Child Pornography Distributor Arrested

Tacoma, Wash. – In November 2022, Tacoma Police Detectives of the Internet Crimes Against Children Unit began an investigation regarding a subject believed to be possessing and distributing child pornography. Detectives developed probable cause, and Pierce County Superior Court issued multiple search warrants during the investigation.

On April 26th, 2023, Tacoma Special Assaults Unit served a residential search warrant at a home in Tacoma with the assistance of the Tacoma Police Forensics and Community Policing Units. After a forensic review of one device seized from the suspect, detectives found over one-thousand files of child sexual abuse material.
