

MEDIA RELEASE

TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT
For Immediate Release
March 3, 2020

TACOMA, Wash. – On March 3rd at 02:12 a.m. Tacoma Police responded to reports of a stabbing in the 2500 block of Pacific Avenue. Officers contacted a 27-year-old white male who said he got into an argument with a male who had stabbed him. The suspect was described as a bald white male in his 20s. The victim was transported to the hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

At 04:20 a.m., Tacoma Police were called to the 2500 block of A Street for a 42-year-old white male who had been stabbed in the back several times. The suspect was described as a white male in his 20s with a shaved head. Officers discovered some of the victim's belongings had been lit on fire. The victim was transported to the hospital with life-threatening injuries. Tacoma Police were still looking for the suspect when they received a third call.

At 04:50 a.m., Tacoma Police received a call of a male assaulting another male in the 2500 block of East G Street. Police arrived and detained a suspect. A 64-year-old white male victim was located. He was transported to the hospital with critical injuries.

The suspect in all three crimes is a 23-year-old white male who was booked into the Pierce County Jail for three counts of Assault and one count of Arson.

Public Information
Officer Wendy Haddow
253-591-5968
whaddow@cityoftacoma.org

Tacoma Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, WA 98409

