Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On July 11, just before 2:00 a.m., South Sound 911 received reports of shots fired being heard in the 3900 block of Ruston Way. Officers arrived on scene within minutes. Several vehicles were seen leaving the area of Cummings Park and a shooting victim was located. Officers started life saving measures and medical aid was called for. The male victim was pronounced deceased on scene by the Tacoma Fire Department.

Detectives and forensic officers have responded to the scene. The investigation is ongoing.
