Bank Robbery Arrest

Tacoma, Wash. – On April 20, at 1:36 p.m., officers were dispatched to a bank robbery in the 600 block of N. 1 St. The first officer on scene made contact with witnesses who advised a white male wearing a green jacket and camo pants had given the bank teller a note demanding money and implied a weapon. The suspect then fled with the money.

The officer immediately reviewed surveillance video and sent suspect pictures to patrol officers via their in car computers. At 1:49 p.m., officers doing an area check observed the suspect in the 700 block of Tacoma Avenue. The suspect was taken into custody without incident.

The suspect, a 22-year-old male, was booked into the Pierce County Jail for Robbery 1st Degree and an unrelated warrant.
