Homicide Arrest

Tacoma, Wash. – On January 31, at 3:15 p.m., South Sound 911 received reports of a road rage with shots fired in the area of S. 54th St and S. Washington St. Both involved vehicles left the scene. The female driver of the victim vehicle called 911 to report a passenger in the backseat of her vehicle had been shot. The female drove the male shooting victim to a local hospital. The female and a male passenger in the front seat were not injured in the shooting.

The victim was pronounced deceased at the hospital.

Detectives and crime scene technicians responded to the hospital and to the scene of the shooting.

The Pierce County Medical Examiner's Office identified the victim as Victor Scott, a 56-year-old male.

Detectives identified a 24-year-old male suspect in the homicide of Victor Scott. Tacoma officers arrested the suspect without incident today with the assistance of the Special Weapons and Tactics Team. The suspect was booked into jail for Felony Elude and First Degree Murder.
