Juvenile About a year and a half.

Robillard: Okay. What do you do there?

Juvenile Um, I'm mostly inside; so I work or I take, I do anything from take orders to make the order, and to take the order out and cut it.

Robillard: Okay. Okay. Any delivery work, anything like that?

Juvenile No, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile I'm under aged.

Robillard: Okay. You have to be eighteen for that?

Juvenile Yeah, you have to be eighteen and two years' experience.

Robillard: Oh, okay. Okay.

So you've been there a year, a year and a half you said.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. Who, were you working tonight? Were you ....

Juvenile I was. I started my shift around 8:00 o'clock.

Robillard: 8:00 pm.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. When were you scheduled to be off?

Juvenile Uh, scheduled to be off around 12:00 when our store fully closed.

Robillard: Okay. Who all was working there today?

Juvenile So we have my other, another insider named Juvenile who was downstairs sitting next to me. My manager was Ashley. We had three drivers; one was on delivery. His name was Jerry. We had another one uh, I'm not, I don't really know his name. He is the newer guy that or I don't think he worked at our store. I think he's just filling in a couple spots. And then we have another one named Josh.

Robillard: Okay. So the guy who you don't know and Josh were they in the store when this happened?

Juvenile The one that I don't know was and Josh was coming in as it was happening.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

So you got to work. What time did you get into work today?

Juvenile Um, I believe like 7:55-ish.

Robillard: Okay. Your shift starts at 8:00?

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: Okay. Can you tell us what, what you saw and what you heard?

Juvenile Uh, I was making the pizza. I was standing right in the corner, right where you could see throughout the whole 38th and Pacific area.

I was standing right there making a pizza and that's when a lady came up to the door. Uh, I couldn't really understand. I heard something about a knife. And obviously, I was concerned at the time; so I called for my manager.

When I called for my manager, my manager came running up. That's when she met her at the door, got her inside. She locked the door and started calling the police. And I'd say maybe a minute to two minutes later that's when the police officers showed up.

I heard some talking, maybe loud shouting of put the knife down. I heard some discussing between my manager and the lady talking about she had a knife pulled on her. That's when I was looking and I saw maybe, I'm not sure technically, like what kind of knife it was or anything. I saw like maybe a glimmer between the light and the knife. I saw maybe like a silver point; that was about it.

And then some shouting between the police officers. One was pointing the gun at like a down angle. Obviously, he's showing that he had or he was there fully aware. And then I saw another one coming from behind the brick and with a baton fully extended out pointing at her.

And then I'm not really sure what happened later. I turned my head trying to calm my co-worker down cause she was nervous about it and I was trying to take control like all right, calm down.

That's when we heard a couple shots, not really sure of how many or anything.

Uh, excuse me. So we heard a couple shots. And then the police officer that was holding the baton ran at her and tackled her to the ground.

And that's all about where everything ended up at.

Robillard: Okay.

So I want to back up a little bit. So, you're, you're working in the store. You're in the Domino's. Tell me about the front? Are they windows? Is that, is it building? Is it....

Juvenile Yeah, so we have, it looks like an L-shape. It goes from our bathroom, it goes up to a corner, right where the corner where she was standing and then go in a little bit, right passed our main doors.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile So I was standing, it's, it was kinda like a connector piece. It looked like that. And I was standing like right here, right next to the main area so you could see the entire, between the entire store, the entire carry out, and then a good chunk of Pacific Ave.

Robillard: Okay.

Was it daylight out or night time or...?

Juvenile Um, I believe the sun was just starting to set. It was starting to get a little dark outside.

Robillard: Okay. But could you find that you could see everything clearly or was it too dark to see?

Juvenile I saw everything pretty clear.

Robillard: Okay. So you're in the store. The store, is it, is it walls or is it glass front or .....

Juvenile So we have a good portion of a glass front. And then we have a smaller portion that connects the wall to the glass.

Robillard: Okay. But the part that you were looking out was it....

Juvenile Was all through the glass.

Robillard: All through the glass. Okay.

So you said that it started out with you saw a lady come in ....

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: ...and it kinda opened the, open the door and say something about a knife.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am. Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: What did that lady look like?

Juvenile Um, older woman, not like super old buy middle age-ish, uh, I don't know she was wearing a coat. She was white, maybe like a brown-ish hair.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile And she was holding a, kinda looked like a baby holder, carriage thing.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile And then that's when I saw a cat pop out.

Robillard: A cat pop out of the baby carriage?

Juvenile Yeah, it was on a (Unintelligible)

Robillard: Was it the same lady that was downstairs.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay, that lady.

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: So she comes to your door. What time do you think this was?

Juvenile This was all happened around 9:00 o'clock.

Robillard: 9:00 pm.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. She says something about a knife but you didn't hear what she said.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am. It was or I'm, maybe it was just cause of the loud oven or I was trying to focus cause our screen was ringing at the same time.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile Or it could been an order coming at the time. Uh, and then maybe it was her voice like maybe I just couldn't understand her voice.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile But we're just kinda like shouting back and forth like I'm, I can't really understand you, let me grab my manager real quick.

Robillard: Okay. So she told you directly....

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: .....something about a knife.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: You couldn't hear; so that's why you grabbed your manager Ashley.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Ashley comes out and that's when you said that she pulled the gal in?

Juvenile Yeah, she was talking to the gal while looking at the lady that had the knife. Uh, she pulled her inside where she sat right, right in front of the area where I was standing cause we have all those seats there. And then I saw her grab her phone, grab or calling the police while locking our main door.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

At any point, before the police arrive did you see the, the person in question or the person with the knife?

Juvenile Yes, ma'am. Uh, she usually hangs out right in the front. She sits right at the end of the driveway where there's a little ramp that walks up for wheelchairs, a wheelchair access.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile So she usually sits right there. Well, since it was raining today I'm assuming she came up under the cover.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile Where she was sitting like right in the corner of the store area.

Robillard: Okay. Do you know her name?

Juvenile No, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. What was, do you remember what she was wearing today?

Juvenile Uh, she wore a big coat, maybe like a gray-ish color.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile She had like shorter black hair.

Robillard: Okay

Juvenile She was relatively short.

Robillard: And you said she's there a lot.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Is she, does she appear homeless to you or transient?

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. Okay. So she's wearing a gray-ish coat today.

At any point, did she come into your store?

Juvenile No, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. How close to the front did she, was she or did you see her at?

Juvenile Um, ...she never really approached the front door, never like approached the door in general but I'd say maybe like five to ten feet away from the front door at all times.

Robillard: Okay. You said she had a knife.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Did she, did you see the knife before the police officers arrived?

Juvenile No, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

So, did anything happen between when the first lady came in and said something about a knife. And I know you saw the gal outside and then the police arrived. You said one to two minutes later?

Juvenile Yeah, roughly.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile Around that area.

Robillard: Okay.

Did anything happen in between that time?

Juvenile Um, the lady that was outside kinda like walked around to, cause it was like the pillar that holds the glass there. She walked around and just kinda like stared in, maybe I, maybe I saw her lips moving. I don't know. It's kinda hard to see at the time because she wasn't really, or..... I was freaked out because I don't know what was happening and everything. And she was like starring and like looking directly at the woman inside.

Robillard: Okay. And starring in, and starring into the store

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: Okay.

And then you said Ashley called the police.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. Did you call the police at all?

Juvenile I did not. I was working.

Robillard: Okay.

So one to two minutes the police arrive.

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: So what is the first thing, what did you see them do when they got there?

Juvenile So I saw the initial cop pull up right in front of the store, right on Pacific Ave with the lights on and everything. Uh, maybe it was another cop but he came up from the other side and that's when he drew the gun.

Robillard: Okay.

So the first one you saw ....

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Robillard: Did he have his weapon out?

Juvenile I don't think, I just saw him roll up. I'm not, I think he was the one that came back out with the baton.

Robillard: Okay. And then the other one you saw with a, ....

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: .....a gun. Okay.

And then what happened?

Juvenile Uh, that's when the little confrontation happened or police officer trying to maybe defuse the situation trying to have her drop the knife.

Robillard: Okay. Tell me more about that? What did you hear?

Juvenile Uh, I saw like or I just heard like put the knife down, put it down. And then I don't think, I didn't hear anything from her. It was just mostly the police officers yelling and shouting.

Robillard: Okay. Did she put the knife down?

Juvenile No, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. What, what happened next?

Juvenile Um, I'm not really sure like what led up to the police officer actually firing but I turned away for a second. Again, trying to just kinda like defuse the situation with my co-worker.

Robillard: Umm-hmm.

Juvenile And that's when I saw the police officer move forward maybe and then he kinda like jumped back. Maybe, maybe she like pulled the knife up. And then that's when I heard the shots. And then the one with the baton rushed at her.

Robillard: Okay, which officer did you see go up and then jump back?

Juvenile I'm not sure.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile It was a, I believe it was the one that came up behind with the baton but I don't know his name or what he looked like.

Robillard: Oh no, that's okay.

Okay. How long do you think they were interacting with her before you heard the shots?

Juvenile Um, I'd say two or three minutes roughly.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

And then during this time did you see where the knife was?

Juvenile Yes, ma'am. That's where I started to see the knife maybe like on her kinda side kinda like poking up.

Robillard: Okay. And then that's, you described as ....

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: ...something shiny.

Juvenile Yeah, like a shiny off of it.

Robillard: Could you see how big it was?

Juvenile I could not.

Robillard: Okay. All right.

Did you see her do anything with the knife other than.....

Juvenile I did not.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile I just saw it there.

Robillard: Okay.

And then you said you heard a couple shots but you don't know how many.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile I know it was definitely over three, maybe under ten.

Robillard: Okay.

And then after you heard the shots what did she do?

Juvenile She kinda just stood there. It kinda looked like it didn't affect her. And at first I was like did he shoot? Did it contact actually?

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile And then she just stood there. And then she, I think she started to move back when the other police officer started to attack or charge at her. And then that's when they put her on the ground face down.

Robillard: Okay. Okay. And it was the baton officer that went forward.....

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: .....towards her. Okay.

And then and you said earlier I think that, that he tackled her.

Juvenile Yes, ma'am.

Robillard: Okay. Did you see where the knife was at this time?

Juvenile The knife, I didn't see where it was when he tackled her, maybe she dropped at the time but after like she was over there already. And I believe, yeah, they were all like, there was like three or four officers on top of her like kneeling down.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile And that's when I saw the knife sitting like right out in front of the store.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Did anything happen after that?

Juvenile Uh, no, that's when like all, there was like tons of cop cars come up. That's when I saw like them putting like the caution tape stuff.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile Shutting down all the road, telling everyone they can't go and everything.

Robillard: All right. And the three to four officers that you saw that were on top of her what were they doing?

Juvenile Um, I saw one was putting on a pair of gloves, a black pair of gloves.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile The other was really just kinda like holding her down with a knee.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Did, did the Fire Department come, anything like that?

Juvenile Yes, ma'am. I saw um, ambulance pulled up right in front of the store and had the gurney out and loaded her on a gurney.

Robillard: Okay.

Juvenile And then shortly after that I saw some Firefighters walking up and down.

Robillard: Okay. Okay.

Reopelle: So, just a few things Juvenile

So you were, while you were waiting for us.

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Reopelle: You were down in a conference room downstairs. Right?

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: With another employee.

Juvenile Yes, sir. That's the co-worker next to me.

Reopelle: Right. And what did you say her name was again?

Juvenile Her name's Juvenile

Reopelle: Juvenile that's right.

And then there was another female down there that was a witness to this.

Juvenile Yes.

Reopelle: Is she the one you're described that came up to the door?

Juvenile Yes, she was the one that the lady drew the knife on.
Reopelle: Okay. Okay.
And did you see any of that confrontation?
Juvenile Um, I saw her walk past the window like right next to the door. And then that's when all of it happened and she came inside.
Reopelle: Okay. But did you see the two of them actually.....
Juvenile No, sir.
Reopelle: ...you know, confront one another or.....
Juvenile No, sir.
Reopelle: You didn't see that at all.
Juvenile No.
Reopelle: Okay. So you saw her walk past the door.
Juvenile Umm-hmm.
Reopelle: And then the next thing you know is she's knocking on the door....
Juvenile (Unintelligible) Yes, sir.
Reopelle: ...and wants to come into or she opens up the door.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: Okay. And says something about a knife.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: Okay. And then your manager let her in?
Juvenile Yes, sir. My manager met her at the door and let her in and then locked the door.
Reopelle: Okay. And then once she was inside the store did she say anything about what had happened outside?
Juvenile She just said that she drew a knife on me. Uh, again, like I said, it was kinda hard to hear between her tone of voice and then the oven. Our ovens make a lot of noise.
Reopelle: Right. But she said that she drew a knife on me?
Juvenile Yeah, or she like yeah, she drew a knife. She drew a knife of me. And then, and then something about she feels unsafe. I'm not really sure but....
Reopelle: Okay. And what did you get about her demeanor?
Juvenile What do you mean by that sir?
Reopelle: Was she, was she afraid? Was she angry? Was she upset?
Juvenile Oh, she was (Unintelligible) She was super scared and she looked like I'd say about to start crying right around that area.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile Like she was super nervous. She was super (Unintelligible) she felt like her life was threatened as it was.
Reopelle: Okay. Did you see any injuries on her?
Juvenile No, sir.
Reopelle: All right.
Now, when she said that somebody had pulled a knife on, on her....
Juvenile Umm-hmm.
Reopelle: Did you know who she was talking about?
Juvenile Um, I wasn't entirely sure until I saw like the look that she was giving, or the lady outside was giving her inside. It was kinda like yeah, like don't come around here type of look.
Reopelle: Okay. So, where was that lady standing while, while the woman downstairs was in the store?
Juvenile So, we have like a brick pillar. It's right on the corner of our store. It's like a, like a L-shape with kinda like a corner.
Reopelle: Uh-huh....
Juvenile And she was standing like in that corner area at the time.
Reopelle: Okay. Okay. But she was looking into the store.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: And you said she had what type of look on her?
Juvenile She was like angry. It was like she was really trying to like focus in like, I don't know how to describe it. It was like, like she had like intentions of doing something.
Reopelle: Okay.
And, now you said that you had seen her before. Is that correct?

Juvenile Yes, sir. And she's or I've, it's been a couple months.
Reopelle: Right.
Juvenile She's usually hanging out there around there.
Reopelle: Have you had any other problems with her?
Juvenile No, sir. She was always super nice, super polite. She'll come up, walk in um, buy some water or some food.
Reopelle: Okay. Is she a homeless woman?
Juvenile Yes, sir. I always see her sleeping outside.
Reopelle: Okay. Have you ever had any interaction with her?
Juvenile No, sir.
Reopelle: Did you have any interaction with her tonight?
Juvenile No, sir.
Reopelle: Okay. So where was she when the police officers arrived?
Juvenile Uh, again, she was tucked in behind that corner standing there.
Reopelle: Okay. Here do this for me.
Juvenile Absolutely.
Reopelle: So, let's say this is....
Juvenile Umm-hmm.
Juvenile Yeah, it sits uh, I'd say right around this area.
Juvenile Yeah.
Reopelle: Yeah. Okay.
Now, ....
Juvenile So we have a little walkway right here. And then we have like a concrete or like a brick pillar.
Reopelle: Yeah.
Reopelle: Kinda like that?
Juvenile Yeah.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile And then she was or I was standing right about here.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile And then she was standing like in this corner area.
Reopelle: So she's in this corner.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: And that's when she's looking in.
Juvenile Yes.
Reopelle: And she's looking at the other woman.
Juvenile Um, she, she as going up and like back and forth. And then she came over here and looked in where she was sitting right around that area.
Reopelle: Okay. And she was kinda pacing around walking.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: Did she look agitated or ....
Juvenile I wouldn't say, yeah, I'd say agitated was a good term to use. She definitely didn't look happy with what was or what occurred.
Reopelle: Okay. And you, you did see the knife at that point?
Juvenile No, I saw the knife when the police officer arrived. I believe the police officer arrived from around this area.
Reopelle: Okay. Was he on foot?
Juvenile Yes.
Reopelle: Okay. Did you see his car at all?
Juvenile I did not. I saw a car pull up. We have a driveway probably right about in this area. And he pulled up right about here.
Reopelle: So his, his car's in the driveway?
Juvenile Uh, no, the car's right next to the driveway on Pacific Ave. He pulled into the far right lane.
Reopelle: Oh, so he pulled up somewhere like this. Okay.

Juvenile This area, yes.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile And then that's when he (Unintelligible)
Reopelle: Which way was his car facing?
Juvenile Uh, down Pacific Ave.
Reopelle: So this way?
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: This is the front of his car going that way?
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: Okay. Do you know if that car had its emergency lights on?
Juvenile Yes, all the light or all the lights were on.
Reopelle: Yeah, okay.
And, and then so he approached from this way on foot.
Juvenile I believe so. I believe he approached back through here up that little hill and then came up here with the baton.
Reopelle: Okay. So he kinda came this way.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: And he had a baton.
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: Okay. I'm just gonna write that there.
And then the other officer came in this way.
Juvenile I believe so. He might have been around this area too in the actual driveway and then came up but I just saw him walk.
Reopelle: You just saw him on foot....
Juvenile Yes, sir.
Reopelle: ...come this way. And this was the officer with the gun you said.
Juvenile Yes, sir, he was the one that drew the gun.
Reopelle: Okay.
Now, can you describe this officer to me at all?
Juvenile Um, ...skinnier I'd say on the skinny side.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile A white male, with darker hair.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile That's about all I can ....
Reopelle: And what about this officer?
Juvenile Uh, just a white male, maybe a little bit bigger. Um, he had like a bigger build to him.
Reopelle: Okay. Okay.
Now, do you, are you watching when they first contact this gal?
Juvenile Yes. When they first arrived, I was looking out but I was trying to like, like I said, I was trying to calm down my co-worker at the time. So I was like alright, let's just keep making the pizzas. Let's just get this over with. Let's get the pizzas done.
Reopelle: Right. And, and so, do you hear them saying anything to her?
Juvenile Yes, sir. I heard this officer I believe saying like put the knife down, put the knife down.
Reopelle: Okay.
Juvenile That's about all I heard from there.
Reopelle: Okay. And how was she reacting to that?
Juvenile She just stood there. I couldn't see if her lips were moving or anything. I've never heard her speak; so I'm not sure like what her voice sounds like or if she had like a soft tone.
Reopelle: Okay. Was she moving around at all?
Juvenile No, sir. She was standing there.
Reopelle: Okay. Were her hands down by her side or....
Juvenile Yeah, they were, her hands were all the way down by the side, which is when I saw the glimmer of the knife.
Reopelle: Okay. That's when you first....
Juvenile Umm-hmm.
Reopelle: ... saw the glimmer of a knife.
Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: All right. Which hand was she holding it in do you know?

Juvenile I believe it was the right. I could be wrong.

Reopelle: Okay.

And you said this went on for two to three minutes.

Juvenile Yes, sir. Uh, from the moment I'd say it was probably in a full like of a fifteen, twenty minutes span from the moment that she first arrived to like everything happened and she was on the ground.

Reopelle: Okay. Now, did you, did you see the, the entire encounter?

Juvenile Yes, sir. Uh, all the way up to the point of right before the gunshots and then right after the gunshots I saw.

Reopelle: Okay. So, what did you hear her yelling anything at the police...

Juvenile No, sir.

Reopelle: ....or saying anything to the police?

Juvenile No, sir.

Reopelle: And so what was happening right before the gunshots?

Juvenile Um, she was just standing there. It looked like her, again, she was just looking like angry face like determined to do something face.

Reopelle: Okay.

Juvenile And then that's when I looked away to finish the pizza, trying to get my co-worker to finish her pizzas, cause again we had customers that we're trying to get everything done with.

Reopelle: Okay.

Juvenile And then that's when I heard the gunshots go off.

Reopelle: Okay. So how far away from her was this officer?

Juvenile Um, ten feet maybe-ish.

Reopelle: Okay. And was....

Juvenile Relatively close.

Reopelle: What about this officer?

Juvenile He was definitely a lot closer, maybe six or seven feet.

Reopelle: And that's the officer with the baton we're talking about?

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: Okay. Did she ever move from that location or did she stay there?

Juvenile Uh, I believe right after she shot or she or the shots went off she moved to here.

Reopelle: Okay.

Juvenile And then that's when that one rushed towards her.

Reopelle: Okay. So when the shots actually went off,....

Juvenile Umm-hmm.

Reopelle: ....you weren't watching the incident.

Juvenile No, sir.

Reopelle: You were making pizzas.

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: Okay.

Juvenile And then when she was right here, it didn't look like anything affected her. She was just standing still like nothing affected, nothing happened, you know.

Reopelle: Umm-hmm. Umm-hmm. Okay.

Now you, you said that you heard that or you believe it was that officer, the one with the gun.....

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: ....telling her to ....

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: ....um, drop the knife.

Juvenile Yes, sir.

Reopelle: How many times do you think you heard him say that?

Juvenile Um, a good dozen or so.

Reopelle: Okay.

Juvenile He definitely tried to make it clear like all right put the knife down.

Reopelle: And did it look like she was complying at all?

Juvenile No, sir. It looked like she was just like determined to like something happened. She was just standing there still, no movement whatsoever.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Reopelle: Okay.
Did you hear the officers give her any other commands?
Juvenile I do not believe so.
Reopelle: Okay.
Robillard: One thing I thought you said is that her hands were down by her side ....
Juvenile Yes, ma'am.
Robillard: ...but I think earlier you kinda motioned that at one point it did this kind of thing.
Juvenile I believe it went towards it, towards that officer, which is why he jumped back.
Robillard: Okay. And, and you saw that happen?
Juvenile Yes, sir. Yes, ma'am.
Robillard: Okay.
Okay.
What were the officers wearing?
Juvenile Uh, they were fully uniformed. They had the bullet proof vest on.
Robillard: Okay.
Juvenile The side, whatever you guys call it, the on the leg. Uh, that's about it I could see.
Robillard: Okay. Could you tell they were police officers?
Juvenile Yes, ma'am.
Robillard: Okay. Okay.
Anything we didn't ask you that you think, think we should know?
Juvenile Uh, everything that led up to before. I walked in and she was standing there. It didn't look like she had any bad intentions at that time.
Robillard: Umm-hmm.
Juvenile I couldn't even tell that she had a knife or anything on her at the time. She just looked normal. She kinda just like, I don't know, she was definitely pacing like back and forth throughout the night, maybe just trying to keep warm because it was cold out. But she definitely didn't look like anything out of the ordinary, she was gonna do anything that night, definitely looked like it was like in the moment type of instinct. And it didn't look like she was like scavenging for a knife. It looked like it was kinda like in her reach or with her.
Robillard: Okay.
Reopelle: Okay. I don't think I have anything else.
Robillard: Okay.
So we will end the recording.
We'll get you downstairs and get you out of here.
The time now is 12:04 am.
Juvenile Okay.
Robillard: Okay.
Let me go stop (Unintelligible)
Reopelle: Oh, real quick Juvenile Juvenile if you would. Would you just sign that for me right here?
Juvenile Of course.
Reopelle: And then,....
Juvenile Would you like me to print my name also?
Reopelle: Um, yeah, that'd be great. And then date it July 2nd.
Okay.
Robillard: All right, ready to walk you out.
End of Recording.

Synopsis:

Narrative:

On 7/3/19, I was contacted by the Domino's manager, Mike Brown (253-988-6127). He told me that he downloaded the surveillance video from inside the Domino's and the thumb drive would be at the store for pick-up.

On 7/9/19, Detective Song and I went to the Domino's and contacted the store manager, Christian. He gave us the thumb drive that had been secured in the vault.

I later viewed the surveillance. The thumb drive contained seven (7) separate videos, all approximately 11-15 minutes long. The angle is from a camera on the ceiling on the inside of the Domino's, pointing towards the front doors. Through the front windows on the north side of the business, you can see the sidewalk and people coming/going in front of the Domino's, but there is a bit of a glare on the window. The view is also obstructed by hanging Domino's advertisements. On the right side of the footage, through the windows on the east side of the business, you can see cars travelling on Pacific Ave but you can't see the sidewalk on the east side of the store.

The surveillance is summarized as follows:

VIDEO NAME: 010446-011950.avi

The camera times appear to be off. The surveillance starts on 7/3/19 at 0104 hours. It is light out or possibly dusk out. The camera is titled "CH8."

01:10:04 hours: A person walks up from the west, rolling what appears to be a bag. She stops outside in front of the doors to Domino's and appears to be in some sort of conversation with someone (not in camera view) to the east of her.

01:10:21 hours: The person opens the doors and appears to communicate with staff inside, pointing and looking towards whoever was to the east of her. The staff member walks to the front door, looks out, and allows the person into the store. That staff member steps out of the camera view for a moment and then reappears with what appears to be a cell phone and makes a phone call while looking out the front door. A delivery guy tries to leave the store, but the person on the phone stops him from exiting the business.

01:14:27 hours: The person on the phone locks the front door to the business.

01:15:42 hours: A police car arrives from the north on Pacific Avenue with its emergency lights on.

01:16:02 hours: An officer walks towards the front of the store from the northwest. He appears to remove his weapon from its holster and appears to hold it in the "sul position" while his left arm is pointed out towards the east. A second officer joins the first officer and they're both standing at the northeast corner of the store with their attention pointed to the east. Both officers step off of the camera view (to the east) for a few moments.

01:16:37 hours: The first officer starts to backpedal towards the west. His arms are pointed directly out towards the east. The second officer quickly moves to the west, as well. The muzzle flash of the officer's weapon can be seen as both officers quickly retreat backwards towards the west.

01:16:39 hours: While viewing the video in slow motion, you can see a long, flat object (possibly a knife) sliding on the ground from the east to the west past the officer's feet at a faster rate of speed than what the officers are moving.

01:16:43 hours: The subject starts to move along the east side of the building towards the north. Both officers quickly follow her and you can see an officer take a subject to the ground. It is difficult to see what happens while they're on the east side of the building because of the window posts and the glare of the windows.

01:19:50 hours: This video ends.

VIDEO NAME: 011947-013451.avi

01:19:47 hours: The video begins. Several officers begin arriving and assisting with the scene.

01:23:09 hours: The fire department "Medic One" pulls into the parking lot.

01:33:45 hours: Medic One pulls out of the parking lot.

01:34:51 hours: Video ends.

None of the other videos appear to contain anything significant beyond officers continuing their work.

I later uploaded these videos to Evidence.com and placed the thumb drive into the Tacoma Police property room. Refer the videos for exact information.

Investigative Information

Means:		Motive:
Vehicle Activity:		Direction Vehicle Traveling:

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 07/02/19 at approximately 2138 hours, I was contacted by Sergeant Larkin in regards to an Officer Involved Shooting Investigation. I responded to the area of 3840 Pacific Ave Tacoma, WA where I met with Sergeant White, Detective Granlund, Detective Viehmann, and Detective Yglesias. Lieutenant Karl and Sergeant G.J. Roberts from Internal Affairs was also present. At approximately 2220 hours, Sergeant Graham provided a briefing of the incident. After the briefing it was determined that I would be responsible for the crime scene investigation, Detectives Granlund and Yglesias would canvas the area for witnesses, and Detective Viehmann would respond to Tacoma General Hospital. Forensics' Techs Doan and Jones-Rush arrived and were briefed on the incident. I noted that upon my arrival that the ground was wet due to recent rain showers. The rain showers seemed to stop just after my arrival and the ground dried throughout the night and morning as we processed the scene. There were automated sprinklers that went off intermittently. The sky was overcast and it was dark outside. The area was illuminated by several businesses and street lights in the area. The incident occurred near the Domino's Pizza located at 3840 Pacific Ave in Tacoma, WA. Domino's Pizza is located in a business complex on the Southwest corner of South 38th St and Pacific Ave. 38TH St runs East/ West and consists of two Eastbound lanes, a center turn lane, and two Westbound lanes. Pacific Ave runs North/ South and consists of two Northbound lanes, a center turn lane, and two Southbound lanes. The complex contains several buildings to include a building in the Northeast corner and Westside. The buildings had several businesses associated with them. On the Eastside of the complex was a building for Comfort Dental (3820 Pacific Ave Tacoma, WA) that runs North/ South. In the Southeast corner of the complex is a building that runs East/ West. This building consists of KPS Liquor Mart on the Westside of the building and the Domino's Pizza on the Eastside. There are three entrances/ exits into the parking lot for the business complex. One located in the Northwest corner of the complex, another on the Eastside of the complex just North of Comfort Dental, and the third in the Southeast corner of the lot between Domino's Pizza and Comfort Dental. The entrance/ exit driveway on the Southeast corner runs East/ West and has a grade uphill if entering from Pacific Ave but becomes more level near the Domino's Pizza. The Southeast driveway runs the length of the complex and has parking on the North and South side of the thorough fair. Halfway down the Southeast thorough fair is a travel lane that runs North/ South between the Comfort Dental and the West building. Officer Komarovsky's patrol car (467) was parked in the North/ South travel lane just to the North of the KPS Liquor Store. The patrol car was on the Eastside of the travel lane next to a planting strip. The patrol car was facing Southbound but was slightly canted to the East. The overhead emergency lights were activated and illuminating the area. Patrol Car 828 was parked behind Officer Komarovsky's patrol vehicle but wasn't on scene at the time of the incident. Sergeant Graham advised that Officer Heyward's patrol vehicle was parked on Pacific Ave during the incident but was driven back to headquarters by Officer Heyward.
------------	---

There was a white Ford Ranger (WA C49363N) backed into a parking stall on the Northside of the Southeast driveway between the Domino's store and Comfort Dental. The Ford Ranger was parked in the furthest East parking stall on the Northside of the thorough fair. Two stalls to the West of the Ford Ranger was a red Hyundai Sonata (WA BOY8789). The Hyundai Sonata was also backed into a parking stall and had a Domino's Pizza light-up sign on the roof. Directly in front of the Domino's store was a white Hyundai Elantra (WA BKA2806). The Hyundai Elantra was parked in the second to the furthest East parking stall on the East/ West thorough fair and was facing Southbound. It also had a light up Domino's Pizza sign on the roof.

The Domino's Pizza store appears to be constructed of cinder blocks with large glass windows and doors on the East and North sides of the business. There is a glass double door on the Northside of the business that opens out and a single glass door on the East side that also opens out. There is a sidewalk that runs along the front (North) of the business and East side of the business. The majority of the side walk is covered by a porch that is supported by several brick pillars. There is a rectangular shaped brick pillar in front of the Northwest side of the business, a "L" shaped pillar near the Northeast corner of the business, and another rectangular pillar on the East side of the business. To the East of the sidewalk is a narrow planting strip that runs North/ South. To the East of the planting strip is a ramp that runs North/ South before it switches back and leads down the hillside to a sidewalk that parallels Pacific Ave.

The sidewalk around the Domino's store is illuminated by can lights in the ceiling of the porch. There are also lights on the outside of the brick pillars. There is a large lighted Domino's sign on the East and North sides of the Porch. On the South side of the driveway next to Pacific Ave is a street light. The interior of the Domino's store is lighted very well and assisted in illuminating the sidewalk in front of the store.

The interior of the Domino's store had four tables for customers, two along the Northeast corner of the business, two in the Northwest corner. The employee's area had a glass partition along the North and East side of the area. There were several surveillance cameras inside the store.

Prior to processing the scene, I asked Detective Granlund to check the business/ home across Pacific Ave. (3837 Pacific Ave Tacoma, WA) to see if there were any defects from bullet strikes. A sign in front of the location that read "Herbal Envidia" "Perfect Health Center". The location appears to be a single story residence that was possibly converted into a business. The attic also appeared to be converted into a livable area as there was AC unit in the window. The exterior of the business was brick. The front door is on the Westside of the building. There is a long driveway that leads East from Pacific Ave. There is a slight grade down as it ends at a white detached garage. There was a gold Honda CRV (WA 557XRT) parked facing East in the driveway. The detached garage faced West and had a surveillance camera at the peak of the roof. Over grown trees were draping over the roof of the detached garage. The area behind (East) of the garage had several trees and led to a vacant lot.

Detective Granlund advised me that he had located a defect in the detached garage of 3837 Pacific Ave. I inspected the penetrating defect which was consistent with a bullet strike. The defect was approximately 1-2 feet above the roll up garage door and several feet South of the center of the garage. The defect appeared to be fresh as the wood around the defect had not been discolored. There appeared to be some small white paint chips on the driveway below the defect. Forensic Tech Ramos later collected a bullet (Evidence Marker 14/ Master Case 25) from the defect.

I also noticed a defect in the spare tire cover of the Honda CRV. I noted that this defect was square and not consistent with a bullet strike. I later removed the spare tire cover and noticed that the spare tire was still inflated. I didn't locate a bullet or fragments inside the cover.

Forensic Tech Doan was requested at Tacoma General Hospital to assist in translating and was replaced by Forensic Tech Ramos. Forensic Tech Ramos and I processed the sidewalk around the Domino's store. On the sidewalk West of the Domino's front door between the west brick pillar and the cinder block wall was a large kitchen knife (EM 1/ MC 12). The blade of the knife was pointing to the East. The knife's handle was brown in color and had several rubber bands near the blade. On the sidewalk West of the front door near a glass window was a spent 9mm shell casing (EM 2/ MC 13). Just outside the front door was another spent 9mm shell casing (EM 3/ MC 14). There were two more spent 9mm shell casings (EM 4/ MC 15 and EM 5/ MC 16) near a glass window East of the front door. To the Northeast of EM 4/5 was a large kitchen knife (EM 6/ MC 17). The blade of EM 6 was pointing to the South and the handle was black. Next to the knife was a brown paper bag (EM 7/ MC 18) with a rubber band wrapped around the bag. To the North of the paper bag was a pair of black gloves (EM 8/ MC 19). In the interior corner of the "L" shaped brick pillar for the porch was a rolling cart that was overfilled with various items to include blankets and clothing. Next to the cart was plastic bags that contained drinks and food.

In the planting strip East of the South edge of the "L" shaped pillar was two defects that appeared to run East/ West. The defect marked with EM A was approximately one-foot-long and appeared to have enough force to break small roots in the soil. The defect marked EM B was to the South of EM A was slightly under a small bush. The defects appeared to be relatively fresh as the beauty bark in the defect was dark red whereas the beauty bark away from the defects was weathered and had muted color. Forensic Tech Ramos and I dug through the defects but didn't locate a bullet in either defect. Forensic Tech Rush-Jones used a metal detector but we didn't locate a bullet in either defect.

On the sidewalk between the "L" shaped brick pillar and the rectangular pillar on the Eastside of the Domino's store was a purse (EM 9/ MC 20). I later checked the unzipped purse and located a butter knife (EM 13/ MC 24) in a cardboard sheath. There was a passport and social security card for Thao T Pham in the purse. There were various items (EM 10/ MC 21) spread out near the purse. Also near the purse was an opened sterile wound dressing package (EM 11/ MC 22). Moving further south on the sidewalk towards the East brick pillar was drops of suspected blood (EM C/ MC 26) and a small pool of suspected blood (EM D/ MC 27). South of the suspected blood next to the East brick pillar was a pair of black rubber gloves (EM 12/ MC 23).

Forensic Tech Ramos collected the items of evidence. Forensic Tech Rush-Jones collected two empty recycle bins from headquarters for Thao Pham's belongings near the Northeast brick pillar. Pham's belongings were placed in the recycle bins and Forensic Tech Rush-Jones transported them to headquarters. On 07/03/19 at approximately 0456 hours I cleared the scene. I responded to headquarters where Sergeant White and I placed the recycle bins into a secure fenced area.

On 07/03/19 at approximately 1230 hours, I returned to the area of 3840 Pacific Ave Tacoma, WA. I checked the area for any potential bullet strikes but had negative results. I also checked 3837 Pacific Ave Tacoma, WA and didn't locate any more potential defects.

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 7/2/19, at approx. 2119 hrs. R/Sgt. was contacted by Sgt. Lim regarding an officer involved shooting. I was the scheduled on-call sergeant for the Criminal Investigation Unit. It was reported that officers responded to a call involving a women waiving a knife in front of the Domino's Pizza located at 3840 Pacific Avenue. The call resulted in the female suspect being shot by one of the responding officers (see officer reports for further). The suspect was transported to Tacoma General with non-threatening injuries. R/Sgt. contacted detectives to initiate a callout. I met Det. Reopelle and Robillard at police headquarters. Sgt. T. White, Det. Buchanan, Yglesias, Granlund and Viehmann responded to the scene on Pacific Avenue. Det. Robillard was assigned as the primary detective and was assisted by Det. Reopelle. Sgt. White responded to the crime and Det. Buchanan was assigned to the crime scene. Det. Viehmann responded to Tacoma General Hospital where the suspect was being treated. Det. Yglesias and Granlund were assigned to interviewed. (see detective supplemental reports for further).

Synopsis:

Narrative:

Yglesias: All right. Have a seat right here if you would.
(Unintelligible)

Granlund: Hi, (Unintelligible) meet you. I'm Detective Granlund.

Banderhoff: Hi.

Yglesias: And I'm Detective Yglesias.
And just so you know this room is recording.

Banderhoff: Okay.

Yglesias: Is that okay? All right.
Let's get your, first let's get your full name so we know what....
I've got Juvenile. Is it Juvenile?

Banderhoff: Juvenile.

Yglesias: All right. Okay. And what's your middle initial?

Banderhoff: Juvenile.

Yglesias: Juvenile.
And your last name?

Banderhoff: Juvenile Juvenile Juvenile

Yglesias: Okay. And your birthdate?

Banderhoff: Juvenile Juvenile.

Yglesias: Okay. And what's your address?

Banderhoff: Juvenile Juvenile.

Yglesias: Okay. Do you have a phone number?
A phone number?

Banderhoff: Oh, sorry. Juvenile.

Yglesias: Okay. And you're an employee at Domino's?

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: We got that.

Banderhoff: Uh-huh.

Yglesias: How long have you worked there?

Banderhoff: Um, month and a half.

Yglesias: Month and a half.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Okay.

Now, before we go into what happened this evening this lady that was involved, the homeless lady that kinda stays out in front of the Domino's.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: How long do you think she's been there?

Banderhoff: Uh, she's been there for six months at least.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: It's even before I worked there. And I....

Yglesias: Before you worked there.

Banderhoff: I work down the, or I live down the street; so I see her.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Yglesias: And you've seen her.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay, so at least six months.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: In that same spot?
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: Any problems with her in the past?
Banderhoff: No, she's actually really nice.
Yglesias: Okay.
And does she speak English?
Banderhoff: Not really.
Yglesias: Not really.
Is she Spanish speaking?
Banderhoff: I believe so.
Yglesias: Okay.
Do you know any Spanish at all?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: Okay.
Do, do you guys ever talk to her or does she talk to you?
Banderhoff: She comes in and orders almost daily.
Yglesias: Oh, does she come in and order?
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: Okay. And she seems fine?
Banderhoff: Yeah, she's very polite.
Yglesias: Okay. Did she come in today and order anything?
Banderhoff: Uh, not that I believe.
Yglesias: Okay. What time did you start working today?
Banderhoff: Uh, 3:30.
Yglesias: Okay. And was she there when you got, when you got there?
Banderhoff: Yep.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: She's usually on the bench out front but she moved under our covered area because it was raining.
Yglesias: Okay.
And when you got there at 3:30 you, she didn't come in after you were working?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: Okay. But you said she normally does.
Banderhoff: Yep.
Yglesias: Okay.
Did you notice anything different about her today?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: Nothing out of the ordinary with her at all.
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: Okay.
So then what happened, what happened tonight?
Banderhoff: Um, <sup>Juvenile</sup> and were working on the make line, which is like there's that first window and then the door. And then everything is glass and you see through it. And so we were both working the make line. I'm on the outside. He's on the inside. And this woman opens the door and she says can I come in? I have my cat. And it was kind of hard to understand her. She's like uh, this woman has a knife. We, we weren't gonna let her in because like we didn't hear the knife part. And then that was a violation to let her in cause she has a cat.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: It's (Unintelligible)
Yglesias: Right.
Banderhoff: And then um, .....

Banderhoff: Yeah, we're like only customers can come in. But she's like and then our manager went out and she's like this woman has a knife and she's threatening me.

And then she came in. And uh, we waited for one of our delivery drivers to get inside and then we locked the door.

And while we were waiting for a delivery driver we called the police.

And I think it took about two to three minutes before the police came.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: And then um, um, we watched them approach her.

And then one had already taken out his gun. And I hope, she doesn't understand English very well; so I don't know if she understood what he was saying. But um,....after that I, I have a heart condition, so I tried to stay, like a lot of stress is possible.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Banderhoff: So I looked away for a second and then I thought it was kinda like they had already had her, like they had had their hands on her already. So I figured um, that it was over so I like turned back. And then um, as I'm like turning back and I'm looking is when he fired his gun. And um, after that I just looked away.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: I went to the back of the store.

Yglesias: So, let me back up a second.

When the lady came in the store to say that there was somebody outside with a knife. Did you ever see the knife?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Did you see her with a knife?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Could you see her at all?

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: Okay.

So you could see her but you, did you see her holding a knife?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Yglesias: All right. Have a seat right here if you would.

(Unintelligible)

Granlund: Hi, (Unintelligible) meet you. I'm Detective Granlund.

Banderhoff: Hi.

Yglesias: And I'm Detective Yglesias.

Banderhoff: Okay.

Yglesias: Is that okay? All right.

Let's get your, first let's get your full name so we know what....

I've got Juvenile Is it A-u?

Banderhoff: A-u-t-u-m-n.

Yglesias: All right. Okay. And what's your middle initial?

Banderhoff: N.

Yglesias: N.

And your last name?

Banderhoff: Banderhoff. B-a-n-d-e-r-h-o-f-f.

Yglesias: Okay. And your birthdate?

Banderhoff: December 14th, 2001.

Yglesias: Okay. And what's your address?

Banderhoff: 4319 South Fawcett Avenue.

Yglesias: Okay. Do you have a phone number?

A phone number?

Banderhoff: Oh, sorry. 253-327-8109.

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: We got that.

Banderhoff: Uh-huh.

Yglesias: How long have you worked there?

Banderhoff: Um, month and a half.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Okay.

Now, before we go into what happened this evening this lady that was involved, the homeless lady that kinda stays out in front of the Domino's.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: How long do you think she's been there?

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: It's even before I worked there. And I....

Yglesias: Before you worked there.

Banderhoff: I work down the, or I live down the street; so I see her.

Yglesias: And you've seen her.

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: Okay, so at least six months.

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: In that same spot?

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Any problems with her in the past?

Banderhoff: No, she's actually really nice.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: Not really.

Yglesias: Not really.

Is she Spanish speaking?

Banderhoff: I believe so.

Yglesias: Okay.

Do you know any Spanish at all?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Okay.

Do, do you guys ever talk to her or does she talk to you?

Banderhoff: She comes in and orders almost daily.

Yglesias: Oh, does she come in and order?

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Okay. And she seems fine?

Banderhoff: Yeah, she's very polite.

Yglesias: Okay. Did she come in today and order anything?

Banderhoff: Uh, not that I believe.

Yglesias: Okay. What time did you start working today?

Banderhoff: Uh, 3:30.

Yglesias: Okay. And was she there when you got, when you got there?

Banderhoff: Yep.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: She's usually on the bench out front but she moved under our covered area because it was raining.

Yglesias: Okay.

And when you got there at 3:30 you, she didn't come in after you were working?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Okay. But you said she normally does.

Banderhoff: Yep.

Yglesias: Okay.

Did you notice anything different about her today?

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Nothing out of the ordinary with her at all.

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Okay.

So then what happened, what happened tonight?

Banderhoff: Um, Juvenile and were working on the make line, which is like there's that first window and then the door. And then everything is glass and you see through it. And so we were both working the make line. I'm on the outside. He's on the inside. And this woman opens the door and she says can I come in? I have my cat. And it was kind of hard to understand her. She's like uh, this woman has a knife. We, we weren't gonna let her in because like we didn't hear the knife part. And then that was a violation to let her in cause she has a cat.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Banderhoff: It's (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: Right.

Banderhoff: And then um, .....

Yglesias: Did you tell her that or?

Banderhoff: Yeah, we're like only customers can come in. But she's like and then our manager went out and she's like this woman has a knife and she's threatening me.

And then she came in. And uh, we waited for one of our delivery drivers to get inside and then we locked the door.

And while we were waiting for a delivery driver we called the police.

And I think it took about two to three minutes before the police came.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: And then um, um, we watched them approach her.

And then one had already taken out his gun. And I hope, she doesn't understand English very well; so I don't know if she understood what he was saying. But um,....after that I, I have a heart condition, so I tried to stay, like a lot of stress is possible.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Banderhoff: So I looked away for a second and then I thought it was kinda like they had already had her, like they had had their hands on her already. So I figured um, that it was over so I like turned back. And then um, as I'm like turning back and I'm looking is when he fired his gun. And um, after that I just looked away.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: I went to the back of the store.

Yglesias: So, let me back up a second.

When the lady came in the store to say that there was somebody outside with a knife. Did you ever see the knife?

Banderhoff: No.

Banderhoff: No.

Yglesias: Could you see her at all?

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: Okay.

So you could see her but you, did you see her holding a knife?

Banderhoff: No.

Okay.

Banderhoff: It looked like an umbrella cause she always has one in her hand. So it could have possibly been a knife but I'm not very sure.

Granlund: But you saw something in her hand?

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Granlund: Can you describe it the best that you can. You said an umbrella, I mean that was.... (Unintelligible)

Banderhoff: Yeah, like no, and so you know that umbrella that kind like you push them down and

....

Granlund: Ahh.

Banderhoff: ....kinda like that.

Granlund: Okay.

Yglesias: Okay.

Granlund: But there was something in her hand that you could see?

Banderhoff: Yeah.

Granlund: Okay.

Yglesias: Was she saying anything could you tell?
Banderhoff: No, she just kinda like at that point I noticed she had kinda of like look on her face like she was watching that woman.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: And I've never seen her be aggressive; so I don't know if this woman provoked her in some way, like maybe touched her things but I noticed like this lady is not very like, she's very polite, very like I walk home every day right in front of her and she always smiles and waves, like she's very nice.
Yglesias: Okay.
So then after the, the other woman came inside,....
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: ....and you guys locked the doors. You said the, the cop showed up in about two to three minutes.
Banderhoff: Yes.
Yglesias: And could you see the, the homeless woman? Could you see her?
Banderhoff: Yes.
Yglesias: At the time when the, when the officer's arrived?
Banderhoff: Yeah, well we have our door is like are whole building is glass.
Yglesias: Is it?
Banderhoff: Yeah, ....
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: ....so.
Yglesias: And what was she doing when, when the officers arrived?
Banderhoff: Uh, she stood there and then she looked really frightened; so she looked like she was trying to run away like move away.
Yglesias: It looked like she was moving away?
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay. What were the, could you tell what the officers were saying?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: Okay, you couldn't hear them saying anything.
Banderhoff: I'm partially deaf in my right ear, so.
Yglesias: Okay.
Granlund: Was she holding anything that, ....
Banderhoff: Um-uh.
Granlund: ....did you see her when the officer showed up do you remember if she holding anything?
Banderhoff: I just remember like, it could have been. I thought it was an umbrella.
Granlund: Okay.
Banderhoff: And it looked like that's what it was. That's what it looked like to me.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: Holding a paper bag that had something in it.
Yglesias: But she had it in her hand?
Banderhoff: Yeah, and then I think she dropped it. I believe that she dropped it.
Granlund: Do you know when she dropped it?
You said you heard the shots. Right?
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Granlund: Was she, did you know if she dropped it before or after the shots?
Banderhoff: There were shots and then she moved kind of (Unintelligible) we have a secondary driver entrance, and they moved towards that and then I watched her fall, like go to the ground. And that's when the police officers then came to her. And I, I think they, I believe they grabbed something out of her hand.
But I know that she had also dropped something previous to that.
Granlund: Previous to....
Banderhoff: To like to the shots fired.
Granlund: Okay.
Yglesias: Okay. So she dropped something prev, before the shots.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: You just don't know what it was though.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Okay.
Yglesias: Okay.

So you didn't hear the officers saying anything.

Banderhoff: No, ma'am.
Yglesias: And then you saw, you heard shots and then you saw her fall.
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm. Well, she moved away and then fell.
Yglesias: She moved away and then fell.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.

And you had said something earlier about the officers had grabbed onto her.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: Was that before or after the shots were fired?
Banderhoff: That was when she hit the ground.
Yglesias: Okay. Then they went over to her. Okay.
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: And how many officers did you see?
Banderhoff: Uh, two or three.
Yglesias: Two to three.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.
Granlund: Do you remember how many shots you heard?
Yglesias: I believe I heard four.
Granlund: Okay. All right. Thank you.
Yglesias: Were they, were they quick?
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Were they all together?
Banderhoff: Yeah, pretty much.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: It was like two or three seconds between each.
Granlund: Okay.

Your best guess how far or how long, I'm sorry, do you think you had looked away? You remember you said you had a heart condition and you said you looked away and you thought the scene was over.

Banderhoff: It was only like thirty seconds.
Granlund: Okay.

Banderhoff: Cause like Juvenile Juvenile was trying to shelter me from it. And then I looked back like cause I thought it was done with.

Granlund: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: And then that's when I had I saw.
Granlund: Okay.
Banderhoff: I watched them shoot and (Unintelligible)
Yglesias: So were you looking away when you heard shots?
Banderhoff: No, I was looking there I think. (Unintelligible)
Yglesias: You were looking that way and you heard shots. And then you looked away.
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: Okay.
Granlund: After the shots were fired.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Okay.

Banderhoff: I went to the back of the store.
Granlund: And you were still behind like the food partition kinda the register area?

Banderhoff: Yeah, so there's the register, and then it's open; and then there's like a glass encased area. And then what we have is called a make line. And it's like a metal rack that has all of our like ingredients and stuff on it.

Granlund: Umm-hmm.

Banderhoff: And I was like at the edge between like where the glass, like the open is doing something there. And then where the make line is.

Granlund: All right.

Did you see where the officers came from?

Banderhoff: Um, one approached, so the first one I saw he had his gun out. He came from, I believe like the opening in the parking lot cause I watched them pull in and then he came in and he had his gun out. And then I believe it was his partner and he had his like the, a stick thing.

Granlund: Umm-hmm.

Banderhoff: He had that out.

Yglesias: Okay.

Granlund: Did they show up in the same car or you don't know?

Banderhoff: I believe so.

Granlund: Okay. Cause you saw 'em coming from like the same spot.

Banderhoff: Yeah, well of the cars came. So the first car came and then another car came. And then after the shots were fired multiple cars came.

Granlund: Right. Right. Okay.

But before the shots were fired how many officers do you believe you saw there?

Banderhoff: I only saw two or three.

Granlund: Okay. And you saw them coming, approaching from the parking lot.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Granlund: Okay.

Yglesias: Could you tell which officer shot?

Banderhoff: It was the first initial one that came with the gun out.

Yglesias: Okay. And what did he look like?

Banderhoff: Just like a white man.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: ....like I don't know. (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: Honestly, police officers look the same.

Yglesias: But it was the first one that you'd seen?

Banderhoff: Yes.

Yglesias: Okay. And you said there was one that had the gun out and one that had the, a baton out.

Banderhoff: Yes.

Yglesias: So it was obviously the one that had the gun out.

Banderhoff: Yes.

Yglesias: Okay.

Banderhoff: But I know that after um, when that lady, the, the guy with the baton, I believe he did hit the woman.

Yglesias: You saw the, the officer with the baton hit the woman?

Banderhoff: Yes.

Yglesias: Where did he hit her at?

Banderhoff: I think it was the back of the knees.

Yglesias: And was that before or after shots were fired?

Banderhoff: It was after.

Yglesias: After shots were fired.

Banderhoff: Yeah, so it could have been to get her on the ground. (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: Oh, so after shots were fired you saw the one with the baton.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: ...hit her, you think in the back of the knees.

Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Okay.

Okay.

Granlund: Do you know how many swings?

Banderhoff: I believe it was just one.

Granlund: Okay.

Banderhoff: She's a little lady; so I don't think it takes much to get her down.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Granlund: And then what happened after that now?
Banderhoff: That's just when, I think a multiple police officers approached. And then um, we all got kinda pushed to the back like we had to start calling and cancelling our orders. We already contacted our franchise owner and let him know that like this is happening. We can't....
Granlund: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: We can't leave. No one can come in. And so um, we kinda got pushed back.
And then um, I stayed back there because .....

Granlund: Your heart condition.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Umm-hmm. Okay.
Banderhoff: I didn't take my medication today; so I was kinda (Unintelligible)
Granlund: What, what's the last thing you remember seeing before you finally turned away?
Banderhoff: The police officers kinda were crowding around her.
Granlund: Okay. Okay.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Did you see what they were doing?
Banderhoff: They looked like they were just trying to restrain her.
Granlund: Okay. Did you see her moving at all?
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: What was she doing?
Banderhoff: She was just like frantically moving her arms.
Granlund: Okay.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Anything else?
Banderhoff: No.
Granlund: Okay. No noises?
Banderhoff: No.
Granlund: Or words?
Banderhoff: No. The oven in our um, is very loud.
Granlund: Okay.
Okay. Thank you.
Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: Does, does she have issues with other people. We had spoken with somebody across the street.
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Yglesias: And they mentioned that she gets harassed and.....
Banderhoff: Yeah, people are often mean to her; she's homeless, so.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: The homeless population that people are always rude to them.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: It's....
Yglesias: So is it other homeless being mean to her or it is just random people being mean to her?

Banderhoff: Um, homeless, other homeless people are rude to her.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Banderhoff: She's like, she stays in one spot. That's like her home is that bench and um,....
Yglesias: Umm-hmm. Is it the bench that's on the street pretty much? The bench that's....
Banderhoff: It's directly in front of our store. It's (Unintelligible)
Yglesias: Is it on Pacific Avenue or is it up on like the parking lot?
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm. Yeah, there's a, it's on Pacific.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: There's the bench and then we have our ramp to come in.
Yglesias: Yeah.
Banderhoff: And then our store is right there.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: Yeah.

Yglesias: And that's where she's normally at.
And is her stuff always right there at the end of the cover?
Banderhoff: Yeah, under our cover.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: You say that you're friendly to her and you say hi to her everything.
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Granlund: Do you know her name or a nickname?
Banderhoff: No.
Granlund: Nothing.
Banderhoff: Um-uh.
Granlund: Okay.
Banderhoff: I know we have it in our store. She's one of our frequent customers. I just don't know it.
Granlund: You do have her name at your store, at the store?
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Why do you have her name at the store?
Banderhoff: We have to names for our customers; so we can verify them for like carry out and such.
Granlund: Okay. So she's actually given you guys the name?
Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
Granlund: A full name or just like a first name?
Banderhoff: Just a first name; I'm not sure of it.
Granlund: Okay. Any other information, sometimes like phone numbers I know.
Banderhoff: Umm-uh.
Granlund: No, but just a first name.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Granlund: Okay.
Banderhoff: You'd have to talk to my manager to get it I believe.
Granlund: Okay. But you would recognize it if you saw it probably?
Banderhoff: I believe so, yeah.
Granlund: Okay.
Yglesias: Okay.
Do you, have you ever seen her with a phone?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: No. Okay.
What about anybody that hangs out with her? Does she have any friends does it seem like?
Banderhoff: She's kind of always by herself.
Yglesias: Okay.
Banderhoff: Like there's a lot of people that there's like another homeless person who lives on the bench across the street and like they communicate sometimes but I think it's just like a hi like kinda thing.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
And so, she's Spanish speaking. I noticed there was a couple Spanish speaking like businesses in the area.
Banderhoff: Yeah.
Yglesias: Are any of those people help her out or do anything for her or?
Banderhoff: I'm not sure. Some people sometimes, like the Mission, like the homeless shelters come in and ask like why we don't report her or anything but other than that.
Yglesias: Okay. And but she has never caused problems in front your business.
Banderhoff: No, never.
Yglesias: No, okay.
Banderhoff: Yeah, she minds her own business. She's very like, like I said, she's very kind.
Yglesias: Okay. Does she have any unusual behaviors typically or anything like that?
Banderhoff: No.
Yglesias: No, okay.
Granlund: What does she normally order?
Banderhoff: She gets like um, so we have bread bites and then she also gets like cheesy bread.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Granlund: Umm-hmm.
 Banderhoff: And then I think one time we forgot her marinara and she in and got that; and she was very polite about it.
 Granlund: All right. But she always get the garlic bites ....
 Banderhoff: Yeah.
 Granlund: ....or whatever the parmesan bites (Unintelligible)
 Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
 Granlund: That's my favorite.
 Yglesias: So the woman that came in with the cat have you ever seen her before?
 Granlund: No.
 Yglesias: No. Okay.
 Granlund: Have you filled out one of these already, a handwritten statement?
 Banderhoff: No.
 Granlund: Okay.
 I don't have any other questions. Do you?
 Yglesias: Umm-uh.
 Granlund: Okay.
 So the one thing that we ask of you to do.....
 Banderhoff: Umm-hmm.
 Granlund: Is just fill out your name and your....
 Banderhoff: Uh-huh.
 Granlund: ....information again.
 Banderhoff: Um-hmm.
 Granlund: And then just tell us just briefly what happened, what you saw?
 I know like we like we talked about it and asked you questions but just write you're there, this is what I was doing, this is what I heard, this is what I saw.
 Banderhoff: Okay.
 Granlund: And like I said it doesn't have to be a novel just, just kinda short and sweet.
 Yglesias: Okay.
 Very good. Sign it and date it for me.
 Banderhoff: What's today?
 Yglesias: It's the third now.
 Banderhoff: Okay.
 Yglesias: (Unintelligible)
 Granlund: All right. Well, we'll take you back down.
 Yglesias: I can take her down if you want me to.
 Granlund: Okay.
 Thank you Juvenile
 (Unintelligible)

Investigative Information

Synopsis:
-----------	--

Narrative:	On 1/6/20, I applied for and was granted a search warrant for Pham's medical records (Signed by Judge Orlando). On 1/7/20, I sent a copy of the search warrant to MultiCare. On 1/9/20, I received a message from MultiCare stating the search warrant was signed on the 6th day of June and asked me to have the warrant revised and resent to them. I replied with a copy of the signature box from the Search Warrant complaint, that more clearly read the 6th day of Jan, 2020 (as June 6th, 2020 had not occurred yet). On 1/13/20, I had not heard back from MultiCare regarding the date on the search warrant, so I contacted Judge Orlando again, who resigned the warrant. Later on 1/13/20, I resent the warrant to MultiCare. On 1/14/20, I received the medical records for Pham. On 1/21/20, I filed the warrant with the Pierce County Clerk's Office. I later placed the medical records into the Tacoma Police property room and sent a copy to the PAO.

We're in a bit of a transition. Viehmänn: Manager in training maybe? Young: Um, it would be general manager in training. Viehmänn: Okay. How long have you been working at Domino's?
------------	---

Young: Uh, September 18th of last year.

Viehmman: Oh, okay.

All right. You were working today. What time did you come to work?

Young: Um, I showed up, I showed up early. I got there at 1:15. I had to prepare for the manager's trip meeting. I left at 1:45 and I got back at 4:00, I believe.

Viehmman: Okay.

And what happened later? What happened to bring us all here?

Young: Um, so I heard the, the chime of the door.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: Somebody had opened the door. I, I heard someone while I'm, nothing out of the usual, and then I hear, I heard one of my team members, you know, bathrooms are for customers only. It's regular....

Viehmman: Sure.

Young: And we don't like people shooting up or dying in our bathrooms.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: Um, and then she, she becomes frantic, you kind of hear panic in her voice, and somethings going on. And then my uh, I was on the ovens, taking food out of the oven. And so I couldn't hear exactly what was going on.

And then they're like, they just kinda look at me. They're like Ashley, and then points. They, they kinda point in the direction of the front door. And so I go out to try and talk to her and um, at first I couldn't understand what she was saying at first. And so, I got closer to see if I can hear her better. And she's, she's kinda in a weird panic but again that's like not unusual.

Um, so I speak with her and I said like what's the problem. Um, and I just hear a bunch of rambling. I couldn't make it out. And then she goes "she has a knife."

And so,....

Viehmman: She said that she had a knife or one of your employees said that?

Young: The uh, lady that, I don't know her name. The one that's also in the interview room.

Viehmman: Oh, okay.

Young: The woman who came in who was the apparent target of ....the other, the homeless lady.

Viehmman: So let me stop you there. I'll go back.

You said you were on the oven. So were you near the front of the store?

Young: Not when she came in.

Viehmman: Okay. Did, when, when you're at the ovens is your back normally to the entrance?

Young: No. Um, but my vision is blocked by um, cause the, there's the oven behind me.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: So I'm turning around to grab the food. And I put it on the cut table. And the cut table has a barrier.

Viehmman: Oh, okay.

Young: And then uh, for the other side it has boxes.

Viehmman: So it's, you don't have a clear line of sight to the, I would say the lobby in front of the oven area.

Young: Not always. It's easy to step aside and see the lobby.

Viehmman: Yeah, you gotta step to the side.

Young: Umm-hmm. Um,....

Viehmman: Okay. So, you heard the door chime. Employees contact this gal about not, not using the bathroom cause it's only for customers.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: And then when she was speaking did you, was she speaking in a normal voice or was she speaking in a whisper or was she shouting?

Young: Um,....it didn't seem like she was louder than what she might normally be but I, I don't know her.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: Um, but she was very panicked. Um, it didn't look like she had a very good dental structure; so her words were very slurred. Um, so not a hundred, I couldn't make out what she was saying fifty percent of the time.

Viehmman: Okay. Was she speaking in English?

Young: The customer ....

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: ...or the passer-by?
Viehmman: No, the lady that, that you were talking to?
Young: Um, yes, she was.
Viehmman: Okay. Was it, and, and it was loud enough and clear enough that you could hear what she was saying?
Young: Parts of it. Uh, like I said, she had said a bunch of things I didn't understand. And then the part that I did understand was "she has a knife."
Viehmman: Okay. And that came from the gal that's in the hospital now or the....
Young: No.
Viehmman: Okay.
Young: No, the one that's in the interview room.
Viehmman: All right. So, let's go back.
Young: (Unintelligible)
Viehmman: I'm gonna have to clarify some .....There's a lot here. I gotta just take apart. So when you were called to the front by the employees for a problem did you know what that problem was?
Young: No.
Viehmman: Okay.
Okay.
(cell phone) Sorry about that.
Young: I had assumed it was somebody mad they couldn't use the restroom.
Viehmman: Okay.
And then when you got out to the front, who all was in the lobby outside of the, I would assume the serving bar?
Young: So, my employees were on the make line. Um, (Unintelligible) door, barrier, barrier.....
Viehmman: Okay.
Young: Make line but the, the barriers clear, (Unintelligible) clear.
Viehmman: Can you give me the names of your employees that were there?
Young: Uh, Juvenile and Juvenile .....oh geez, she has a long last name.
Viehmman: That's okay, if you don't remember that's fine.
So it was you and two others working there.
Young: Um, those were just us and, that were up front who saw more of more of what happened. I had a driver in the back doing dishes. I believe that was Taylor Davis.
Viehmman: Is that a male or female?
Young: Male.
Viehmman: Okay. And who else?
Young: Um, Josh didn't come in until later.
Viehmman: Okay, that's fine.
Young: Um, so Taylor was doing dishes. Um, I'm trying to get some of the pre-closing stuff done. I had gone around the counter and the red headed lady um, the apparent target, was standing in the doorway of the building.
Viehmman: Okay. So, let me stop you there. I just want to make sure.
So it was you, Juvenile Juvenile and Taylor in the business.
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmman: Okay. No other employees in the business?
Young: No, um Josh had come in when you guys were there.
Viehmman: Right. So okay, very good.
So you came around the counter to talk to this panicked lady. Can you describe her for me?
Young: Um, she had red curly-ish hair. She had luggage and a cat in a cat carrier.
Viehmman: Okay. So this is the lady who was panicked?
Young: Yes, the .....she indicated she was being threatened.
Viehmman: Okay.
Young: By the homeless lady.
Viehmman: All right. The red curly hair with a cat in a cat carrier like a, like a baby stroller carrier or a carry carrier?
Young: She had a luggage ....
Viehmman: Okay.

Young: ....that had a handle and the cat carrier was kind of attached to that on top of the luggage.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Um, she was worried that she wasn't allowed to have the cat in the building .....

Viehmann: Okay.
Young: .....but she wanted to be safe at the same time. And I told her not to worry about it just bring, just get it inside.
Viehmann: All right.
So the lady who's in the hospital wasn't in the store at this point?
Young: No.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: She never entered the store.
Viehmann: Good. That's helps me understand everything a lot better. Okay.
So the first thing she said was?
Young: Um, I didn't understand the first thing she said.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Um, the first thing I understood was "she has a knife."
She pointed over to the homeless lady. She's a regular. She sleeps outside of our, our building.
Viehmann: Which one?
Young: The lady.
Viehmann: The homeless lady?
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: The one that's in the hospital.
Viehmann: Okay.
Do you know her name or what she goes by?
Young: No. Um, I don't know if she speaking another language or if she just um, is mentally impaired but nobody can understand her.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Um, there was one time she ordered and we had to go by pictures. She ordered some twists.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: That was a few weeks ago. She's never caused problems before this.
Viehmann: Where was she when this lady came in and pointed at her and said she had a knife?
Young: Um, so the front of, there's the front of our store.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: There's the door. There's awnings like this.
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: And she was inside the corner pocket of the awning.
Viehmann: Okay. So she was....
Young: By the...
Viehmann: ....she was close. She's between your business and maybe the Pacific Avenue-ish?
Young: Um, ....
Viehmann: Let me draw a picture.
Young: Okay.
Viehmann: So this is Domino's. And I know there's a little thing right here for people to park.
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: So this is Pacific Avenue.
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: This is towards Tacoma. This is towards um, .....

Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: ....Spanaway.
Young: Okay. (Unintelligible)
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: Okay. So there's an awning surrounding our store.
Viehmann: Uh-huh.
Young: Um, there's a little brick here.

Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: And here's the front door.
Viehmann: Right.
Young: And she was right here.
Viehmann: Okay. So she was right on the, what would be the northeast corner of your build, of the business.
Young: I'm not good with directions.
Viehmann: That's cool. This is north and that's east. And let's see, that would be northeast.
Right?
Young: Yes.
Viehmann: Okay.
When you saw the lady that was standing outside what did you see?
Young: Um, when she said she had a knife, she pointed and I look over and the homeless lady had what appear to be a very, new and very clean knife.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Which is unusual she never has anything new.
Viehmann: And what, how was she holding it?
Young: Um, she was holding it in her left hand.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I believe. Um, and she seemed different than normal. I'm, I don't know how to describe it. She just seemed different than that we normally see her.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: And normally she doesn't put all her stuff right there but she had today.
And she was just kind of going like this and like walking back and forth and um, side-to-side and.....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....back to forth. Um, and so I, I urged the passer-by to come into my building. She's like I have a cat. I'm like I don't care. Get inside. And um, I went and grabbed my cell phone. I had it in the back because I was doing, I was trying to the manager's stuff at the same time.
Viehmann: Right.
Young: Um, I, I call the police. Um, I dial 911 and I got back up to the front as soon as I could; and that's when I dialed 911. She, the homeless lady saw me on the phone and started screaming. I don't know what she was saying. I couldn't make it out.
Viehmann: Was she directing her screaming at you or was she just screaming?
Young: She was directing her screaming at me. She became more agitated. She started to like flailing both her arms, ....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....even the one with the knife in it.
Viehmann: So, can you describe the knife to me?
Young: Um, I would say it's, was approximately this big. The handle is about that big.
Viehmann: Okay, I see your fingers shaking. This is upsetting you isn't it?
Young: I am keeping it together until I....
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: ....I don't have to.
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: Um,.....
Viehmann: Do you need a glass of water or anything?
Young: No, I'm, I'm not gonna be able to keep anything down. I know that.
Viehmann: All right.
Young: I know myself too well.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I'm (Unintelligible)
Viehmann: So, go ahead and describe the knife?
Young: So it was a dark silver. It looked like had never been used, which like I said, that was it's, was weird. Um, .... but it looked brand new, clean. Um, it looked like the, it looked like one of those that might have, might be made of one, of one piece of metal. I, I, I'm not sure though but the handle was about that long and the blade. Um, this long, the total length...

Viehmann: Okay. Was it like a....
Young: Like a six inch.
Viehmann: ...a kitchen knife or a steak knife .....

Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: ....or survival type knife?
Young: It looked like a kitchen knife.
Viehmann: Okay. All right.
Young: Kinda like one you would cut um, chicken breasts with, just one of the longer ones that you can.....

Viehmann: Okay. And when you saw the knife for the first time you said you went and called 911.
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: I bet you probably or somebody probably locked the door.
Young: Um, at that time I hadn't. When she started screaming at me I realized I hadn't locked the door.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: So I was on the phone with the 911. I said I'm going to lock the door. And I pushed open the left side of, of the door so I can lock the right cause you have to open it to, to lock it.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: And she didn't make any advances towards me but I, I still wanted to get it closed and locked as quickly as possible.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: So I pulled the door shut again, locked the, the left door. Um, and then uh, she kept screaming. I let the 911 operator know that she, she as now screaming at us but I didn't understand what she was saying.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm. Was she screaming in another language or was she just screaming in an unintelligibly?
Young: I, I'm not sure.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: She's never been understood by anybody who's spoken to her. Um, no matter if they know a different language or not; so I'm not sure.
Viehmann: Okay. Has she ever acted like this before?
Young: No.
Viehmann: How long have you think you've seen her around the store?
Young: Since I started working there.
Viehmann: So she's been around the store since last September.
Young: She's a regular.
Viehmann: Okay.
Has she ever caused any problems like that before?
Young: No.
Viehmann: Ever any complaints?
Young: No. we've had people ask her, ask us, you know hey, do you know she's safe to talk to?
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: We're like I don't know. We've, we don't really speak to her. We don't have a lot of communication with her. And that's the most I've heard about her.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: There was one time some other homeless guy chased her off and she was gone for a couple days and then she came back.
Viehmann: Okay.
So you lock the doors and call the police. Then what happens?
Young: Um, so I was trying to make sure everybody was okay.
Um, I looked back, Juvenile was on the phone. I assumed she was calling her mother.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: I verified that later. Um, and then um, so I, I keep trying to, I'm giving descriptions to the 911 operator. Um, when I let them know that she was screaming at us she's like hey, we called somebody. We, I've already made that call. They're on their way.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.

Young: And I start seeing the lights and I tell the operator that and she's like okay, I'm gonna let you go now cause they're there.

Viehmman: Yeah.

Young: And so I get off the phone. Um, I go and or I get off, I get off the phone. I um, ....I get off the phone. The lady in the, that's now in my lobby um, she's freaking out. She's a, she's just like I don't want her here. I, I want her arrested. And she's just freaking out.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: Um, understandably so. I try to walk away to go um, call the, my supervisor, the business owner's son. Um, and got back to the front and um, I just let him know what's going on. Um, a little bit, I let him know that I'm shutting down all my orders and, and he tells me okay, I'm gonna shut off on-line ordering, you know, get a hold of me if you need anything, let me know, keep me updated, let me know what's going on, make sure everybody's safe.

Viehmman: So you're just taking care of business?

Young: Right.

Viehmman: Yeah.

Young: And um, and it's a really quick call with him real quick. Um, who cust, actually it's not a customer, the, the lady was just like still frantic and she doesn't really want to be left alone. Um, she doesn't say so but she keeps freaking out if I walk away.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: And so as I'm coming back I see police um, arriving at the scene, running towards the, the homeless lady. Um, they're urging her to get on the ground.

Viehmman: Okay. What are they saying exactly?

Young: Get on the ground.

Viehmman: Are they screaming and like get on the ground or are they saying ma'am, please get on the ground?

Young: Uh, they were screaming get on the ground.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: And she had the knife in her hand and everything at that time.

Viehmman: What was she doing while they were doing that?

Young: The same thing she kept doing. She was moving back and forth, screaming like,.....

Viehmman: Still near the corner of the building where you'd seen her in the first place?

Young: Correct.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: I see one of my drivers walk up. And so, I yell at him get in the store.
And that's Josh Green, the one who came (Unintelligible)

Viehmman: Did he come in the front door?

Young: Yes.

Viehmman: How? You locked the door. Right?

Young: I saw him coming.

Viehmman: Oh.

Young: And I wasn't gonna have him out there with that happening.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: So I opened the door real quick. I let him in and I locked it back up.

Viehmman: Okay. And what was going on outside at that point?

Young: They were still trying to get her on the ground. They kinda looked back and I, I, I assumed they were waiting for him to get inside.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: Um, to, before they did anything because.....

Viehmman: So if, if she was here, where were the officers?

Young: Um, they would have been closer to the door. They took.....

Viehmman: Did they come in walking this way or did they come in walking this way?

Young: I saw one coming sorta from this direction.

Viehmman: Okay. So this is, I'll say officer, O for officer.

Young: Okay.

Viehmman: And he came in like that?

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: And what about the other one?

Young: There was another one with way. I....
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I didn't see the rest coming up.
Viehmann: All right.
Young: Um, I just saw those two kinda coming from two dif, those two directions. Um,....
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I don't remember what they look like. I just saw the officers come. And then I saw my driver coming from this direction from the parking lot. And....
Viehmann: Okay. Were the officers back here when you let the driver in?
Young: No. They were.....
Viehmann: Close.
Young: Close like....right at the door.
Viehmann: They're probably like we're gonna protect him until he can get in there.
Young: Um, yeah, they took a step forward when he had passed them.
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: Um.....
Viehmann: Okay. So they were actually pretty close to this gal. Right?
Young: Yes.
Viehmann: Okay. And then what happened when, when Josh got inside?
Young: Um, I don't know where he was. Um, I just, I knew he was in the building and safe; so I wasn't paying attention to that.
Um, one of my drivers is about to go on a double. And I just said no, you're not going anywhere.
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: Um, and so I instructed my team. I said call every delivery. Call every carry out. Tell 'em not come. We have an emergency and we're cancelling all the orders.
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: And so, my entire team is on the phone as soon as, as soon as Josh got back in.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: Everybody call people while I deal with this. And keeping my team busy helped with their anxiety and.....
Viehmann: Sure. So....
Young: And we start ....
Viehmann: Yeah, go ahead.
Young: We, and I look back and I see the one that was closer to the building, the one coming from the .....

Viehmann: The closest side.
Young: ...closest side, yes. With a gun
Viehmann: Umm-hmm. Was it , describe the gun? Was it a little gun or was it a big gun?
Young: Um, ....
Viehmann: Okay. So it's like a side arm.
Young: Like a standard. Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Um, just black and he was just like get down, get down, get on the ground. And kinda of using his gun to like.....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....um, motion her to get on the ground. Um, I'm assuming they understood she didn't understand, might not have understood English.
Viehmann: (Unintelligible)
Young: Um, ....
Viehmann: What did she do?
Young: Um, after that it happened pretty quickly. Um,....there's a very small blind spot in the corner of my store.
Viehmann: Right.
Young: Um, at the pillar....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....that's at the corner, the corner of the store.

Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: Um, I wasn't trying to look around it the entire time um, cause I was running back and forth calling,
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: Uh, my supervisors, making sure my team is okay, making sure the customers are contacted so they don't come to the store.
Viehmann: Right.
Young: Um, when I heard the shots, I was out in the front of the store um, trying to calm down the lady. And I hear the shots and she gets really loud; so I look towards her. And I'm just like it's okay, we're fine.
Viehmann: So when you say she gets really loud. The lady inside with you got really loud or the lady outside with the knife?
Young: When she heard the gun shots the lady inside the lobby...
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: ....got a little upset and, and a little wacko.
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: I'm like oh, my God, my God, my God, you know, ....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....freaking out and just like the doors are locked; you're fine.
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: It's okay. Um, I'm trying to make sure she's okay. I look towards my team and my teams obviously, obviously shaken. Um, ....and so I am still instructing them just to look, just keep going, just keep going. And I'm trying to make sure they're preoccupied.
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: Um, ....
Viehmann: So what was going on outside? Did you, did you see after that?
Young: At that point, most of my attention was on my team. Um, I did see, after a couple shots were fired, she backed up a little bit ....
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....but then she kind of, the, the, at that point the knife was in her other hand.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: And she kind of was like flailing it around more intentionally.
Viehmann: Really like pointing it and, and moving it?
Young: Umm-hmm. And uh, and she was obviously hurt to some extent uh,...
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: ....to where she was kind of like that. And the shots had already been fired; ....
Viehmann: Yeah.
Young: ...so I'm assuming she was shot. Um, and then one officer when she turns to walk away was able to grab the knife hand and then get her on the ground.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: And that's when the knife dropped to the ground.
And um, I, I, I see that my, inside Juvenile on the phone and her mom's freaking out. And I, I start getting on the phone with moms and, and customers and ....
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: ...with supervisors and um, I just keep going back to the front to see if they're, to let the officers in if they need to come in.
Viehmann: Sure.
Young: But I didn't know....
Viehmann: What were they doing when you went out to the front?
Young: Um, after they, they had gotten her on the ground they had handcuffed her, these little things.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: Uh, on, on her feet. Um, and then I go to deal with more stuff. I come back. There's a gurney coming. Um, ....and I go deal with more business and she's gone.
Viehmann: Okay.

Young: When I come back up um, I, I don't remember which part it was. I believe it was after they took her away a police officer came to the door. I let him in. He, he just stood at the doorway, asked a couple questions, pretty much letting us know we're not leaving.

Um, and then uh, I left the door unlocked cause the police were already there. They have been taking care of the situation.

Viehmman: Sure.

Young: I start walking away. And um, the panicked um, lady that I was in the lobby asked me to lock it again. And so, so I obliged. Um, and then, just kept going back and forth seeing if they needed to come in yet.

Viehmman: Umm-hmm.

Young: I'm calling my supervisors and answering customer calls and making sure my teams keep, my teams going, talking to Juvenile mom, making sure Juvenile called his mom.

Viehmman: Sure.

Young: Um, just kept taking care of business and ....

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: ....when they were ready to speak with us I let them in.

Viehmman: All right. And did you speak with them on scene about what had happened?

Young: Yes.

Viehmman: Okay. And they got, probably got your name on scene. Right?

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: And all the information you got (Unintelligible)

Viehmman: So, let me go over what we talked about.

But before I do that I want to tell you, say for the record that this is a witness interview for Case Number 19-183-02031.

It is 12:09 am on July 3rd. And I want to go over this interview again what you, what you told me.

Young: Okay.

Okay. Viehmman: And if I get anything wrong then you can correct me and we can get it straight.

Young: Is there a way I can get the case number for my employer?

Viehmman: Of course.

Young: I'm not gonna remember it off the top of my head.

Viehmman: So, you are Ashley Ann Young.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: 11/18 of '89.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: All right.

You were in the store. You're the acting manager right now.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: And you were working today with Juvenile Juvenile and Taylor.

Young: Those were the ones that were.....

Viehmman: That were in the store. And then later on Josh came. Right?

Young: Correct.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: I had another employee on the clock name Jerry Poole but he didn't arrive to the scene until after it was barricaded.

Viehmman: Okay. So the people who were in the store is what, what I'm really, I'm concerned with.

Young: Okay.

Viehmman: So we have all, all them came for interviews here. Right?

Young: So um, Juvenile and Juvenile did because they witnessed ....

Viehmman: Uh-huh.

Young: ....most of what was going on. Taylor has an eleven month old at home; so they let him go home and he could come in tomorrow.

Viehmman: Okay.

Young: Same with um, my driver Josh Green .

Viehmann: Okay. Josh .....

Young: The one who came in after.

Viehmann: Right.

Young: While the police were there.

Viehmann: So, about what time did this gal with red curly hair come in?

Young: Around 9:00, 9:00 pm.

Viehmann: About 9:00 pm. Okay.

And she came in and you heard her interact with an employee or two in front and they said no, you can't use the bathrooms, said that you gotta be, only customers can use your bathrooms, right, basically. And it became a thing and you went out. Your employees called you out to deal with it and you went out. And she was kind of in a panic. She was speaking fast. And she said, "she has a knife" and she pointed to this lady outside.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmann: Okay. And the lady outside is somebody that you um, call a regular because she kinda sleeps right there.

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmann: And she's there a lot.

Do you have a name or a pet name that you call her?

Young: Uh, no, we just call her the homeless lady.

Viehmann: Okay.

Is she basically the only one that sleeps right there?

Young: The only female ....

Viehmann: Yeah.

Young: ....that sleeps there. There's um, every once in a while there's a couple guys that'll sleep um, at the business uh, at the other corner.

Viehmann: Yeah.

Young: ...of the thing. And then there's a guy, he has a camp, but he'll, he'll come to our store to charge his phone. Um, he's also homeless.

Viehmann: Okay.

Young: We let him charge his phone there cause he never causes an issue and...

Viehmann: Sure.

Young: ...um, he's trying to get on his feet.

Viehmann: Okay.

Young: And we know him by (Unintelligible)

Viehmann: So, let's get back to this lady.

Young: Okay.

Viehmann: She's been sleeping outside and hanging around your store since you started in September. Have you ever had any interaction with her, talked to her at all?

Young: The only time I spoke with her she came in um, an employee was just like I don't know how to handle this lady.

Viehmann: Okay.

Young: I can't understand her. Can you take her order?

Viehmann: And when was that?

Young: Um, ...probably three or four weeks ago.

Viehmann: Okay. So three to four weeks ago, she came in and, and placed an order and your employee couldn't understand her.

Young: Right. Um, so she just kind of pointed. There's a banner in front of the registers.

Viehmann: Umm-hmm.

Young: And it has the twists on it.

Viehmann: Umm-hmm.

Young: And she pointed to them; and so I made the order for her and got her payment.

Viehmann: Okay.

Young: Um, and then she left. No incident. She had sat in our lobby quietly.

Viehmann: Yeah.

Young: Until her food was ready and then went back to the, to the bench that she was (Unintelligible)

Viehmann: Okay. Did you get the impression that she spoke another language?

Young: I....
Viehmann: Or did you know?
Young: I, I believe it could, she could but .....

Viehmann: She definitely wasn't speaking English though. Right?
Young: Correct. Um, I, I just remembered I did have another interaction with her.
Um, I wouldn't, if I, if I knew this,.... my children saw her.

Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: When I had visitation with them at the store.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.

Young: And they were just like she's homeless. Can I give her a piece of pizza.? And so I let them give her a piece of pizza and a bottle of water.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.

Young: And they kind of stood behind the, the uh, wheelchair ramp and kind of handed it over to her. And she kinda danced with it on her head.
Viehmann: Okay. Is she generally happy like that?
Young: She's generally just kind of there.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: So I don't know if the mental thing if it's drugs. I just don't know.
Viehmann: All right. Can you....
Young: She just kind of danced with it on her head.
Viehmann: Okay.
Did you get the impression that she could hear you? Was she deaf or?
Young: She seemed to understand what we were saying for the most part.
Viehmann: Okay. All right.
Young: She just didn't seem to be capable of communicating.
Viehmann: All right. Okay.
So tonight, this lady with the cat comes in and she says "she has a knife." And you look out and you saw this lady in the corner outside near the northeast corner of your store. And you described her as having a knife in her left hand and she was moving around. Her body was moving back and forth and side-to-side.
And what was she doing with the knife at that point?
Young: Um, .....

Viehmann: Is she just holding it or was she waving it?
Young: It, she was um, it wasn't like to her side like relaxed.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: It was more like outward.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: But it didn't seem like she was going like this or anything.
She was just kinda holding it outward to her side. And she seemed a little aggravated but I don't know, it was just weird.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: Um, .....

Viehmann: And then....
Young: I don't think she's fully there.
Viehmann: Okay.
And then, but she wasn't concealing the knife?
Young: No.
Viehmann: Okay.
Um, so you saw that. You locked the doors, called the police or called the police then locked the doors um, and started handling managerial business inside.
At some point, um, you see the officers, the lights and the officers arrive.
And they approach her. And they are telling her what?
Young: Um, I didn't hear everything that they had first said. Um, what I had heard was when just get on the ground.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: Um, I don't know if they said anything else.
Viehmann: Okay.

Young: All I heard was get on the ground.
Viehmann: Was that a pretty clear order? Did you hear it inside the store?
Young: Yes.
Viehmann: Okay. Was it pretty loud?
Young: Yes.
Viehmann: Did she seem to understand that?
Young: Um, ...from my impression I just don't think she cared.
Viehmann: Okay. Did she get on the ground?
Young: No.
Viehmann: Do you think she heard the officers?
Young: Yes, she was, she as facing them at that point.
Viehmann: Okay, so she turned towards them.
Young: And she had (Unintelligible) Yes.
Viehmann: Did she still have the knife in her hand when the officers were approaching her?
Young: Yes, she would not drop it.
Viehmann: Umm-hmm.
Young: Until after the shots had been fired, after she had finally turned to walk away. She was trying to get away from the police officers.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: And um, that's when they grabbed her. They didn't fire any shots after she turned away. They um, grabbed her right hand as I had stepped, (Unintelligible) at that point, I don't know how it got in her right hand but it did.
Um, and she was turned, with me inside the store she was turned this way with her, facing this way, the store.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: And so the officer kinda came up and grabbed the, the handle of the knife and, and pulled her to the ground. Um, well, that's when she dropped it.
Viehmann: Okay. Wow, that's a lot to see at work isn't it?
And then officers contacted you afterwards.
Did you see the officers render any medical aid, put any pressure on her wounds or anything like that?
Young: Um, I saw them try to look for wounds.
Viehmann: Uh-huh.
Young: Um, I, I saw the, when I saw the gurney arrive or then I saw the gurney arrive but I didn't, I didn't really stick around to watch that.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I didn't, if she was bleeding I didn't really want to see all that, so.
Viehmann: Right. Okay.
Young: Um, but I did see them searching for wounds; so that I, I don't, I have no doubt that they wanted to make sure she was still okay.
Viehmann: Okay.
All right. Am I missing anything?
Young: Um, I don't think so.
Viehmann: Okay.
Is there any, anything you want to tell me that you might think is important?
Young: Um, ..... I don't, I don't think so.
Viehmann: Okay.
Young: I don't know the lady's name that was in the lobby. I don't know the homeless lady's name.
Viehmann: She's downstairs though. Right?
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: Was she in the same room you were in when I came and got you?
Young: Yes.
Viehmann: Okay.
I'm gonna finish this picture and then I'll have you sign it if it's accurate too.
So, the liquor store would be right here.
Young: Umm-hmm.
Viehmann: And this is Pacific Avenue.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Young: Umm-hmm.

Viehmman: This is north toward downtown. That's east towards your house.
And this, 38th is right up here.
Is that pretty accurate?

Young: Yes.

Viehmman: Okay. Would you sign your name and date it right there?

Young: Okay.

Viehmman: It's the third of July.

Perfect.

That's it.

Young: Okay. Um, do you know when uh, the business is gonna be released so we can resume our business?

Viehmman: It, it may already be released. I'm not sure.

Young: Okay.

Viehmman: It won't be long, I don't think.

Young: Okay.

Viehmman: We're gonna investigate. We take, Forensics goes out and takes photographs.
I'll put that case number on the back for you.

Young: Thank you.

So I do the (Unintelligible)

Viehmman: Okay, no problem.

Young: Um, Juvenile her, she has to call her mom to come pick her up; and I want to make sure I'm with her when she gets back to the store.

Juvenile Juvenile has his own way home.

Viehmman: Okay. Excellent.

Hang on. I'm gonna go shut this recording off so it won't be (Unintelligible)

I'll be right back.

End of recording.

Synopsis:

Narrative:

(Unintelligible)
?: Room one.
?: (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: All right. Go ahead and have a seat (Unintelligible)
Granland: Have a seat over there.
Yglesias: We're just gonna get, we're just gonna ask you a few questions.
(Unintelligible) I know and all that good stuff.
Let's start with your, your name.

Hawley:Rochelle. R-o-
Yglesias: Rochelle.
Hawley:Yeah. R-o-c-h-e-l-l-e.
Yglesias: One l or two?
Hawley:Two l's.
Yglesias: Oh, okay.
Hawley:Lynn, L-y-n-n.
Yglesias: L-y-n-n.
Hawley:H, and the last name's H-a-w-l-e-y.
Granland: H-a-w-.....
Yglesias: Rochele Lynn Hawley.
Hawley:Yes.
Yglesias: What's your birthday?
Hawley:10/27/86.
Yglesias: Okay.
And where do you live?
Hawley:I'm homeless. (Unintelligible)
Yglesias: Where do you stay at normally?
Hawley:Um, at 38th.
Yglesias: 38th.
Hawley:Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay. And about where?
Hawley:Um, like McKinley kinda.
Yglesias: 38th and McKinley.
Hawley:Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley:My mom lives on McKinley so.
Yglesias: How long have you been homeless?
Hawley:Um, I have only been with well, I've kinda not, but not she lives on (Unintelligible) and McKinley. And then I would be with Caleb just um, he would play (Unintelligible) yesterday and today was the only day that I've really been outside.

Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley:Um, but I've been trying, I tried a hotel room....
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley:....but it's too expensive. I have money and it's not, it's just expensive.
Yglesias: Right.
Hawley:I'm trying not to blew out my dad's away, my dad's Social Security money.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Hawley:And I blew it all.
Yglesias: Right. Okay.
So you're just kind of ....
Hawley:I (Unintelligible) right now.
Yglesias: Yeah, so when you got a hotel room you didn't sleep outside right around in the area where your mom lives.
Hawley:Yeah.
Yglesias: Do you know the address of where your mom lives?
Hawley:3846 McKinley.
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley:No I ....
Yglesias: Do you get mail there?
Hawley:Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay. What about a phone number? Do you have a phone number?
Hawley:Um, like 206- I don't remember (Unintelligible) 841- I don't know it all yet.
I've only lived here like a little over a month now, so.
Yglesias: You've lived her a month?
Hawley:Oh yeah, the, well, the whole month I lived in Tacoma and then I was over in like um, Spanaway and like the Des Moines area and where the motel, motel rooms.
Yglesias: Oh, okay.
Hawley:But I came back over here. This is what I know. Tacoma's what's I know and wanted to back to basically, you know.
Yglesias: Right.
Hawley:You know what I mean, I'm always in the best (Unintelligible) right now.
It's 206-841-0662.
Yglesias: 0662?
Hawley:Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.
Okay Rochelle, why don't you tell me what happened tonight?
Hawley:Um, well okay, so I woke up this morning, I met my friend Dan.
Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Hawley:My, my friend that I was staying with.
Yglesias: And where were you at when you met your friend?
Hawley:At, at, at Domino's.
Yglesias: Oh, at Domino's. Okay.
Hawley:I was at Domino's (Unintelligible) time out and not long before he got there.
But and she was there in the same spot in the corner where her stuff's at, was at.
Yglesias: Uh-huh.
Hawley:And she just didn't seem, she seemed to me she's acting normal, like a normal person, like he.....
Yglesias: Do you know her name?
Hawley:I don't know her.
Yglesias: You didn't know her.
Hawley:But she.....
Yglesias: Have you seen her before?
Hawley:This morning the first time I seen here.
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley:I usually don't hang out there like that. I just meeting my friend cause he wanted me um, I was waiting (Unintelligible) this guy that just, is here (Unintelligible)
He had like got in my face and stuff; so he was worried about how he beat me.

So didn't want me on the main drag.
But I guess he was worried about him seeing me and how he acted.
But he seen me and my friend, Terry, she (Unintelligible) helped me out.
And it was just Joe's friend. Well, then so he, (Unintelligible) McDonald's there's a place me, (Unintelligible) Street.

Yglesias: Do you remember what time that was?
Hawley: Like um, sometime after....they weren't open yet. It was, there was, the people came and mowed the lawn and by then, it was early, probably like 7:00-ish probably.

Yglesias: Okay. In the morning?
Hawley: Yeah. They weren't open. No business weren't open yet right there.
Yglesias: Okay. Before the businesses opened?
Hawley: Yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley: And she was there and she, could tell she'd been there for a minute cause she had all her stuff stacked up.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Hawley: And then um, but she was normal then and didn't say nothing to me. And we left, went about our day. And then um, I had seen my friend, and he was supposed to meet me in the front of the store over there, he was supposed to meet me there. He said he had to go check on his camp and make sure it was okay. And he took and he (Unintelligible) and I said well, I'm gonna go to Walgreen's and just put my charger. And he said well meet me down there and I said okay. And I went over there and I like walked up this (Unintelligible) around the corner. Right, she'd be on the other side. I got up and like to like right there in the door pretty much like close, closest to her like right to the end of the Domino's door. And uh, she, I couldn't understand what she was saying. I don't know if is she's speaking Spanish or she's just not understand, I don't know, but she didn't say anything to me. And then she pulled a knife out of something. I don't know what it was, a brown bag or bag or something. I don't know, pulled it out of it. And it looked like she had a butcher knife or some kind of kitchen knife, a good sized knife.

And I was like (Unintelligible)
So I said call 911. I had my, my phone I didn't have it on at the time.
And I'm call 911 (Unintelligible) police. She has a knife on me.
I feel like at first (Unintelligible) they probably got a (Unintelligible)
Like no, get inside. And call 911. And then they went and got somebody. I'm assuming the manger. I'm guessing she is.
And then she said, I said she pulled a knife on me. And so she looked out and seen cause she had a knife at the time down at the side. And we could see it plainly.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Hawley: And I said 911 please. (Unintelligible) on me.
So when I walked up to her, I walked up it was like to the door. She (Unintelligible) she told (Unintelligible) open the door.
I was just gonna go inside but then I didn't want like I had my stuff and my cat.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
Hawley: I didn't know how maybe a restaurant cause, you know, preparation. I didn't want, you know, how everything works. I didn't, opened the door and let me know.
And the manager, just the manager of it came out, and she seen it and then said keep the door to her place, (Unintelligible) oh, she said come inside, lock the doors, lock the, you know, locked it up.

Yglesias: They made you go inside?
Hawley: Yeah, she said come inside, yeah.
Yglesias: Okay.
Hawley: I said thank you, thank you, yes.
And she locked the doors. Locked it and made sure (Unintelligible)
She called her drivers and they're out. I guess there were employees in the parking lot at that time. I guess (Unintelligible) Told him to stay put and whatnot.
And um, she, she was on the 911 talking to the cops until I could see the cop lights (Unintelligible) you know, (Unintelligible)
And then she hung up the phone. They were here.
And then like (Unintelligible)

But and like I was like panicking, shaking cause I have anxiety issues and already, you know, like I'm always I've had 'em awhile.

But and then um, she said the guy was to cancel all orders for like the next hour. They should lock down. They were locked down or whatever.

And then, and then she's like when the cops show up (Unintelligible) towards her.

And then I seen him back and then he got guns out pointing out at him, at her.

And then I seen him back up a little bit and I seen one of those patrol wands, like baton things. All I seen was, was I seen cause I wasn't like (Unintelligible) like that wand thing, you know, (Unintelligible) right there.

And then I heard gunshots, and like I kinda screamed cause I've never been around anything like this, you know. And so like and, and so like my anxiety and I was shaking and stuff like, I don't know but (Unintelligible) I was scared.

But and then um, I don't know what she's saying. Besides I don't know her. Is, is drunk or if she's on something, you know, I mean I don't know like but she's something, you know, that's all I know. I'm guessing maybe alcohol. I don't even know what it was but I know she's not herself, you know, like a normal person would be, you know.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: But and uh, I called my friend. I sat there and wrote my statement.

So I calmed my cat down cause my cat goes off my anxiety like my (Unintelligible) she like acts up. So I was trying to calm her down and I calmed down like panicking and shaking.

And my friend that that was supposed to show up and meet me he saw all the cops surrounding taped off and didn't even know that I was there and then, you know. I (Unintelligible) you know, the ground messing with her, him.

And then I seen like, seen her on the ground. And then I seen them roll her on her back.

I seen blood or something. Is she alive or dead? I was up, I was like I want to see if she's dead, like truthfully, you know, if this (Unintelligible) you know,

I was rude kinda but at that point I'm going hopefully dead, you know, I mean like, I know it's not nice to say but like my life.

(Unintelligible)

What if I see her again like what if like how's that work, was she trying to, cause (Unintelligible) I don't know. That's what I worry about.

Yglesias: (Unintelligible)

Let me back up just a little bit Rochelle. You said that you saw her at 7:00 am this morning before the businesses opened.

Hawley: Yeah.

Yglesias: And you were supposed to meet your friend at that time.

Hawley: Yeah.

Yglesias: And did he come at that time?

Hawley: Yeah, he showed up. Yeah.

Yglesias: He did. Okay.

And then did you guys go somewhere after that?

Hawley: We left, yeah.

Yglesias: You left. Okay.

And where did you go?

Hawley: I went across the street to Walgreen's and then I got the bus, he sat there waiting for me when I got on the bus. And I went over to Des Moines to visit my ex.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: But he didn't help me (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: And so then you came back to the Domino's.

Hawley: Oh yeah, oh, yeah then, I met him actually.

I met him on the bus. And then um,.....

Yglesias: What time was it when you came back to the Domino's?

Hawley: Um, uh, I don't even know what time it was. Right when this happened.

I don't know what time it was then. (Unintelligible) I don't know.

Yglesias: Okay. But you left for a while.

Hawley: Yeah. I was (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: And when you came back she was still there.

Hawley: Yeah. And she was still there I'm guessing cause her stuff was still there. It was stacked up.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: (Unintelligible) that didn't appear to be moved.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: But um, and my friend he went to go check on his camp. And because he was gonna be moving it.

Yglesias: So he left and you stayed at the Domino's.

Hawley: Yeah, he (Unintelligible) meeting him at Domino's. I told him I wanted to go over to Walgreen's with that and go get a charge for my phone cause my phone charger was dead and my phone's almost dead. And so I went and bought, uh, you buy one and you get the second one, cause you get two for twenty bucks ain't bad but (Unintelligible) and then we were supposed to meet at Domino's.

So, I took 'em but not that long. And I don't know if I missed him or if he hadn't showed up yet. I don't know.

But and so that's when I went to Domino's.

And she was by the corner until she, I mean came at me with the knife. And then.....

Yglesias: And then you said she was saying things but you couldn't understand what she was saying?

Hawley: Yeah, and I don't know if she speaks Spanish or what but she was, well, I think she's drunk or on something.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: Is what it appeared (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: But you said when you saw her there this morning she didn't say anything to you?

Hawley: Uh-huh, not right now, because she normal then.

Yglesias: And when you saw her the second time at Domino's were you, you were just in front on the sidewalk?

Hawley: I was walking up, walking up towards the doors. I was going ....around the corner, She (Unintelligible) on that side maybe.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: (Unintelligible) You know, and I got to like the doors and then she's like .....

Yglesias: Was she in that corner there like by where her stuff was?

Hawley: Yes, like right there. Right on the side, yeah.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: She's right (Unintelligible)

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: Like she hadn't moved. It didn't seem like she moved.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: Changed spots, but yeah.

Yglesias: And then you said that she pulled a knife out.

Hawley: Yeah.

Yglesias: How was she holding it?

Hawley: Like this up, like she was gonna (Unintelligible)

She came towards me and that's when I opened the door. And she backed, she backed up though. And I went inside cause I told her to call 911. I (Unintelligible) to be listening. I don't know but it appeared to me she didn't, either was on something or speaking another language. I don't know.

If she, at that point, I was too upset to even like, I just the kinds of sounds she was saying, you know like....

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: I was so like shocking up, you know, like I said I've never through nothing like this, so. (Unintelligible) scary.

Granland: Can you describe the knife for me?

Hawley: It, it looked like a butcher knife, I'm not sure, like a kitchen knife, butcher knife.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: I'm not sure.

Granland: Was, can you described the blade to me?

Hawley: (Unintelligible)

Granland: Like the size of the blade?

Hawley: It wasn't a butcher knife but like I was (Unintelligible) fast, so distraught.
I think it was a good-sized knife (Unintelligible) that. It looked like....

Yglesias: How long do you think it was?

Hawley: A good-sized kitchen knife like kitchen, kitchen, like cooking, like (Unintelligible)

Granland: Well, look at this, this Coke bottle right here, okay, compared ....

Hawley: The blade or this the handle like....

Yglesias: Yeah, the blade of the, of the knife. How long was it compared to that?

Hawley: I would say, I'd say it was like a butcher knife like, the shape of a butcher knife.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: (Unintelligible) It was good sized like it happened so fast, like and so when she (Unintelligible) away, but it was good size, like it was to me it looked like a butcher knife.

Granland: Okay. And a butcher knife I feel like is a pretty thick.....

Hawley: Yeah.

Granland: ....almost it looks like this.

Hawley: Yeah, I don't know and like I said I wasn't, I just know it looked a kitchen knife (Unintelligible) and black handle and black handle.

Granland: Okay, black handle.

Hawley: A kitchen knife. (Unintelligible) closer to the knife cause I was pretty panicking.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: I try not to panic (Unintelligible)

G; Was, was the knife wider than this from here to here?

Hawley: Not I should know it (Unintelligible) I don't think it was. It looked like a kitchen knife. (Unintelligible) but it happened so fast like.....

Yglesias: Okay.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: I seen it on the ground.

Yglesias: Was she yelling or .....

Hawley: Like being not yelling but not yelling-yelling but....

Yglesias: Did she seem like agitated or angry or?

Hawley: I think she was drunk or something, yes.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: I'm not sure or on something.

Granland: Um, how close was she to you when you saw the knife?

Hawley: I was like at the end of the door and she was walking, she was trying to, walking toward me. And then I opened the door like she was really, from me to you maybe.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: Like I said she was really close. That's why I really panicked.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: Cause like I could have been, I don't know what I would do like.....

Granland: Uh-huh.

And you said she was holding the knife and like the blade was pointing up to the sky?

Hawley: No, at, like at me, like (Unintelligible)

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: To me.

Yglesias: Like if was the blade, like was she holding it overhand? The blade was sticking up or was it like this?

Hawley: And it didn't....No, and she went, so first she did like this and then she's pointing at me but then she was holding it up like.....

Yglesias: So she's holding it up. Is the blade facing down or is it up?

Hawley: No, toward me.

Yglesias: Toward you?

Granland: Was she pointing the knife at you?

Hawley: Yeah. And then she came at me.

And then she had one of them, then she had it by her side when the um, manager lady, whatever came out and said (Unintelligible) the police, she had it down by her side. And just was holding it down towards the ground at that time.

Granland: She was hiding it from the manager?

Hawley:Not hiding. She wasn't hiding it but just had it down at her side.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley:Like it, manager obviously, I mean she seen it cause she said Joe. I don't know what she said. She said like somebody, you know, call and whatever, you know, she got off the phone and called the cops.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley:And she locked, she locked had me come in and lock the doors and locked it down, yeah.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley:And I know he's the one that cancelled all the orders and everybody had placed whatever, you know.

Granland: When you were in the Domino's and the manager had locked the doors you said she was calling her drivers to cancel orders or whatever.

Hawley:Yeah.

Granland: And then you, how far in the business were you?

Were you right by the doors or were you something?

Hawley:Yeah, kinda Yeah, she had, she had me sitting at a table by the door, by the like the door but over here that.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Granland: So if that's the door to the Domino's....

Hawley:I was over like almost by (Unintelligible) looking at their menu.

Granland: Okay. So you were like right along the glass wall?

Hawley:Yeah, where that first table right there in Domino's.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:I don't know why she had me that close, I mean but it was inside.

Granland: This fast paced thing kinda got (Unintelligible)

Hawley:Yeah, I think, I think so. It happened so fast, I'm like just trying to (Unintelligible)

Granland: Yeah, at least you were inside.

Hawley:Yeah. Well, you, well, you know what, I wasn't gonna go inside but I, I had to ask because I had my stuff and my animal.

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:And be like, you know, a food place. You know how it is about animals.

Granland: Right.

Hawley:But I was like just walk in, you know, (Unintelligible)

Like you know what I'm saying, but I didn't want to like get in trouble, you know what I mean, but that's the situation. It's like I didn't really know what to do.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Granland: Did you see the lady do anything to the cops once they showed up?

Hawley:I heard the cops were like (Unintelligible) how she's in the corner. And all I could see is the cop's back and then I see him back up. But like the cops were uh, going like the back was toward me.

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:So and she was on the other side so, and then I seen um, I seen 'em when I was (Unintelligible) had a gun pointed at her.

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:And then I didn't see him after. It happened so fast like I said.

Baton, baton out and then I seen him walk towards her and then I heard gunshots.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:And I see him messing with her like, (Unintelligible) on the other side right there on the ground, like (Unintelligible) or not, I (Unintelligible) when I seen blood, like when they started pulling back her clothes.

Granland: So when you were at the table you couldn't see what she was doing when the cops showed up?

Hawley:No, cause the cops were like....

Granland: They're...,

Hawley:....blocking their way, like.....

Granland: Okay.

Yglesias: Could you hear anything or hear anyone say anything?

Hawley:I couldn't hear nothing. I heard the cops say (Unintelligible)
So she was shot, I mean get down. I said everyone, everyone get down and that part but that's mostly what I remember hearing, yeah.
And it happened so fast I'm like.....

Yglesias: Hmm.

Hawley:And I called my friend and once he said that I was gonna go to the police station. I was like uh, (Unintelligible) Social Security of all places. I hadn't known him that long and I had to go get my stuff cause I mean he has no wheels and stuff.
And I didn't want to leave her and (Unintelligible) take a report but maybe , you know, but he was (Unintelligible) took me back and he was (Unintelligible) so.

Granland: So besides you said heard the cops saying telling her to get down.
Did you hear them say anything else to her?

Hawley:Not, I can't remember, no. (Unintelligible) no.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:I was on the phone too talking to somebody, my friend so.

Yglesias: At the time the cops showed up you were on the phone?

Hawley:Well, yeah, I, I was calling 911. I needed to get stuff and whatnot.
And then what happened. And I was freaking out cause I was panicking (Unintelligible)

Granland: Umm-hmm.
Were you recording anything with your phone?

Hawley:No.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:I wanted to take a picture with the knife and then didn't want to freak out more.
(Unintelligible)
I thought it about it, I mean ....

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:....but I don't know how she would have reacted to that, you know.

Granland: Right. So no pictures either?

Hawley:No.

Granland: Yeah.

Hawley:My phone wasn't on at the time actually, like I was gonna call, I would have called, you know, I forgot my cell, my phone's on. My phone died and that's why I got the charger. I hadn't plugged 'em in yet. My charger that I got.

Granland: I, I just want to go back one more time just so I'm fully clear about the beginning.
When you first saw her at the Domino's you said none of the businesses were open. It was like 7:00 in the morning.

Hawley:It was really, yeah, early.

Granland: Okay.
You went to Walgreen's in the morning .....

Hawley:Yeah.

Granland: .....to get the charger?

Hawley:No. Uh, this evening. I told ya.
I got there twice. I went in the morning and got two chargers cause it's buy one get one fifty percent off.

Hawley:And then no, like (Unintelligible) and then I went and got two more cause they're a good deal two for twenty bucks; so I went and got two more. So then I charged like, my charger (Unintelligible) .....

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:I went back and got two more. That's when I (Unintelligible)
You want me to go do that?

Granland: All right. Well, I'm gonna, I'm gonna stop you for a second. Okay.

Hawley:Okay.

Granland: So if you're there at the Domino's area at 7:00 in the morning and you saw her with her stuff there. Correct?

Hawley:Yes.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:I don't think she knew me.

Granland: But then you left for the day with your friend.
Hawley: No, not with a friend. No, I was with him for a minute and then I left him.
Granland: Whatever.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: You weren't in that area ....
Hawley: No.
Granland: .....until later.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: When you went back to the Walgreen's to get two more chargers.
Hawley: Yes.
Granland: Okay.
And that was probably around what time do you think?
I mean lunch time?
Hawley: No.
Granland: Dinner time?
Hawley: Evening, early evening. Early evening, yeah.
Granland: Evening, okay. Okay.
And then once you came back from the Walgreen's what did you do?
Hawley: That's when I went to go see I thought if he would have been.
You know, I had the time already.
Granland: You're .....
Hawley: (Unintelligible) going to get, going to check on him because he went.....
He has been having issues with people, camps and stuff.
Granland: Okay. And that's when you saw her.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: And that's when....
Hawley: That happened.
Granland: Everything happened after that.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: Okay.
Hawley: And we're not hearing (Unintelligible) him seeing all the cops that's still there. And we (Unintelligible) Okay, you know what I mean cause he was going to meet me and like, and like (Unintelligible) with there with a friend.
I think that's why he trying to keep me away from the main drags from this guy that....
Granland: Umm-hmm.
Hawley: .... like got in my face, you know what I mean.
Granland: Umm-hmm.
Hawley: .... I'm pretty sure that's why he worry about me.
And then he, the cops had it blocked off and stuff, I don't know.
(Unintelligible) I don't know if he showed up or not.
Granland: Right.
When the cops showed up the first time, when you said, remember you said you heard the lights and you're already inside the Domino's.
Where was the lady at when the cops first showed up?
Hawley: In her corner, like in (Unintelligible)
G; She was in her corner.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: So she hadn't moved at all since you went inside the Domino's.
Hawley: No.
Granland: She went back to her corner.
Hawley: Yeah.
Granland: Okay.
Hawley: She wasn't by, by the (Unintelligible) steps, going in back and stayed right there.
Granland: Did.....
Hawley: I think she was drunk, something like that, but yeah.
Granland: When you went into the Domino's and before the cops showed up did you still her holding the knife at all or do you know, I remember you said it kinda kept down to her leg.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Hawley: Yeah, and after that I really didn't see where the knife was cause I was, at that point, I was inside locked in, so I didn't really like....

Granland: Okay.

Hawley:....you know what I mean. Because I was concerned before and watching, like watching like you know, where's she's at, you know.

Granland: Okay.

But you didn't see if she put it down or put it away?

Hawley: No, I seen it on the ground after that though like when I was, and the cops already showed up and she was, you know what I mean, down on the ground. I was, seen the knife was on the ground by the door.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: Like and the bag, the bag. It was a, it was a either bag or something, you know what I'm saying, I couldn't really see what's going on if I see (Unintelligible) or something other than besides that.

And it's black (Unintelligible) was on the ground inside that. I don't know what it was, I'm not sure it was. It was on the ground. It was still there when I left. And he kinda kept 'em there, you know.

Granland: Okay.

To your best ability, how many shots do you think you heard?

Hawley: A few, several, I don't know, like you know if I panicked I....

Granland: I know. But you're, just I mean take a ....

Hawley: More than one.

Granland: ....Take a breath. Think about it.

Hawley: Four maybe at least, at least.

Granland: Okay. Okay. I said you're best.

Hawley: Yeah.

Granland: I don't, I'm not gonna, just your best guess.

Hawley: Oh yeah, I'm not sure but yeah, I know several, four at least.

Granland: Okay.

Were they pretty....

Hawley: Close.

Granland: They were close within each other.

Hawley: I thought they were gonna hit....yeah, yeah they were.

Granland: Like bam-bam, bam-bam. Okay.

Hawley: Yeah. I thought they were gonna hit the glass and break the glass cause I know one, one of the shells, whatever you call that thing,....

Granland: Umm-hmm.

Hawley:....was like almost like right by the end of the door like lying on the ground when I went to go leave. I seen the silver, you know, (Unintelligible)

I don't know, so it looked like it would be like, you know, what comes out of it or whatnot.

Yglesias: Hmm.

Hawley: But like, like right by the door; so I mean it probably had to rica shay. It probably had to hit, had to hit the door or the frame of the door at least.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: Having been that close.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: But it sounded like really, really close inside like uh, I can't see (Unintelligible)

I didn't mean to but I panicked.

Granland: Where were all the other people in Domino's when this was going down?

I know where you were.

Hawley: (Unintelligible)

Granland: Do you remember where anyone else was?

Hawley: The manager lady, whatever she is?

Granland: Yeah.

Hawley: ...was standing like pretty close by me on the phone and whatnot.

And then all the other, everybody else was behind the, you know, the thing, the....

Granland: The yeah, where they, the register so to speak.

Hawley: Cook, yeah, the (Unintelligible) yeah.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: And other man came out and for her, and she came out and, you know what I mean, unlocked the doors for the cops. And um, went back, everybody else...

When one of the guys, the other guys started to come out and um, cause I guess he was taking care of (Unintelligible) but she told him no, he set pizza and pop down on the table and then he came back. He told that after it was locked down he came back and grabbed it and went back. But he's the only person that came out of from the thing besides the manger, who I think is manager. But he's the only one that came out for a minute, you know, besides her.

Granland: Okay.
That's all I got.

Yglesias: And you said that the, this is the first time you've seen her?

Hawley: No, I seen her in the morning time but...

Yglesias: The first time in the morning is the first time you've, today's the first time you've seen her.

Hawley: Today yeah. Today's the first time I've ever seen her, yeah.

Yglesias: Okay.
And do you frequent that area?

Hawley: Yeah, but not right there really no, cause this is a new spot. My friend wanted to meet me since this thing with the other guy happened. He worried about my safety cause he got in my face; so he just remembered that so he.....

Yglesias: So it's possible she's been in that area for a little while?

Hawley: Yeah, I don't like, well they didn't let cats into Walgreen's. I just don't go in that little complex.

Yglesias: Okay. So you're kinda new to that area.

Hawley: Yeah, I've been there before but yeah. I didn't really hang out.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: I (Unintelligible) cause like I said I'm not really homeless. I'm homeless and not homeless.

Yglesias: Umm-hmm.

Hawley: So like I, I go back home every day but I go see my friend that's homeless. And go actually the night with him, with him before.

Yglesias: Okay.

Hawley: The guy that, the one that got in my face I spent the night with him in his camp but .....

Yglesias: Okay.
I think (Unintelligible) Maybe. That's recorded.

Granland: Okay.

Hawley: I wrote a statement already, so.

Yglesias: You did write a statement?

Granland: Oh, you did write it. Oh okay, perfect then.

Hawley: Yeah. Yeah.

Yglesias: Okay. (Unintelligible)

Granland: That'd be my next question.

Hawley: Yeah, I gotta use (Unintelligible)

Granland: All right.

Yglesias: All right.
Can you think of anything else that we left out?

Hawley: No. It's really, I'm mostly just worried about the fact of like, I mean did I say she might, she might, might not go to jail. But the fact that even if she did go to jail and gets out whatever like, (Unintelligible)

(Unintelligible)

Yglesias: I don't know. I don't know what's going to happen to her.

Hawley: (Unintelligible) that place just in case.
Like if I (Unintelligible) safety I do (Unintelligible) all by myself, like you know what I'm saying, (Unintelligible)

And he, even if she does get out or not either way.....

Granland: She won't remember you.

Hawley: Yeah, that's what I'm worried about is my safety.

Yglesias: Yeah, no she's.....

Granland: She won't remember you.

Jurisdiction Agency: Tacoma Police Department

Yglesias: She's not gonna remember.
 Granland: So much stuff happened that night. She's not gonna remember.
 Hawley: She was on something. I'm guessing she was on something.
 Granland: Yeah, something, so.
 Yglesias: Yeah.
 Granland: You know.....
 Yglesias: Yeah. I think she's probably gonna be in the hospital for a little while.
 Granland: You don't frequent that area too much.
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Granland: So I wouldn't worry about it. Maybe try to avoid it.
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Granland: Obviously, you know what she looks like so if you see her cross the street,....
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Granland: ...turn around, you know, cause like I said she, she has knives or whatever and so yeah, you're right, you gotta get, you have to think of your cat. Right.
 Hawley: Yeah, I told.... (Unintelligible)
 Granland: Take care of your cat.
 Hawley: Yeah, like I said my, my, she's my kid, so.
 Yglesias: Okay.
 Granland: Take care of Meow-Meow.
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Granland: And just go across the street or walk away from her. Okay.
 Hawley: And like one time I was walking alone, but I walked alone before but like I tried uh, (Unintelligible) most of the time I try to do everything I can but and then all this happened.
 The only time I had been like alone like that like, it always happens. I was like why then, you know, why me, like.....
 Granland: Umm-hmm.
 Yglesias: Yeah, sometimes.....
 Granland: Well, I'm just glad you're okay.
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Granland: Nothing bad happened to ya.
 Hawley: I can't believe.
 Granland: And thanks again so much for your cooperation.
 Hawley: So we know it was (Unintelligible) she had a knife on her. (Unintelligible)
 Granland: Right.
 Hawley: They didn't believe me.
 Yglesias: (Unintelligible) nobody saw it.
 Hawley: (Unintelligible)
 Granland: Yeah. Stop it and you can walk her down. (Unintelligible)
 Hawley: Yeah, and I feel like they were like ....
 Yglesias: Umm-hmm.
 All right. Did you got all your stuff?
 Hawley: Yeah.
 Yglesias: Okay.
 Hawley: I feel like they like um, ..... (Unintelligible)
 (Unintelligible)
 End of Recording.

	I responded to 3840 Pacific Ave. (Domino's) regarding the investigation of an officer involved shooting. Upon arrival, I met with CST M. Jones-Rush and was given an overview of the incident. Sgt. White, Det. Buchanan, and CST Doan were also present on scene. I was shown the associated areas to include the north parking lot, the sidewalks along the north and east sides of the business, and the detached garage of the building at 3837 Pacific Ave. (Herbal Envidia) located east across the roadway on Pacific Ave. I then met with CST Doan, who gave me a briefing of the overall photographs she had taken of the scene prior to my arrival. I conducted a walkthrough of these areas with CST Jones-Rush, CST Doan, and Det. Buchanan, where I was shown items and areas of interest. The following items were located on the north sidewalk in front of the business at 3840 Pacific Ave. (Domino's): knife with a wooden handle (EM#1) near the west pillar, four (4) 9mm spent casings (EM#2-EM#5), a knife with a black handle (EM#6), a roll of paper bags (EM#7), and a black fabric glove (EM#8) near the front entry doors. The following items were located on the east sidewalk along the business: a purse containing various items (EM#9), assorted items next to the purse (EM#10), "Z-Pak Dressing" packaging (EM#11), black disposable gloves (EM#12). A butter knife (EM#13) was recovered from the purse. Det. Buchanan showed me suspected strike marks (marked A and B) in the dirt of the northeast section of the planting strip near the northeast pillar. There was also suspected blood on the east sidewalk (marked C and D). The detached garage located across the roadway at 3837 Pacific Ave. (Herbal Envidia) had suspected bullet damage (marked E) on the upper south section of the west wall. I took photographs of the area and these items as listed above. I conducted a search for additional ballistic evidence at the area surrounding the Domino's business with negative results. I recovered a spent bullet (EM#14) from the damaged area of the detached garage (marked E). I took additional photographs of this item. I collected the items marked (EM#1-EM#14) and swabs of the areas with suspected blood (marked C and D). I transported these items to the Forensics Lab at TPD Headquarters for further examination and for placement into the property room.

Narrative	At the request of SGT P. Larkin, I reported to 3840 Pacific Ave. to document an officer-involved shooting incident. Upon arrival, I was advised of the incident and conducted a walkthrough of the scene with DET J. Buchanan and CST M. Jones-Rush. I took the above listed photographs of the overall area. While on scene, I was asked to relocate to Tacoma General Hospital as the detectives there needed assistance with translating. Upon arrival at Tacoma General, DET S. Reopelle and DET A. Robillard advised me of the incident and introduced me to the subject, Ms. Thao Pham. I assisted the detectives with translating and took the above listed photographs of Ms. Pham. I received two bags of clothing from PPO C. Burbank. I collected the clothing, transported them to the TPD Forensics Laboratory for additional photographs, air-dried them in the TPD Forensics Bio-Dry room, and will submit them to the Pierce County Property Room. DET S. Reopelle, DET A. Robillard, PPO C. Burbank, and PPO M. Collins were present at the hospital.

and ballistic damage to a shed at 3837 Pacific Ave. Conditions were dark with intermittent rain; the storefront was well lit but the parking lot and driveway were unlit. I performed overall videography of the scene while CST Doan photographed. CST M. Ramos then arrived at the scene to relieve CST Doan. She marked the following items as evidence which I took additional video of: on the north walkway, two knives (Evidence Marker/EM1, 6), four spent casings (EM2-5), a brown paper twist (EM7), and a pair of black fabric gloves (EM8); and on the east walkway, a black purse (EM9), miscellaneous personal effects (EM10), a medical dressing package (EM11), and a pair of disposable gloves (EM12). She also marked two suspected bullet strikes (A, B) in the dirt planter to the east of the east walkway, and two areas of suspected blood (C, D) on the east walkway. I also performed videography of the interior storefront and front kitchen of the business. I then utilized the FARO Focus3D X330 HDR laser scanner to collect data for use in creating a diagram of the scene. Det. Buchanan then searched through the purse (EM9) and located a third knife (EM13). At his request I used a Garrett CSI 250 metal detector, after verifying its function, to search the dirt planter to the east of the sidewalk for ballistic evidence with negative results. Once we finished documenting the scene, I assisted CST Ramos with collecting the items of evidence (EM1-13) from the walkways. On 07/03/19 at 0438 hours, Sgt. White requested that I respond to TPD Headquarters to pick up two large bins to collect the transient subject's property which was deemed unrelated to the incident. I returned to the scene with the bins at 0448 hours and assisted Sgt. White and Det. Buchanan with collecting the items, including multiple bags, blankets, umbrellas, and a wheeled cart. I transported the bins of property back to the TPD Headquarters CID Secure Evidence Cage, arriving at 0502 hours, and returned the property to Sgt. White's custody. I did not collect any items as evidence. Sgt. P. Jagodinski, Sgt. M. Graham, PPO A. Guardinu, and PPO A. Farinas were also present at the scene.

Instructions: Starting at the beginning, write down everything that happened from beginning to end. Use as many additional sheets as necessary.

Narrative Facts: In the morning I met my friend here and I had to wait about 20 minutes. She was standing in the same spot but didn't say anything to me. She seemed normal. I was waiting towards the door of Dominoes tonight because I was supposed to meet my friend here again because this has been our meeting spot (so that way I am off the main road) and I got right to the end of the Dominoes's door and she pulled out a knife and said something but I could not understand her. She was drunk or something. And then she walked towards me and I opened the door to Dominoes and said call 911 she has a knife and she pulled it out on me and I said can I come in and they said no. Then they went and got a lady (I guessing she is the manager) and I tell her and she looked out and whistled herself. I asked if I could come in and that I had a cat and she said yes. I went in as I am stating and couldn't stop and she locked the door and told her employees to cancel all orders that it was going to at least be 1 hour. The cops show up they went towards the lady with their guns out and then I saw them back up and then an officer pull out his baton and then I heard shot fired and the officers try and put her down and were struggling with her then I noticed stuff on the ground and the knife on the ground by the door at dominos and then I saw her on the ground and officers (looked like holding her down). Then a officer came to the door and the lady from Dominos had to come unlock the door to talk to the officer and then the officer walked off and the Dominos lady walked off and I had to ask her if she could please lock the door. Then the officers came back to the door and asked who witnessed it and got info from everyone they needed to and talked to me and I told them what happened.
