Arrest Made in the Murder of Lehman Tucker on April 18, 2023

Tacoma, Wash. – On April 18, at 12:59 p.m., officers responded to the 700 block of Yakima Avenue for reports of a male shot after a verbal altercation. The victim arrived at a local hospital by private vehicle where he was declared deceased.

The victim was identified by the Pierce County Medical Examiner's Office as Lehman Tucker, a 20-year-old male.

Detectives were able to establish probable cause for the arrest of an 18-year-old female in this homicide.

On April 29, officers with Everett Police Department located and arrested the suspect in Everett.

Tacoma officers took custody of the suspect from the Everett Police Department and booked the 18-year-old female into the Pierce County Jail for Murder First Degree.

The Tacoma Police Department would like to thank the Everett Police Department for their assistance with this case.
