Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On July 8, just before 5:00 p.m., South Sound 911 received a phone call reporting that a male had been stabbed and was now in the lobby of an apartment complex in the 700 block of Commerce St. Police officers arrived on scene, found the male victim unresponsive, and immediately started life-saving measures. Tacoma Fire Department Medics transported the 44 year-old male to a local hospital where he was pronounced deceased.

During the course of the investigation, officers were able to identify a suspect and determined he could still be in the area. Shortly thereafter, the 35-year-old male came out of one of the apartments and turned himself into officers.

Detectives and crime scene technicians have responded to the scene.

The investigation is ongoing.
