Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On May 17, at 9:57 a.m., South Sound 911 received a call from the 7600 block of Pacific Ave. A community member was asking for a welfare check to be done on a neighbor. The neighbor's young children had told the reporting party that their mother was dead inside of their apartment.

Officers located a 24-year-old female unresponsive inside the apartment. Tacoma Fire Department medics declared the victim deceased on scene.

The three children, ages 2, 3, and 5 years, were unharmed.

Detectives and crime scene technicians have responded to the scene.

The children were placed into protective custody.

This is being investigated as a homicide.
