Homicide Arrest

Tacoma, Wash. - On August 8, 2021 at 10:07 p.m. South Sound 911 received a call for a male who appeared to have been stabbed in the 7000 block of Pacific Avenue. Officers arrived and found the male unresponsive in a parking lot and immediately initiated life-saving measures. The Tacoma Fire Department transported the forty-six-year-old male to a local hospital where he later died from his injuries.

This was investigated as a homicide and detectives and crime scene technicians responded to the scene.

Today at 3:06 p.m., officers arrested a fifty-three-year-old male who detectives had identified as the suspect in this homicide. The suspect was taken into custody without incident in the 7200 block of Pacific Avenue and was booked into the Pierce County Jail for First Degree Murder.
