Detectives Seeking Information on Suspects in Early Morning Armed Robbery of Cannabis Shop

Tacoma, Wash. – On October 28, at 2:26 a.m., an alarm call came into South Sound 911 from a cannabis shop in the 2600 block of Pacific Avenue. The alarm company advised that a security guard on scene was reporting an armed robbery had occurred, with shots fired and the suspects no longer on scene.

Officers were able to determine that three vehicles had pulled up to the front of the business. One of the vehicles drove directly into the business through the front doors. The suspects then ran into the store and started throwing merchandise into bags they brought to the scene.

The armed security guard, who had been outside of the business, exchanged gunfire with multiple suspects. One suspect is believed to have been struck by gunfire. The suspects then fled the area in one of the vehicles and on foot. The security guard was not injured.

No suspects were located during an area check.

The two vehicles left at the scene were both stolen.

Detectives are asking that anyone with information regarding this violent crime call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.
