Street Racing Organizer Arrested

Tacoma, Wash. – A joint investigation between Kent and Tacoma Police Departments led to the identification of a suspect believed to be responsible for the organization and facilitation of numerous illegal street racing events throughout King and Pierce County, to include the City of Tacoma.

Tacoma police officers arrested the 18-year-old male suspect today at a residence in Puyallup.

The suspect will initially be transferred to King County for charges related to incidents within their jurisdiction.

The investigation is ongoing for charging of incidents within Pierce County.
