Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On November 27, 2020, at 12:30 a.m., South Sound 911 received a call reporting a male had been shot in the 2100 block of East 60th Street. Officers arrived in the area and found two victims. One victim, a 42-year-old male, had a non-life threatening injury and the other victim, a 55-year-old male was unresponsive on the ground. Officers immediately started life saving measures and called for medical aid.

The Tacoma Fire Department responded and the 55 year-old victim was declared deceased on scene.

Detectives and crime scene technicians have responded to the scene.
