Second Arrest Made in Homicide Investigation – 4800 Block of North 18th Street

At approximately 2:30 a.m. on Thursday, January 9, 2025, our officers responded to the 4800 block of North 18th Street on a report of shots fired and a man lying in the street. Upon arrival, our officers found an adult male suffering from gunshot wounds. Responding officers and Tacoma Fire Department personnel attempted life-saving measures, but the victim was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Crime Scene Technicians and detectives responded to the scene. The incident was investigated as a homicide.

On Friday, January 10, 2025, detectives from the Tacoma Police Department following up on evidence obtained from the crime scene were able to locate and identify a suspect in the homicide. The seventeen-year-old male suspect was taken into custody and booked into Remann Hall for the offense of Murder in the Second Degree.

On Tuesday, January 14, 2025, Tacoma Police Detectives made a second arrest in relation to the homicide investigation. The eighteen-year-old male suspect was taken into custody without incident and booked into the Pierce County Jail for the offense of Murder in the Second Degree.

The incident is still being actively investigated. Anyone with information is asked to contact Tacoma Police or Crime Stoppers of Tacoma-Pierce County.
