Homicide Arrest

Tacoma, Wash. – On March 19, 2022, just after 10:00 p.m., South Sound 911 received a call regarding an armed robbery to a business in the 3200 block of Portland Avenue. When officers arrived, they located a male employee who had been shot and was declared deceased on scene. The Pierce County Medical Examiner identified the victim as 29-year-old Jordan Brown.

Through their investigation, detectives identified two suspects in this case, 16-year-old Montrell Hatfield and 15-year-old Marshon Jones.

Today Seattle Police officers arrested Marshon Jones in Kent outside of the Regional Justice Center.

Jones was transported to Remann Hall Juvenile Detention Center where he was booked for Murder 1st Degree.

Hatfield is still outstanding and considered to be armed and dangerous. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS or 911.
