Juvenile Arrested for Threats to Shoot Students

Tacoma, Wash. – On June 7, 2022, at 3:45 p.m., staff at Northwest School of Innovative Learning, 1819 E. 72 St., contacted South Sound 911 regarding threats made by a student to shoot a staff member and students. The threats had been made to a staff member and a list of intended targets had been located.

Officers contacted the student at a residence in Tacoma. The student's legal guardians were also present.

The 14-year-old male was arrested and booked into Remann Hall for 10 counts of Felony Harassment.
